2 Tiny Girls
by Mother

Two blonde little Long Beach girls, apparently abandoned when their mother left for Nebraska with a man named "Bob", were turned over to county juvenile authorities Saturday.

Officers were told a 14-year-old sister was living on her own and a 15-year-old sister was staying with other friends somewhere in the Monterey Park area.

Katherine Susan McEvers, 8½, and Judith Rose McEvers, 7½, went to County Juvenile Hall when the middle-aged couple with whom they were left here couldn't care for them any longer.

Police said the children were living with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Gillogly at 806 Via Wanda.

Friday, the 65-year-old Mrs. Gillogly fell down a flight of stairs and was admitted to Community Hospital with back injuries. Her husband, 69, is confined to a wheel chair.

Gillogly called juvenile authorities. He told them the youngsters' mother, Mrs. Gladys McEvers, left the girls with them June 11.

She and man known only as "Bob" said they were going to Nebraska to try to establish a home there and would send back for the girls when they got settled.

Last word from Mrs. McEvers by the Gilloglys June 14 when she wired $10 from Omaha.

Gillogly said he and his wife had been "casual friends" of Mrs. McEvers for "10 or 12 years."

The father's whereabouts was not known.

Hoover of FBI Warns of 'Sex Crime' Season

The summer "sex crime" season is here. In the following, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover warns all communities against complacency. "Get ready for a tidal wave of violence," he says.

By GWEN GIBSON

WASHINGTON (UP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover warned Saturday that "the vacant lot, the alley, the park and the quiet street" are dangerous traps in summer months when crimes of passion reach a shocking peak.

"This is the season of the year when a tidal wave of violence must be expected to break upon the American scene," he said. "The people of America must be prepared to see big black letters dominate the front pages of the press in the days to come."

The government's chief law enforcement officer made no mention of the recent wave of so-called personal crimes but he said the "summer deluge is up us... we cannot and must not remain complacent."

Hoover cited figures to show that since the pre-war years of

Ten Yankees
Slave Camps

VIENNA (UP)—Austrians returning from Russia's slave camps Saturday disclosed the names of 10 more imprisoned Americans who sent pleas for help from U. S. authorities.

Other recently returned Austrians have mentioned half a dozen other Americans who are being held prisoner. It is believed the Russians may be holding more than 20 U. S. citizens.

Reports on the additional 10 were brought here by 141 men and 45 women, who returned to freedom here. Many of them had been kidnapped from Soviet-surrounded Vienna after World War II and thrown into the slave labor camps.

Some of the Americans they named are soldiers or civilian officials who were kidnapped in Germany or elsewhere. Others were seized by Russians who refused to recognize their U. S. citizenship.

Saturday's returnees told stories of ruthless massacres of prisoners who rebelled against inhuman Soviet slave labor camp conditions.

"When prisoners refused to work at Camp Vladimir (180 miles southeast of Moscow) in 1954, the Russian guards lined up everyone in the camp," one Austrian said.

"They shot the first man in the line, then after a pause they shot the second, then the third. The strike ended quickly."

Geneva Talks Loom
as One More Battle
in Long Cold War

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Big Four summit meeting is threatening to become more of a cold war battle than a peace conference.

This is evident as Secretary of State Dulles returns to Washington today to begin final preparations for the long-awaited meeting in Geneva three weeks hence.

Prospects for the conference were thrown into much sharper focus at the United Nations 10th anniversary ceremonies in San Francisco, where Dulles and Russian Foreign Minister Molotov spent the past week.

It now appears that while there may be some minor adjustments in relations between Russia and the Western Powers, the great issues are so deadlocked that little progress toward their solution is to be expected.

On the contrary what seems to be going on now is a testing of strength between the two sides, each probing for weaknesses which may be exploited to force the other to pull back.

The judgment of the best informed authorities here is that neither side has an enormous edge over the other, so the overall result of Geneva may be to confirm the existence of a stalemate.

Diplomats say that this would not necessarily mean further immediate trouble for the world, however, because a condition of balance between the Communist bloc and the free world could very well produce a period of stability in world affairs.

While hopeful plans for the Big Four session were being pressed, harsh evidence suddenly developed that dangerous friction continues along the sprawling front between the Communists and the noncommunist world.

Diplomats agreed that was the significance of the attack Wednesday on a U. S. Navy patrol plane by Russian jet fighters over the Bering Sea between Alaska and Siberia. The forced landing of the plane and the injury of seven crew members pro-

Farmers OK
for Wheat

CHICAGO (UP)—The nation's wheat farmers apparently approved marketing quotas on their 1956 crops in a nationwide referendum Saturday. Farmers from big wheat-producing states made the difference.

Returns from 23 of the 36 states in which farmers voted showed 165,381 votes for controls with 65,849 against. That was 71 plus per cent in favor with 66.6 of those voting necessary for approval.

Big wheat-producing states piled up heavy margins for quotas and the higher price support controls would bring.

Kansas, the nation's largest producer, voted 39,035 to 1,106 for quotas while Texas, another large producer, voted 86.7 per cent for quotas and Minnesota's margin was 96 per cent. North Dakota's early count showed 94 per cent for controls.

Many of the smaller states, where wheat is not the bread and butter crop, also either approved quotas heavily or voted them down by slight margins. Indiana showed a 12 per cent increase in "yes" votes over last year.

Other small wheat-growing states such as Georgia, Delaware and South Carolina went for quotas. Corn-state Iowa approved quotas heavily and Illinois gave controls a 59.9 per cent edge.

Many farmers from the corn-producing states voted for controls fearing that a wheat surplus would turn the grain into competition with corn as a feed-

Billy Graham
in Germany

STUTTGART, Germany (UP)—Evangelist Billy Graham preached Saturday night to more than 60,000 persons in a revival meeting which he called "my highest success" in his current tour of Europe.

More than 5,000 persons came forward to "declare for Christ" at the jammed local football field when he made his fifth appearance in Germany.

Graham spoke for 90 minutes following an introduction by Bishop Dr. Martin Haug and music by 1,000 instruments and 400 singers. Despite thunderclouds and lightning no one left the field.

At a press conference before the meeting the North Carolina evangelist said Germany's "evangelical revival has deeply impressed the world."

Sugar Shipment

BRISBANE, Australia (UP)—The biggest customs investigation ever seen in this east-coast port is under way today, following discovery Saturday of $235,000 worth of smuggled gold in a cargo loaded here last month.

Authorities in the British China-coast colony of Hong Kong found the gold hidden in bags of raw sugar picked up in Brisbane late in May by the British freighter Nellore. The metal had been cut in small pieces and distributed throughout the sugar.

It could not be determined immediately whether the gold was intended to reach the Communists in China.

Offer to Pay

Molotov Gives Note to Dulles; Latter
Cold to Proposal

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov Saturday expressed regret for the shooting down of an American naval plane in the Bering Straits last Wednesday and said Russia was willing to pay one-half the damages.

The Soviet foreign minister disclosed his position in a memorandum which he handed to Secretary of State John Foster Dulles at a hurriedly arranged meeting in the afternoon.

Dulles immediately informed President Eisenhower by telephone and said he would discuss the matter further with the President when they are both in Washington on Monday. Dulles told Molotov that the offer to pay 50 per cent of the damages fell short of what the United States had requested.

Dulles had gone to Rutherford, Calif., for a swim and for lunch with friends and had just begun his lunch when the Soviet delegation telephoned and said Molotov wanted urgently to see him to present a note on the plane incident.

The secretary returned to San Francisco in a state highway patrol car. He covered the 66 miles in 65 minutes. Molotov arrived at his hotel 10 minutes after the secretary of state returned.

Present at the talks in Dulles' suite at the Mark Hopkins Hotel, in addition to the two ministers, were Charles E. Bohlen, U. S. Ambassador to Moscow; Georgi N. Zarubin, Soviet ambassador to Washington, and an interpreter.

At the end of the meeting, the State Department issued the following statement:

"The Soviet foreign minister, Mr. Molotov, gave Secretary of State Dulles a memorandum with reference to the incident of the shooting down by Soviet aircraft of the United States Neptune-type naval plane in the vicinity of St. Lawrence Island, Alaska.

"The Soviet government asserts that the United States

Pioneer Blvd.
Blocked by Long Parade

Several hundred Southland drivers enjoying a mid-morning drive got an hour-long parade thrown into the bargain Saturday.

They had no choice but to watch the Hawaiian Gardens Lions Club parade—complete with Navy and Marine marching units—file past the intersection of Carson St. and Pioneer Blvd.

The Lions thoroughly baffled the California Highway Patrol by re-routing their parade onto an already-cluttered Pioneer Blvd. That road was cut in half by storm-drain work.

The last-minute switch—the second one since the permit was issued to the Lions—left the CHP with no detour.

"The resulting tie-up stretched for miles in each direction from the intersection of Carson St. and Pioneer Blvd. Cars were bumper to bumper on Carson St. west to Cherry Ave.—about five miles.

The original route, as applied for by parade chairman William A. Reynolds, used Pioneer Blvd. The CHP looked for a way to divert traffic. Then Reynolds changed the route off Pioneer Blvd. and the patrol stopped worrying. The last switch was a secret.

There will be no parade today.

The armed forces are in a quandary over what policy to follow when men make false confessions while being held by Communists. The Army is trying one of its returned men because he collaborated with the Communists. The Air Force announces there will be no action taken against the four airmen recently released. All four had signed false confessions to the effect that the Yalu River had been crossed under official orders. One "confessed" to participating in germ warfare.

It is a serious problem because such signed confessions are used by the Communists among a billion Asian people who have no way of knowing their falsehood. They are used to Communist advantage among those in every country whose left-wing leanings encourage Communism. Since most of these prisoners are officers their "confessions" carry added weight.

We have just finished reading the diary of Lieut. Parks in U. S. News magazine. It tells of his 33 months imprisonment in Red China's prisons. He was a jet pilot, shot down in 1952. He was over North Korea but landed in Red China. Only 22 years old when shot down, he went through 33 months of mental torture, bad food, cold and discouragement.

There was no real physical torture such as hot irons, beatings, etc. But for months he was in solitary confinement. The food was rice with a few vegetables and the only drink was hot water. The weather was bitterly cold in winter. During both day and night he would huddle under a few dirty blankets to keep warm. Most of the time he was alone with his thoughts and discouragement. He was interrogated over and over for hours at a time, always being asked who ordered him to cross the Yalu.

Then he would be given Communist books and papers, printed in English, to read, and then forced to write, detailed reports on what he had read. He would be promised better treatment if he confessed. If he did not, he was told he would never leave there alive. Over and over—alone, or with one or two other prisoners, always getting the same treatment.

There came a time when these men figured they would sign anything to be left alone or to get a little extra piece of meat or bread. They figured the folks at home would understand. It was after 20 to 30 months—months, not days or hours—that they signed "confessions" that they had been ordered to cross into Communist territory. Some signed anything put before them. What would you do under the same circumstances?

This writer is not an heroic individual. We very much feel we would have done just as these young men did. They were so very weary, ill and wanted to come home. They were being held illegally by people whose fanaticism was unreal to them. We have great sympathy for these men because of what they have gone through. But we sympathize even more with them because of what they did to get out. It is a cloud that will always be there, no matter how they rationalize it.

Quite a different situation is involved in the Army prosecution. In that case the G.I. had informed on his buddies and tried to convert them to Communism. For such cases we have no sympathy. But the armed forces have a real problem in trying to set up a policy of leniency which will not encourage prisoners to tell military secrets or lies in order to gain better treatment or release. It is a situation that has arisen only since the Communists have disregarded all honor in war and in their dealings with other people.—L.A.C.

vided a reminder of the grim realities of conflict between the two great power blocs.

Dulles was expected here by plane early today after making one of the last major speeches of the San Francisco meeting.

It was clearly designed in part to answer an earlier Soviet foreign policy address by that durable Communist diplomat, Molotov. Together the two speeches sharpened the main issues which will be before the Big Four session when President Eisenhower, trians said, armed guards simply fired blind into the ranks of strikers.

The ten Americans were identified as follows:

PVT. SIDNEY R. SPARKS, about 23, of Tennessee, GA., who said the Russians kidnapped him in 1952 from Soviet-surrounded Berlin.

WILLIAM C. WALLACE, of New York City, a war veteran who was seized by the Russians in 1946, when he was working for the U. S. legation in Red Bucharest.

JOHN L. SHERIDAN, who said the Russians kidnapped him in Germany.

JOHN, OR JERRY, FORD of Oklahoma, who is said to have been a prisoner of the Russians since 1940. It was not clear how he fell into Soviet hands so long ago. Ford, whose presence in Soviet slave camps also had been reported previously by other returning Austrians, said he has a wife and two children in Oklahoma.

GEORGE O. DICE, seized by Communists in Berlin while serving there as a soldier.

STEFAN JADOST, 50, of Latvian descent who was born in New York City. He told fellow-prisoners the Russians seized him in Soviet-swallowed Latvia.

BOB BIRTH OR KUMIS, a man of Polish birth who said he is a naturalized American and a former resident of New Orleans. He was seized in Soviet Austria in 1947.

JACK MILLER, W. FREEMAN of Connecticut and an American sergeant with a name believed to be COOLIDGE who was reported to be from Boston. No further background information is available on these three Prime Minister Eden and Premier Bulganin meet to face.

Molotov, in brief, called on the Western Powers to break up their alliances, which were specifically designed to contain Soviet-Communist power. He pressed the United States to dismantle its far-flung system of bases. Despite the heavy emphasis on Soviet peace aims his hard-core demands had an old, familiar ring—peace could be achieved readily if other nations would stop getting in the way of Moscow's objectives.

Dulles laid down an equally determined doctrine. In this he was backed by France's Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay and was known to have the support of Britain's Foreign Minister Harold Macmillan. He rejected Moscow's price as being too high. He told Molotov that elaborate programs for achieving peace were not necessary; a one-point program would suffice. Peace could be had, he said, when the Communists stop using force and subversion to overthrow non-Communist governments.

Dulles and Molotov dined together on more than one occasion. They were photographed together. They conformed to diplomacy's code of good conduct. But their words were the words of men tangled in a deadly struggle rather than the hopeful expressions of negotiators about to make peace. Dulles' speech particularly emphasized that his hopes are based on the strength of the unified might of the free nations.

This allied strength is the basis of the whole strategy of the Western Powers in preparation for the meeting with the Soviets. To breach it in some manner, if possible, is the first aim of Russian diplomacy. For weeks the Soviets have been trying to drive a wedge between the United States and its European allies.

plane was within Soviet air space but under atmospheric conditions which made possible an error on one side or another in regard to the exact location of the plane at the moment of the incident. In view of these circumstances the Soviet government re-expresses its regret in regard to the incident and offers to pay 50 per cent of the cost of the damages inflicted.

Secretary Dulles stated that while he accepted with satisfaction the Soviet government's expressions of regret, the offer as a whole fell short of what he had requested of the Soviet government in the light of information he had received.

Molotov left directly to catch his train for New York. Dulles was to leave later by special military plane for the capital.

Soviet sources said that Dulles in his first talk with Molotov on the plane incident Friday did not mention any figure as the amount of damage. These sources also gave additional details of the Soviet memorandum which Molotov handed to Dulles.

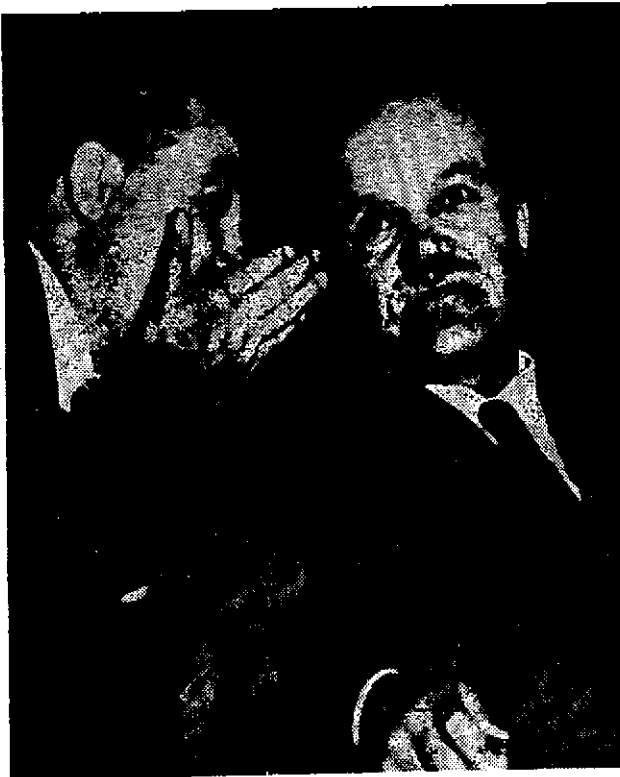

They said that while Molotov had expressed regret for the incident, he had criticized American military authorities in the area for not taking the necessary measures to prevent what he called violation of Soviet waters.

Ellender Blasts Mexico for Curb on U.S. Airlines

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La.) Saturday attacked the Mexican government for an "arbitrary and unreasonable attitude" in refusing to allow U. S. airlines to fly directly to Mexico City.

The Louisiana Democrat urged the administration to cancel U. S. concessions granted to Mexico's official airline "unless they are willing to talk turkey."

Ellender, in a broadcast prepared for Louisiana radio stations, said Air France and Lufthansa, the new West German airline, have been granted permits to fly into Mexico City but U. S. airlines are denied that right.

Weary Molotov Bombarded With Queries From Press

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov Saturday said he felt the United Nations meetings here in the past week achieved "positive results."

Molotov, interviewed at a rare "give and take" press conference, looked tired and sleepy-eyed after a hectic round of conferences and appearances. He answered a wide range of questions of more than 200 reporters gathered in the War Memorial Veterans Building. The questions covered everything from the Big Four "summit" talks at Geneva next month to the re-unification of Germany.

In answer to a question, Molotov said the Soviet Union believes that Germany should be unified through "free, democratic elections." He said his country "holds the view that a united Germany should not represent an extension of either the (Communist) regime in Eastern Germany or the (Allied) regime in West Germany."

"It should be left up to the German people themselves to decide what form of government they want," he said.

Soviet delegates, including Kuzma Kiselev, foreign minister of Byelorussia who joined in with the international press at the conference, fidgeted in their chairs for fear of an embarrassing question.

Later, a Soviet delegate voiced their feeling by saying that the foreign press "behaved remarkably well and asked serious, intelligent questions."

As he faced his men, Molotov alternately folded his hands on his knees, then placed them on the arms of the arm-chair.

Wearing a royal blue tie and his favorite bluish-gray suit, well cut "by a Moscow tailor," as one of the Russians proudly revealed, Molotov retained his composure throughout the interview.

Romulo to Substitute for Molotov on TV

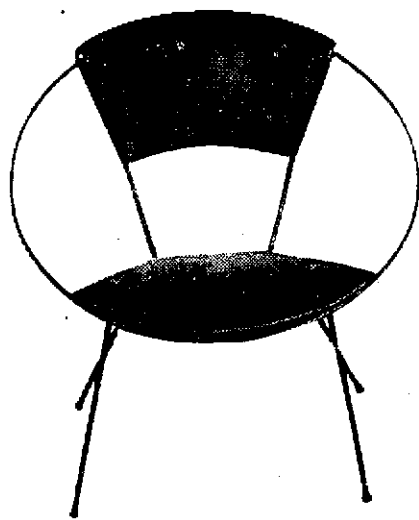

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, U.N. delegate from the Philippines, will substitute for Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov on the television program, "Face the Nation," the Columbia Broadcasting System said Saturday. Molotov's appearance on the program was cancelled when he refused to allow impromptu questioning by the panel.

His "give and take" remarks at Saturday's press conference were aired by the American Broadcasting Co., however, apparently without Molotov's knowledge.

RESPECT FOR AUTHORITY

How Do Nisei Avoid Delinquency?

Japanese-Americans Now Drifting to New Behavior

By GEORGE ERES

In itself, the incident was not too unusual in today's world. A group of teen-agers became involved in a fight with a police officer outside a skating rink in another part of the county.

What made the incident out of the ordinary was that three Nisei, Japanese-American born youths, were involved.

Incidence of juvenile delinquency among Japanese is rare. According to Joseph M. Kennick, head of the Juvenile Dept. here, the "number of Japanese juvenile delinquents who have passed through this office in the past 15 years can be counted on the fingers of one hand."

Authorities are unanimous on this point: race or nationality as such do not account for differences in delinquency rates.

Why then is the ratio of delinquency among the Japanese-Americans so low when it is becoming increasingly high among other groups?

It is true that the number of Japanese-American families in California is small compared to the total population and the number of Nisei juvenile delinquents should be low accordingly. But there is another reason, according to the Rev. Nicholas Iyoya, pastor the Grace Presbyterian Church, Japanese-American church, here.

It is to be found in the family cultural pattern which has existed in Japanese families.

"This pre-war cultural pattern still persists to some extent," said Rev. Iyoya. "It emphasizes two things; authority and social pressure."

THE AUTHORITY is usually the father or teacher or those in power—such as the Emperor in pre-war Japan. The father maintained his authority by indirect means. In a family relationship he never directly gave orders to his children. "The orders usually were given through the mother or older brother," he said.

"This was something Gen. MacArthur understood very well," Rev. Iyoya said. "It accounts for a great measure of his popularity in post-war Japan among the Japanese. He gave his orders through intermediaries. He, himself, was not directly approachable."

The second factor responsible for the relative lack of juvenile delinquency among the Nisei (American-born Japanese, as differentiated from the Issei, Japanese-born residents here) is the emphasis on "opinion of others."

"The desire to be well-thought of, not to offend the goodwill of the neighborhood or the community; not to bring shame to the family—this was a strong deterrent to delinquency," said Rev. Iyoya.

These factors—authority and social pressure—have been in conflict with the freedom and individualism to be found in the New World, according to Rev. Iyoya.

"We now find ourselves in a period of transition," according to Rev. Iyoya, "and the potentiality for delinquency among Nisei is getting greater. We should expect to find more juvenile delinquency cases among Nisei in the future."

The reason for this is the breakdown of the Old Country tradition and the lack of standards to adhere to in the New. "You can almost pinpoint the

WORDS OF THE WISE

Respect for elders is strong among the sons and daughters of Japanese-Americans. Glenn Yomogida, 11, of 1857 Locust Ave. consults greying Thomas Yamano, 620 New York Ave., about a magazine article period at which the transition was most marked here," said Rev. Iyoya. "It was the period of the War Relocation program in the United States."

"Up to the period of the relocation of Japanese from the West Coast of the United States at the outbreak of World War II, the older Issei were in the majority. Now the dominant group is the younger Nisei and his children. The old cultural pattern prevailed in the older segments of the second generation. But we younger half of the second, the third and even the fourth generations of Japanese in America."

"WE ARE ADOPTING the cultural patterns of the majority of Americans," he said. "You notice it in little things. For example, 'necking' or the open expression of affection among couples in public places was something that was not in good taste. It was a 'shame.' This is not the case today among Nisei."

"Stealing was something that just wasn't done—it brought shame to the family, to the individual and to the Japanese community. In the old days, among the warrior class, there was only har-kari to make right grave wrongs."

The drift away from the old cultural patterns is even more marked in Japan than in Japanese colonies abroad, according to Rev. Iyoya. Where before the war juvenile delinquency in Japan was practically unknown, today it is a prime problem.

"Today the country is uprooted. There are no standards. Even the Issei in America no longer look toward the Old Country."

"We are accepted here," said Rev. Iyoya. "It is true that some of the trades bar Japanese-Americans from membership, but where before the war Japanese were limited to work as gardeners, farmers, domestic workers, fishermen, today you will find Japanese-Americans in the highly skilled professions and trades, in the universities and industry."

"We are adopting the majority behavior and cultural patterns. We are in the transition period. It has its good and bad aspects," said the Rev. Iyoya.

The shifting trend, points out Rev. Iyoya, is not as marked in the Long Beach area which has about 350 Japanese-American families. "The Long Beach group stems primarily from Terminal Island population and its cultural standards are in great measure the same as in the prewar period."

THERE ARE POSITIVE aspects to the new trend, Rev. Iyoya said.

"Along with the chaos in the transition from the old to the new cultural patterns, there is the possibility of more creative and positive contribution to the community on the part of individual Nisei and Sansei (third generation Japanese-Americans). The older pattern of culture kept the young in a straitjacket; it made for conformity at the expense of creativity."

The influence of social opinion has diminished, he pointed out. But there remains the factor of authority.

"A father may retain his authority, but as soon as the boy is outside of the direct sphere of influence of the father or the family there is a tendency possibly to 'get away with something'."

It is not a question of knowing right from wrong, said Rev. Iyoya. "It is a question of sensitivity to the opinion and good wishes of others that keeps the individual from going astray."

According to Rev. Iyoya what is needed is to develop the consciousness of a "New Authority." "We may do this by inviting the individual to become a part of a group and develop a sense of 'belonging' as well as the responsibility to the group as a whole or the 'team.' He thus realizes that his own part in the group counts and at the same time, the group itself has the authority beyond itself to which it feels responsible," said Rev. Iyoya.

If the youth turn delinquent, he knows that he is hurting himself and the group as well. "But, in my own belief," said Rev. Iyoya, "the 'Authority' must go beyond both the individual and the group to God Himself—by whatever name you call Him."

CAPITAL CAPERS

By WESLEY PEYTON and ROBERT E. LEE
(Independent Press-Telegram Washington Bureau)

WASHINGTON—The ladies ran off with the honors here last week as two society columnists broke the story about Army Secretary Bob Stevens' resignation.

First report Stevens had quit as of July 31 came from the Washington Star's Betty Beale Tuesday afternoon. In a front page story she said flatly that the resignation was in and would be accepted.

Wednesday morning the Washington Post and Times-Herald carried a news story about White House Press Secretary Jim Hagerty's denial that there was any resignation in the works.

But back in the society section, at the tail end of a long column about who was entertaining whom at cocktails by Society Editor Marie McNair, was a short item about Mrs. Stevens. The secretary's wife was quoted as saying she plans to summer in Montana "where she hopes her husband can join her, providing he doesn't have to work beyond the date of his resignation July 31."

Later Wednesday morning, the White House announced that Stevens was indeed quitting.

Stevens' successor, Wilber Brucker, is best known outside his native Michigan as the man who laughed at Sen. Joe McCarthy (R-Wis) at the Peress hearing. The laughter incident gave some Republicans the idea that Brucker's GOP loyalties were somewhat doubtful. Now it develops that Brucker's father was a Democratic congressman. But the new Army chief has been a lifelong Republican himself, and some indication of his GOP leanings can be inferred from the fact that the only pictures on the walls of the office he now inhabits are of department's general counsel are of GOP presidents, Washington, Lincoln, McKinley, Roosevelt, Coolidge and Hoover.

It is said here that Brucker, who was governor of Michigan in the early 1930's, was such an admirer of Mr. Hoover that when the president sneezed in Washington, Brucker put his handkerchief to his nose in the State House in Lansing.

A recent Commerce Department report about cuttings of men's apparel may or may not be conclusive evidence, but it indicates that spring has been cooler than it normally is throughout the country.

Here's what the department's Census Bureau has to say: Twenty-five per cent more regular weight suits and 27 per cent more topcoats were out in May, 1955, than in May, 1954. At the same time, cuttings of men's summer-weight suits were off 11 per cent from May of last year.

In all other male garment categories, May cuttings showed considerable increase over last year—except for work shirts, which were off 10 per cent. Officials are hard put to explain this drop in work shirts. They don't know whether more men are working in sports shirts (up 11 per cent) or whether the trend is toward stripping to the waist.

Sen. Ed Thyne (R-Minn) tried vainly to interrupt last week when Wayne Morse (D-Ore) was delivering an impassioned criticism of Joe McCarthy's efforts to have the Senate tell like what to do at the upcoming Big Four meeting.

After a number of unsuccessful efforts to get Morse to yield to him, Thyne finally sat down only pictures on the walls of the office he now inhabits are of department's general counsel are of GOP presidents, Washington, Lincoln, McKinley, Roosevelt, Coolidge and Hoover.

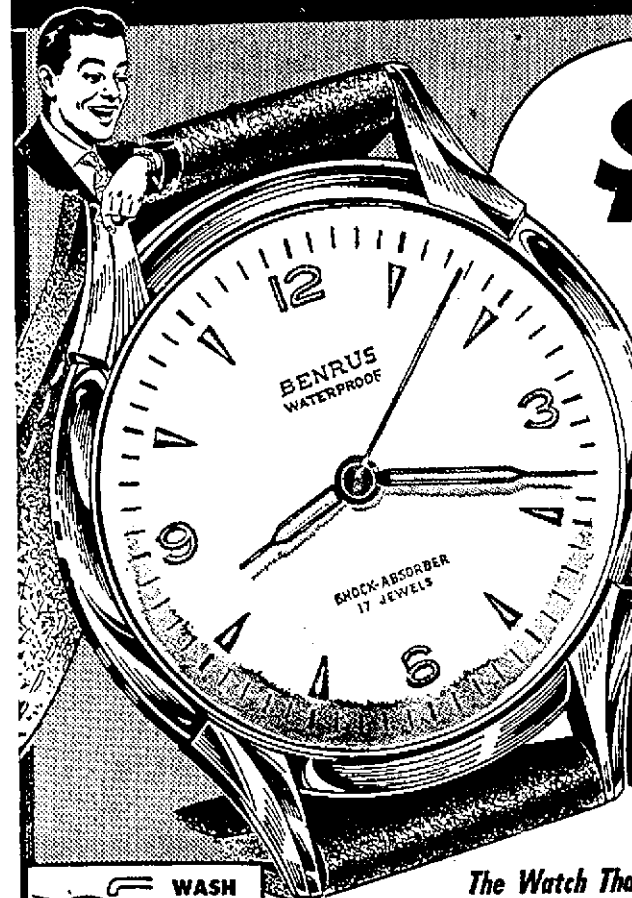

While the galleries roared with laughter, Morse blushed and replied meekly: "The Senator from Minnesota is very kind."

Barges Blast Kills Three, Six Burned

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—A spectacular fire in a nest of gasoline barges killed three persons and burned six others at the Texas Co.'s Tennessee River terminal during an electrical storm Saturday.

The Red Cross announced it will drag the river today in search of three crewmen still missing, and members of the dead, believed drowned.

The new members of the 13-member crew of the tugboat Donna Lee, operated by Melching Barge Lines, Joliet, Ill., were identified as Frank Decker, 43, Tiline, Ky., a deckhand; Elsie McCann, Alton, Ill., the cook; and Louise Tilton, Wood River, Ill., relief pilot.

Listed in critical condition with burns was Ferris Hynds, Bureau, Ill., an oiler.

Two firemen, part of eight companies dispatched to the scene, were injured.

GEN. TAYLOR 'NOT LISTED' AT PENTAGON

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pentagon telephone operators haven't caught up with changes in the top command.

"General Taylor, please," a caller asked. There was a wait.

"What's his first name?" "Maxwell. He's the new Army chief of staff," Long wait.

"Just a moment, please," Longer wait.

"I have no listing for a General Taylor. I'll give you the chief of staff duty officer."

25,000 French Strike

PARIS (AP)—Some 25,000 workers walked out at the country's biggest shipyards at St. Nazaire Saturday in a mushrooming strike wave. The walk-out was a protest against the trial of three union members charged with rioting.

Adlai Stevenson Jr. Weds Louisville Girl in Ceremony at Her Home

LOUISVILLE (AP)—Nancy Lewis Anderson and Adlai E. Stevenson Jr. were married Saturday in a quiet, late afternoon ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, overlooking the Ohio River.

Among the small group of immediate relatives and close family friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warwick Anderson for the ceremony were the bridegroom's father, Democratic party leader Adlai E. Stevenson, and his mother, Mrs. Borden Stevenson of Chicago.

The bride, a graduate this spring of Smith College, wore her mother's ivory satin wedding gown with family rose point lace, and a head dress of the same rose point lace. She carried a French bouquet of gardenias.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. George Waldo Emerson, the matron of honor; and Mrs. Charles Steadman Garland Jr., the bridesmaid. Both wore ivory tinted embroidered organza gowns and carried pink bouquets.

The best man was Lt. Timothy R. Ives, Bloomington, Ill., first cousin of the bridegroom, whose younger brothers, Pfc. Borden Stevenson and John Fell Stevenson, served as ushers.

The wedding service was read by Dr. Peter H. Pleune, pastor of Highland Presbyterian Church. The bride was given in marriage by her father, a Louisville advertising executive.

The young couple first met here several years ago when he was in the Army, stationed at nearby Ft. Knox, and before he served a tour of duty in Korea.

After a small reception which followed the ceremony, the newly married couple left for a honeymoon trip to Canada. They will live at Cambridge, Mass., where he is studying at Harvard University.

Second Man Found Dead After Car Stalls in Desert

NEEDLES (AP)—A second victim of a four-man jeep excursion on the burning Mojave Desert was found dead Saturday.

Calvert Wilson, 49, a figure in Southern California politics, was found on the northwest slope of Iron Mountain, five miles from where he had set out for help after the jeep broke down Wednesday night.

A March Air Force Base helicopter Friday saved Lyle W. Robertson, 49, and Chester R. Bunker, 67, who had stayed with the jeep in the 120-degree desert heat. James R. Thompson, 70, also there, was dead when help arrived.

Wilson was vice chairman of the 42nd Assembly District Democratic County Committee and in 1953 was a candidate for the state Senate. In 1951 he ran unsuccessfully for election to the city council in Burbank. He originally was from Southern Pines, N. C.

Just Friday, he was divorced from his wife, Elaine, Burbank, by whom he had two daughters.

About 10 days ago, deputies said he moved to Sunfair, a small desert community near Twenty-nine Palms, and opened a liner supply business.

He and the other three men, also Sunfair businessmen, had traveled 112 miles over the desert, Wednesday, looking out of curiosity, for a ghost town named Frieda, the survivors told deputies.

They said the jeep's differential broke down amid the sand dunes of Cadiz Dry Lake. A plane piloted by Dr. B. E. Goodwin of Big Bear landed Friday after the pilot spotted the jeep. The survivors were taken by helicopter to Needles, the dead to a Twenty-nine Palms mortuary.

Queen's Tots Given Model of Kon-Tiki

OSLO (AP)—Explorer Thor Heyerdahl Saturday presented Queen Elizabeth with a model of his famed Kon-Tiki raft for her children to float in their Buckingham Palace bathtub.

The model was made from the balsa wood of the original raft on which Heyerdahl and his companions drifted across the Pacific to learn whether South Pacific islanders could have come from South America centuries ago.

Heyerdahl said the model was for Prince Charles and Princess Anne.

The Queen, the Duke of Edinburgh and King Haakon visited the museum where the Kon-Tiki is on exhibit. They looked at it for more than 20 minutes and listened raptly while Heyerdahl explained its construction.

The Duke, a sailor himself, pressed an elaborate explanation from the sky explorer on technical details of the construction and maneuvering of the raft.

FCC Tearfully Bids Frieda Hennock Goodbye

WASHINGTON (AP)—Blond Frieda B. Hennock cleared her desk for a departure from government service Saturday—"with no hard feelings"—and, as usual, some unusual circumstances attended the event.

For one thing, tears flowed freely at a sendoff party Thursday for the Federal Communications Commission's first and only woman member. The affair was arranged by FCC's rank-and-file workers, to whom Miss Hennock has always been called "Frieda." And 900 showed up to say goodbye.

Postmaster general Summerfield's vast and ornate reception rooms, adjacent to the commission offices, were borrowed for the occasion.

Miss Hennock, whose smart dress and penetrating cross-examination have enlivened many a commission hearing in the last seven years, wept openly. So did a great many others who stood in line for a goodbye handshake.

Except for her thanks to "this wonderful staff," Miss Hennock decided against any farewell statement on her FCC career, marked frequently by vigorous dissent from majority opinions, and in the last two years by stinging criticism of some commission policies.

President Eisenhower recently named Richard A. Mack, Florida public service commissioner, a Democrat, to replace Miss Hennock at the end of her term next Friday, July 1.

Born in Koblenz, Poland, 50 years ago, the youngest of eight children, she came to America at the age of six and obtained her U.S. citizenship through the naturalization of her parents. She went through New York City's public schools, then went to work in law offices there while studying law at night.

A beautiful and witty woman with the gift of gab, Miss Hennock recently joined the industry with a proposal that in major campaigns, such as for the presidency and Congress, the candidates of the major political parties all be given equal time free, to present their cases to the public.

"The length of the purse," she said, "should never determine who got the most audience."

Strike Settled After Near Riot

LA PORTE, Ind. (U.P.)—A 25-day-old strike at the Bastian-Morley Co., which developed into a near-riot, Friday, ended Saturday.

Members of the United Electrical Workers (Ind.) accepted a company offer giving them a 10-cent hourly wage increase, a seventh paid holiday and improved vacation benefits.

Twenty-two strikers were arrested and charged with criminal trespass, Friday, after a railroad switch engine swept a strikers' truck off a crossing on a company spur line.

Ex-UC Atom Experts Paid $400,000

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—The Washington Commission announced Saturday it is paying $400,000 to four scientists for their patented inventions in the field of atomic energy.

The four are Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, professor of chemistry at the University of California, Berkeley; Dr. Joseph W. Kennedy, head of the chemistry department of Washington University, St. Louis; Dr. Arthur C. Wahl, professor of chemistry at Washington University, St. Louis; and Dr. Emilio G. Segrè, professor of physics at the University of California, Berkeley.

The commission said their inventions and discoveries, made back in 1940 and 1941, pertained to "the element plutonium and certain of its isotopes, in particular plutonium-239 and its neutron fissionability as well as certain aspects of its chemical properties."

At the time, the four men were instructors or researchers at the University of California and were not working for the government. Later they worked for the government, or government contractors, in connection with development of the atom bomb. They made further inventions and discoveries which became the property of the government in accordance with terms of their employment contracts.

DAVY'S WATCH RIVALS MICKEY

WATERSBURY, Conn. (U.P.)—The U. S. Time Corp. announced Saturday it has a new watch on the market—a Davy Crockett model.

The watch dial has a colored illustration of Davy and the strap is decorated with rifles, tomahawks and other frontier symbols.

Adventists End Huge Camp-Meeting Today

LYNWOOD—The thousands of people who have lived in tents and trailers on the Seventh-day Adventist camping grounds here start packing their bags late today, marking the end of the 10-day spiritual convocation.

Many of the temporary residents will move out tonight. Others will remain until Monday and leave just as SDA pastors and volunteers start the job of wrapping up this 36-acre tent city until next June.

Broadcast of today's major address—by George Vandeman, Washington, D.C.—on a live television hookup will highlight the final day of sessions. Vandeman, recently returned from London, will tell of his evangelistic work in the British Isles.

Final address in an afternoon series on Bible prophecies will be given at 4:15 p.m. by Don Reynolds of Hawthorne.

Speakers at the closing service of the convocation at 7:30 p.m. will be Dr. W. R. Beach and Eric Clark of Hare.

At Saturday Sabbath services, Pastor H.M.S. Richards, of the Adventist's world-wide "Voice of Prophecy" radio broadcast, told church people that modern man

Dear Mr. Chan: "The day I came to your office with my mother and brother I was about to give up hope of getting rid of my asthma attacks. I spent hundreds of dollars for shots and pills but yet found no result. After reading your advertisement, I tried you for my last resort and was thrilled to find that I responded wonderfully. After the first treatment I was able to breathe normally and could sleep better for the first time in months. Now, am feeling fine and hoping others will benefit from my experience with Dr. Chan's Natural Method." Signed, Mrs. Viclan Murray. To Whom It May Concern: "Five years ago I was badly afflicted with neuritis in my shoulders and extremities. My hands and knees were so badly swollen that I could hardly use them. I wasn't able to raise my arms above the shoulders. I was told by several doctors that they have done all they could for me and that I no longer will be able to work again. Finally a friend referred me to Dr. Chan's Natural Method. After the first week I felt much improved and the fourth week found me walking much easier with the pain in my shoulders disappearing; my hands returned to normal and I had use of them once more. I cannot too highly recommend Dr. Chan to anyone who is ill." Signed, R. H. Irving. FOR THE NEXT SEVEN DAYS BRING THIS AD FOR A FREE CONSULTATION.

rape in three separate cases. The third girl identified Whitlow Thursday.

Whitlow was accused of contacting the girls to babysit with his children. Each accuser says he then took her to a field outside Seal Beach and attacked her.

Whitlow was arrested Thursday at his home after a Bellflower girl reported to Norwalk Sheriff's Station deputies that she had been attacked. The girl gave the deputies the license number of Whitlow's car.

One of the other girls is also from Bellflower. The third is from Downey.

Deputies are questioning Whitlow about several similar cases reported in the southeast part of the county and in Orange County.

Son of Cop Slain as He Tries Holdup

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The son of a New Orleans police sergeant, described by his father as a "mixed up kid," was shot and killed Saturday by a night-club owner who, although critically wounded, drove off the youth's three companions in a gun battle.

Police said the sergeant's son, Rodney Gares, 20, pumped two slugs into Joe Almerico, owner of the Manhattan Club on Canal Street, when the 52-year-old club owner reached for a gun after being accosted by Gares in front of his home about 3 a.m.

Almerico shot Gares twice, then crawled into the shelter of a neighboring house where he battled Gares' three companions who opened fire from a dark sedan parked at the curb. Police found 10 bullet holes in the two homes that acted as a backdrop for the gun fight.

The three gang members drove off when the noise of the gunfire brought lights flashing on in the quiet residential section.

Three men, Harvey Felton, 20, George Duvic, 25, and James Diamond, 18, later were arrested and held for questioning.

Gares said his son was a "poor kid who got mixed up and messed up pretty early in life. He was rough, active, a good street fighter. He had trouble in school. When he was just a kid, my wife and I took him to a psychiatrist."

But Gares said "I will never understand how he got messed up in this job last night."

"I know police work and criminals. And here was my boy, right under my nose, and I would never have guessed he knew the first thing about pulling a serious crime like this."

Business Rise Leveling Out, Execs Note

NEW YORK (AP) — Business still is "excellent," but the upward trend of recent months seems to be leveling out.

That's the consensus among key executives polled on June business conditions by the National Association of Purchasing Agents.

Only 36 per cent of those replying reported increased production this month. Only 33 per cent reported any increase in new orders.

The survey found purchasing agents "both relieved and concerned" at the recent wage settlements in the auto industry. They are relieved because agreement was reached without a crippling strike. But they also feel that the "layoff pay" provisions in the contracts signed by General Motors and Ford "may result in further inflation."

N.Y. Winos Will Sample Water

NEW YORK (AP) — Homeless men picked up by New York police are going to be given a chance to wash and sober up before they face the judge.

A new court, called "the Social Court for Men," will open Sept. 5. It will keep the men in its custody until the men are ready to go into regular court.

Two commissioners of the State Correction Department recently criticized present court practices. Many derelicts brought into court are "in a state of stupor... unclean, ill, unshaven" and act as if they have no understanding of what is going on, they said.

British Ship Strike Ends

LONDON (AP) — Striking seamen Saturday called off their wildcat walkout which bottled up Britain's big dollar-earning transatlantic passenger fleet for 26 days in the midst of the tourist season.

Still out are 18,000 stevedores, their ranks divided in an inter-union fight for bargaining rights along the country's long waterfront.

The striking seamen — mostly dining room stewards and kitchen workers — demanded better living conditions at sea, a shorter work week and higher allowances while on shore.

Boy Hangs Himself Playing With Rope

SILOUX CITY, Iowa (AP) — James Griesel, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Griesel, Sioux City, was accidentally hanged late Saturday while playing with a rope in his parents' garage.

Pint-Sized 'Little Caesar' Admits Plotting Killing of Boy

NEW YORK (AP) — An under-sized youth known as "Little Caesar," admitted Saturday, police reported, that he presided at a "council of war" that led to the revenge gang slaying of a 16-year-old boy.

"It is dog eat dog," detectives quoted Victor Diaz, 19, as saying. "We must get revenge. We don't think of the law. We don't try to kill. We just try to inflict injury."

Diaz, described as leader of a Harlem gang called the "Semitenement home," was arrested at his Bronx residence.

He is accused of masterminding the slaying Thursday night of Luis Feliciano, 17, a grocery delivery boy and member of the rival "Viceroy."

Feliciano was shot down with a sawed-off rifle while at work in an East Harlem grocery, Louis (Dillinger) Ramirez, 16, is accused of being the trigger man in the killing.

Diaz, who is only five feet tall and weighs about 130, told police he called the war council meeting after learning that a member of his gang had been stabbed by one of the Viceroy.

"Nonno" Manuel Granna drew the fatal slip, marked "B" for "burn."

"But Dillinger insisted on doing it... He wanted to do it so much we let him... He kept saying: 'I want to burn him.'"

Another youth also was arrested Saturday in connection with the slaying. He was identified as Benjamin Olivio, 15, and police said he also was present at the war council meeting.

COMMISSION EXPIRES THURSDAY

Hoover's War on Waste Ending

By BEM PRICE

WASHINGTON (AP)—For former President Herbert Hoover, the last public service is done.

On Thursday, June 30, the Hoover Commission, which expires, then Hoover, its chairman for eight years, at 81 and with 41 years of almost constant, usually unpaid public service behind him, will retire to private life.

The 31st President leaves for consideration by the public, Congress and the President some two million facts about the nation's government, gleaned in the most thorough study any government ever had.

Hoover's efforts as chairman of the Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government, as it's officially styled, have not been an unqualified success. The ex-President himself, looking back on years of effort to reshape and streamline the government, still thinks there's "a desperate need for executive and administrative skill."

In some places, Hoover commission recommendations have been greeted with complacency and inertia; in others with suspicion and hostility. There isn't even agreement on the commission itself.

One member, Rep. Chet Holifield (D-Calif.), for example, says: "I seriously doubt the wisdom of establishing a commission of this type and assigning it the broad field of government to study."

He adds that members of the commission have not been able to devote full time to the job and this has "necessitated the hiring of research people who frequently are chosen to reflect the philosophy of the majority."

In any case, teams of commission investigators have looked over the shoulder of just about every agency head in Washington, inspected food in Navy's foxholes, counted the Navy's 100-year supply of anchors and added up the Budget Bureau's books. They found room for improvement everywhere.

They turned up the fact that the nation has commitments and other obligations of 240 billion dollars above and beyond the 277 billions technically included in the public debt.

While many of the commission's recommendations will never again see the light of day, Hoover can say there has been considerable improvement in day-to-day efficiency.

For his efforts Hoover has been accused of trying to turn back the clock to pre-New Deal days, when the function of government was conceived to be to preserve order, provide defense and stay out of the private business of its citizens.

Hoover has been charged with seeking to turn the nation's publicly owned natural resources over to private enterprise for exploitation; "pilfering" some have called it.

But, whatever the charge, the man who made the high-starched collar famous has gone ahead obeying his own belief in what is right and wrong.

Interviewed on the eve of retirement, Hoover appeared as the public rarely sees him—warm and friendly, with a hint of humor lurking in his speech.

Asked which of the more than 30 commission reports submitted to Congress he considers most important, he picked one that still is pending before legislators.

"If I had to choose only one, it would be the one on the Civil Service. It was nearest my heart's desire."

One great trouble, with the present government, he adds, is that the men in the top Civil Service jobs "are not good enough—they got there by seniority and red tape."

That doesn't mean, he says, that they should be eliminated. But they should be moved to jobs more commensurate with their abilities.

Hoover thinks there are about 8,000 managerial jobs in the government which should contain promise of "prestige and advancement," and which should be filled above a certain grade on the basis of merit.

"We took that idea," he explains, "from the Army and Navy, which have been promoting above a certain grade (Army captain; Navy lieutenant) for years on the basis of merit. We would have lost two wars, otherwise, because of deadwood at the top."

Hoover says the commission also has dealt with "the thorny problem of the two-party system" as it relates to the civil service and has concluded that "any party elected has a mandate and ought to have the right to select those making policy."

Asked if the various investigating task forces were governed by any specific philosophy, Hoover replied:

"The purpose was to save the taxpayers money. But more important than savings was the realization that the whole social and economic foundation is based on private enterprise."

Hoover says this job has been the most strenuous he has ever undertaken.

"Every fact had to be checked," he observes, noting that of the two million facts assembled only two ever were questioned.

Despite his years Hoover has worked from about 7:30 a. m. to around 10 or 11 p. m. his only concession about an hour's nap after lunch. Even his lunches and suppers were work periods.

It was Sept. 29, 1947, that Hoover took over the first commission, organized under President Truman. Its members evenly balanced between Republican and Democratic appointees. It went to work checking the efficiency of government operations.

The second commission, formed under President Eisenhower, had the added job of looking into policy fields and decisions. The balance of bi-partisanship was upset. There were seven Republican appointees, five Democratic.

Ironically, nearly every one of the reforms put into effect either by the executive branch

HERBERT HOOVER
From Foxholes to Anchors

or by Congress as a result of Hoover commission recommendations, were based on studies by the first commission—under a Democratic administration.

In all, the commission figures about 70 per cent of its recommendations for improving government efficiency have been accepted in some degree or completely. At present there are some 26 bills based on Hoover Commission studies before Congress.

When the first commission went to work, there were 75 separate bureaus with authority in the field of transportation, 104 on government lending, 37 in foreign trade, 64 dealing with business relations, 22 with agriculture and 44 with agriculture. Consolidations, in whole or in part, have been effected in all.

Sixty government agencies have been lumped into one "housekeeping unit" known as the General Services Administration, which runs government buildings, buys many supplies, operates warehouses, etc.

In 1949 the commission recommended that the government get out of the direct lending business because "it opens up dangerous possibilities of waste and favoritism."

Shortly thereafter President Truman ordered liquidation of the Reconstruction Finance Cor-

Expect August Meet of Tideland Group

First meeting of the interim committee named to sift the Long Beach tideland dispute will probably be in late August or early September, according to the committee chairman, Assemblyman Gordon Fleury (R-San Ramon).

Fleury said Saturday he is now at work on preliminaries for the investigation and will spend the next week in Los Angeles.

There he will confer with representatives of the legislative auditor and legislative counsel in connection with the specific problems to be investigated by the committee. He said he has already spent considerable time studying the agenda.

The committee chairman also will interview several attorneys for the position of committee counsel.

Fleury said he feels the interim committee is composed of legislators who are "tops in fair-mindedness and ability."

"This committee will do an objective job," he said.

Other members of the committee are LeRoy Lyon (R-Fullerton), Allen Miller (D-San Fernando), John McFall (D-Manteca) and Casper Weinberger (R-San Francisco). All are attorneys and all are members of the Assembly Judiciary Committee, to which the dispute was sent as an alternative to a vote on the Allen bill, which would have seized all of Long Beach's tideland money.

Ex-officio members of the committee are Assemblyman W. S. Grant (R-Long Beach) and Assemblyman Bruce Allen (R-San Jose).

Tito in Call for U.N. to Admit China

BELGRADE, (AP)—President Tito made a veiled call for the admission of Communist China to the United Nations Saturday in a message to the nation on the U.N.'s 10th anniversary.

Tito called for admission of "sovereign states outside" the U.N., without naming them.

But observers recalled immediately that following talks between Tito and Russia's Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist party Boss Nikita Khrushchev, a joint communique said Red China should receive its "legitimate representation in the U.N."

Tito said: "It is of utmost importance in the present international atmosphere of relaxation for the United Nations to acquire a universal character by admitting those sovereign states which are outside this organization today..."

They were elected Saturday afternoon, high-lighting the 52nd annual state aerie convention and seventh annual state auxiliary convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles in Municipal Auditorium.

More than 2,000 delegates are attending the meetings. Bowman, a resident of 5200 El Cedral St. in Long Beach, but a member of the Glendale Aerie, succeeds Gil Seaver of Oakland. Ruby Groves succeeds Louise Gamble of Santa Maria.

Eagles officers will be installed this morning, closing the convention. Auxiliary officers were installed Saturday afternoon.

Other Eagles officers are Charles Nussa, Napa, vice president; Lawrence Reilly, South Gate, chaplain; William Asbaugh, Lodi, conductor; William J. Fitzgerald, Glendale, secretary; Howard Finch, Bakersfield, inside guard; John Roesse, Azusa, outside guard; National City, outside guard; Wayne O. Cookus of Redondo Beach, Charles Payne of Tracy and Albert DeMello of Berkeley, trustees.

Auxiliary officers are Katherine Williamson, Pomona, vice president; Esther Trevithick, Los Angeles, chaplain; Etta S. Blossom, San Jose, secretary; Mary Antibolo, Richmond, treasurer; Emeline Michler, North Sacramento, outside guard; Nona Sul-ivan of San Francisco, Helen Boyd of Berkeley, Mildred Post of Tracy, Rita Maderes of Pinole and Norma Bartell of Hawthorne, trustees.

National officers present include President Carol Bennett of Long Beach, Chaplain Phyllis Wright of Spokane and President Carl J. McGriff of South Bend, Ind.

The Eagles passed resolutions continuing their medical, dental and educational support of needy children of deceased Eagles who served in World War II or the Korean conflict. They also decided to continue their support of Eaglehaus at West Berlin, Germany, where German youths receive vocational training under a program aided by Eagle donations of apprentice kits. And they voted to continue their support of the cancer campaign.

New York, Pennsylvania and California head the list of states in Eagle support of the cancer campaign, it was announced.

Auxiliary members voted to continue their muscular dystrophy program and appointed committees to visit hospitals and aid veterans.

In the Class A Ritualistic Competition for the State Aerie, East Oakland placed first, San Diego, second, and South Gate, third.

Alameda took first in Class B Ritualistic and Oroville, second. Bakersfield won the Aerie drill team competition with Azusa second. The two cities placed the same way in the drum corps contest.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate is interested in learning whether Whitfield and the other trustees adequately discharged their responsibilities to the estate and protected the rights of the beneficiaries.

Anderson, chairman of the Senate House atomic committee, said the investigators will see Whitfield July 7 and that the committee will open hearings on the nomination "as soon thereafter as Whitfield desires."

The New Mexico Democrat said the investigators gather early this month.

The questions are known to involve Whitfield's role as a trustee for the estate of the late R. A. Crawford and the disposition of Crawford's interest in the Valley Bank and Trust Co. Anderson has said the commit-

Ike Casts for Trout in Maine Woods

PARMACHENESE LAKE, Me. (AP)—President Eisenhower came to the Maine wilderness Saturday for a weekend of fishing after stirring fresh curiosity about his 1956 political plans.

Within 30 minutes after his arrival in this isolated area the President was casting for trout and land-locked salmon at Little Boy Falls in the Megalloway River. He soon caught—and released as too small—three small trout.

Though the President was able to get in some recreation, his press secretary, James C. Hagerty, said he was keeping close contact with Washington on developments in connection with an attack Wednesday by Soviet jet aircraft on an American Navy plane over international waters of the Bering Strait.

Shortly before Eisenhower spoke near Berlin, N.H., in late morning, Hagerty told newsmen there had been no Soviet reply to the U.S. protest.

In his talk at the Nansen ski jump outside Berlin, before a crowd of 2,000, the President threw a little more confusion into the speculation over his political plans after 1956.

He said he would like to come back for another visit "just as soon as possible—which means certainly as soon as I have another kind of livelihood than I now enjoy."

Not long afterward, the President was back fishing at Parmachenee trying for an improvement in his luck with trout on this trip.

Warren Talks in Helsinki at U.S. Festival

HELSINKI, Finland (AP)—U. S. Chief Justice Earl Warren and an American festival competed successfully here Saturday night with an international Communist meeting.

Warren told a large audience that freedom is "a culmination of all the constructive forces of civilization." He spoke at the opening ceremony of a two-day "America Days Festival."

Across town, delegates to the Communist "World Peace Festival" heard their fourth day of party-line speeches. The public was barred from the Red convention hall, providing a contrast to the American affair which was open to all.

Newsmen who shuttled back and forth between the two meetings reported the American one was by far the more successful. They reported the Red meeting was received with complete apathy by the Finns who flocked to hear Warren speak.

The Reds had postponed their gathering last month because they apparently feared competition from a touring American "atoms for peace" exhibit.

The "American Days" festival got under way Saturday afternoon. A gala supper for Warren, given by U. S. Minister Jack McFall, wound up the first day's proceedings. The festival closes today with a mass friendship rally at Hameenlinna Sports Park.

House Group to Quiz Actress Angela Clarke

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Screen actress Angela Clarke will be among the witnesses subpoenaed by the House Un-American Activities Committee which starts a full week's hearing here Monday.

The hearings will investigate labor, youth movements and Hollywood matters, William A. Wheeler, spokesman for the committee, said Saturday. Hearings will also be held in San Diego starting July 5.

Two Words 'Hook' Angler, He's Jailed

The less lip the better, when dealing with California Fish and Game officers.

Les Lipp, 57, of 20 W. Home St., used only two words when confronted by authorities Friday night, but they took him to jail anyway.

Lipp was fined $25 by the Sierra Judicial District May 2, 1955, for fishing with a light. He still owed $20.

His comment: "I'm broke."

Rare American Stamp to Be Sold at Auction

LONDON (AP)—One of the rarest of American stamps will go on sale in an auction room Monday.

It is a five-cent stamp, printed on bluish paper, issued by the postmaster at Millbury, Mass., a year before the U. S. government issued stamps. Authorities say there are only six known specimens. This one, from the collection of Sir Nicholas Waterhouse, is expected to bring about $3,500.

WEDLOCK WITH A REAL LOOK

Gerald Petry and his bride, the former Sherry Smith, toast one another a bit awkwardly following their marriage at a North Long Beach wedding chapel. They were handcuffed together to foil the plan of friends who planned to "kidnap" the bride as a practical joke following the ceremony. The cuffs were borrowed from a policeman.—(Photo by Carl Ray (Studio))

Vatican Sees Pact Possible in Argentina

VATICAN CITY (UP)—There are "rather good hopes" of negotiating a working agreement to improve relations between church and state in Argentina, Vatican sources said Saturday night.

Reports circulating here said Argentine Foreign Minister Jeronimo Remorino will discuss a possible concordat between Argentina and the Vatican with Msgr. Marion Zanin, Papal Nuncio to Argentina.

Authoritative Vatican sources said a concordat appeared out of the question at this moment. But the sources said there were good hopes for a "modus vivendi," a working agreement by which church and state could live side-by-side in Argentina.

Franco Lines Up Factions for Monarchy

MADRID (UP)—In less than six months Gen. Francisco Franco has prepared Spain for a return of the monarchy.

By threat and argument he apparently has done what had been thought impossible a short time ago: Brought together in a sort of warm friendship a large majority of monarchists and Falangists.

The monarchists, most of whom are opposed to the ideals of the Falange, have accepted the principle of the so-called National Movement. Until recently the Falange had claimed the movement as its exclusive property.

Don Juan De Bourbon, son of the late King Alfonso XIII and head of the Spanish Bourbon house, told the Madrid monarchist newspaper ABC in an interview: "The monarchy has always felt solidarity with the ideals of the (National) movement."

It was his first public declaration of support for Franco.

Fate of Gas Bill in House Held by Ike

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower Saturday appeared to hold the key to whether the House will pass a bill exempting independent natural gas producers from federal price controls.

Informed sources told the United Press that if the President throws the full weight of his influence behind the measure it may stand a fair chance of passage. But if he remains silent, the bill is in serious trouble, with passage, at least at present, extremely doubtful.

Democratic supporters of the bill, led by Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, are reported to have decided to delay floor action on the legislation to give the administration time to muster strength for it.

A delay, even until next year, was not ruled out as a possibility.

Italy Premier to Be Picked

ROME (UP)—President Giovanni Gronchi wound up talks with political leaders Saturday and prepared to designate a new premier for crisis-ridden Italy.

It was expected the president would announce his choice today of a premier-designate who will try to solve the crisis caused by the fall of Christian Democratic premier Mario Scelba last Wednesday.

The top favorite was Christian Democrat Antonio Segni, former agricultural minister and advocate of a big land reform program. The 64-year-old Segni is a lawyer from the island of Sardinia.

Yugo Parley Lengthened

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UP)—The Western Big Three and Yugoslavia decided Saturday to extend their unity discussions until Monday.

The parley aimed at closer ties among the four nations, originally was planned as a two-day meeting.

The talks are held in strict secrecy. The ambassadors refuse all comment.

It is believed the conferees are reviewing international problems in the light of recent Soviet overtures toward Yugoslavia.

Crashes Into Car, Jailed as Drunk

CARSON—A Torrance man was booked on suspicion of drunk driving following a two-car head-on crash on Main St. near 219th Pl., according to the California Highway Patrol.

Mitchell L. Hornback, 2229 Cabrillo Ave., was taken to Harbor General Hospital suffering minor injuries, and then was booked on the drunk charge.

Driver of the other auto, John W. Roseberry, 28, of 435 W. 234th Pl., Wilmington, was unhurt.

Find Chained Body of Girl, 14, in River

ROME, Ga. (AP)—The body of slain, blond 14-year-old Patricia Ann Cook was found Saturday in the muddy Etowah river, wrapped in a quilt, tied with a log chair and weighted down with a huge wrench.

Dr. Herman Jones, state toxicologist, said an autopsy showed she had been shot in the back. He said the bullet penetrated the heart and emerged from the left breast.

Jones declined to say immediately whether the attractive Rome teenager had been raped. The autopsy was performed a few hours after the body was found in the river by searchers using grappling hooks.

The spot was pointed out by Willie Grandy Cochran, 36-year-old, ex-convict and mental patient, who was quoted by police as confessing he raped and killed the girl, Monday, after coaxing her from a sunbath at her home.

Bartow County Sheriff Frank Atwood said a murder warrant had been issued.

Party Must Reflect Ike, Hall Asserts

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Republican national chairman Leonard W. Hall told party workers here Saturday that the party "must be made into the image" of President Eisenhower's thinking.

"In my travels around the country," Hall declared, "I have found that Mr. Eisenhower is much more popular than the Republican party."

This, he said, is because "the Eisenhower program is in tune with the ideals of the American people. The people generally are happy, because we have in the White House a President who believes in the American system."

Hosmer Likens Bill to Bananas on Pike's Peak

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Congressional Record Saturday published side by side two articles — "Bananas on Pike's Peak" and "Applesauce on Capitol Hill."

The first was written by Rep. Craig Hosmer (R-Cal). He said "Congress might as well appropriate money to grow bananas on Pike's Peak" as to approve the Senate-passed billion-dollar upper Colorado River water project.

The second was by Rep. William A. Dawson (R-Utah). He said Hosmer's statement was "typical of the unfounded attacks" on the project and would have been more accurately labeled "applesauce on Capitol Hill."

it's like a famous designer's label on a lady's favorite party dress.

It's like sterling on silver, 14 carat on gold, or like those little silk threads in an honest-to-gosh dollar bill that no counterfeiter can ever quite copy.

It's the Fisher coach—world-famous emblem of Body by Fisher. You'll see it on the sill of a Motoramic Chevrolet when you open the door. You'll see it on some of America's most popular high-priced cars, too. But that's all. Not on any other low-priced car.

The other cars in Chevrolet's field just don't have that clean, uncluttered design, the fresh look that comes from beauty that's built in—not bolted on! In fact, there are very few cars that do have it—no matter what they cost.

And the other low-priced cars, of course, don't offer any of these advantages of Fisher Body. Not that strong, solid Fisher Unisteel construction. Not those fine quality fabrics and materials. Not the High-Level ventilation system that provides cleaner, fresher air—or such considerate touches as separate little cranks for the ventpanes.

You can choose your own new Chevrolet with Body by Fisher from 190 different combinations of models and colors. That's like having it custom built just for you—without the custom-built price! Come on in and get all the good news on the model you like best.

2 Women and Boy, 14, Murdered in Beds

DICKINSON, Tex. (AP) — A well-to-do, middle-aged woman, her 14-year-old son and her mother were found murdered Saturday in their home. A deputy sheriff had gone there in answer to a mysterious telephone call.

The dead were identified as Mrs. John McPherson, her son, George, and Mrs. McPherson's mother, not otherwise identified. Deputy Sheriff Earl Turner found the bodies about 10 p. m.

Turner said all three apparently were killed while asleep. Two of the victims were shot, he said, and the murderer cut the throat of the third. Neither the murder gun nor knife were found.

Turner said an unidentified woman telephoned him at his home and told him the McPhersons were dead. Turner said he went to the house and found the front door unlocked.

He said the slayings apparently happened about the middle of the week, last Wednesday or Thursday. The boy and both women were in their beds.

Turner said there was no sign of a struggle and all three apparently were sound asleep when they died. The house had not been robbed, and Turner said the killer may have known the victims since the door was unlocked.

He said Mrs. McPherson was "well-to-do." So far as he knew, none of them had any enemies. They lived moderately, he said, and quietly.

Mrs. McPherson's husband, employed by the Harry Edwards Drilling Co., was located in Sulphur, La., Saturday and notified of the death of his family, Turner said.

Knight Signs Bill Aimed at Addicts

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Governor Knight signed bills Saturday relating to narcotics, the deaf and state purchases.

They provide that:

It is against the law to be under the influence of narcotics unless administered by a doctor—introduced by Assemblyman H. Allen Smith (R-Glen-dale).

A state school for the deaf will be established in Riverside—by Assemblyman L. M. Back-straund (R-Riverside).

Kiwanians 'Home' for 40th Reunion

CLEVELAND, O. (AP) — International Kiwanis comes "home" this week for its 40th annual convention.

Although Cleveland was not the first to have a Kiwanis Club—Detroit holds that honor—it was at the fraternal group's first convention here in 1916 that the international aspect of the organization was recognized.

At that time Kiwanis counted 16 clubs and 1924 members. The years since then have seen its rise to 4050 clubs all over the world, with a membership of 240,000.

The name Kiwanis was derived from an Indian expression meaning "self expression."

*SANTA ANA—Flights are scheduled to begin Monday by Pacific Air Industries of Long Beach to produce an 18-foot-square picture map of northwest Orange County, first of its kind to be compiled of the fast-growing area.

It will hang on a wall of Title Insurance and Trust Co.'s Santa Ana office, where Manager Walter Corbin said it will be "keyed" and open to inspection by anyone interested in any parcel of land it will show. It will be mounted on electrically-controlled rollers.

He reminded that it will detail the fastest-growing section of the nation's fastest-growing county. Donald Lewis and Charles Jackline, partners in Pacific Air Industries, will share responsibility for compiling the finished product. Jackline will fly the Beechcraft biplane, with Harold (Red) Schneider as photographer, at 10,000 feet. Lewis will handle the company's personnel printing and positioning the 300 prints into an original "lay-down."

The pilot-photographer team made a test run at Orange County Airport on Friday, checking the plane and camera. They will base at the county's field during the operations. Schneider uses a big aerial camera with 150 feet of roll film, on which he will take 180 exposures—one every 12 seconds. There will be at least 15 flights to cover the map area.

First Steps Coming On Tidelands Study

A REPORT from Chairman Gordon Fleury (R-Sacramento) that he is starting preparations for his interim committee's study of the Long Beach tidelands dispute should serve as a warning to Long Beach and its official representatives that they must not procrastinate in their own preparations for this investigation.

While Assemblyman Fleury states that the first meeting of the committee will probably not be held until late in the summer, he is already busy on this project. He will spend the coming week in Southern California, working on the agenda for the study and interviewing prospects for the job of committee legal counsel. He has enlisted aid of the offices of the legislative counsel and the legislative auditor in determining the issues to be considered and the information to be sought by the interim committee.

In other words, the committee's business is getting under way. It will hold meetings and hearings in the fall and winter and will be ready to report at the budget session of the Legislature in March of next year. These months will roll around very quickly and Long Beach must have its program and policies fully matured if it is to present its case to the committee with maximum effectiveness.

This means a start must be made promptly. If we are to avoid too-hasty decisions and actions later on, we must take the full time allotted for deliberation and planning. This is especially true in view of the vast complexity of the city's problem in connection with this important matter.

We base these remarks on the assumption that the city will want to present a positive program to the interim investigators. We believe it should take the initiative in developing a plan that will be fair to Long Beach and at the same time will appeal to the remainder of the state. We should have a program to present as an alternative to the vindictive and irresponsible features of the Allen Bill, the introduction of which brought on the interim study.

The form and details of such a program will require the best thinking that can be brought to bear on this problem. The best talent available should be brought into the picture. What the community does on this matter will be one of the major tests of resourcefulness and leadership in its entire history.

Assemblyman Fleury, in disclosing his preliminary plans for his committee's activities, sounds very businesslike, which is of course to his credit. Long Beach, too, must get down to business on this problem.

MALCOLM EPLEY

It Was Tough Going, But Lawmakers Sort of Like It

IF YOU asked either Assemblyman W. S. Grant or Assemblyman Herbert R. Klocksiem if he will be a candidate for reelection in 1956, you probably couldn't elicit a definite answer:

They've just been through a tough session, and not many legislators will be found enthusiastic about their jobs just after a session closes in that last mad rush. But like most other legislators, it seems highly probable that Long Beach's two Republican lawmakers will be seeking reelection again when the 1956 campaigns come along. Both of them have a long record of success at the polls and, tough as it may come, both of them obviously enjoy their work.

The session just closed was particularly grueling for the Long Beach men because of the Allen bill fight. Being tied on a do-or-die basis to one big vital issue like that strait-jackets a legislator. It not only consumes most of his time, but it puts him constantly on the spot on all other issues. Both Grant and Klocksiem will tell you emphatically the past session was the most nerve-racking they've been through.

But the chances are good that they'll be asking for a return to Sacramento in 1956. Despite their preoccupation with the tidelands issue, both lawmakers authored or co-authored many bills and performed on important committees throughout the session. Grant piloted 25 bills through the session and Klocksiem was similarly busy.

Long Beach's other representative in the Legislature, Sen. Richard Richards, will not have to stand for election next year. He was elected in 1954 for a four-year term.

Richards, a Democrat, is in his first term. He had some idea ahead of time, but probably was little appalled, once he got on the job, to discover all that is involved in representing 4,000,000 constituents. No other state senator has anything like that.

Because the Allen bill never got into the Senate, Richards did not have to spend a great deal of time on that problem, but he stood firmly with Long Beach in the controversy.

It was clear to any observer at Sacramento that Sen. Richards found his job, despite all of its problems, much to his liking. Unless something bigger comes along, it's a fair bet that he, too, will be seeking reelection the next time, in his case will be in 1958.

Thus, a look ahead to the legislative races involving the Long Beach area must necessarily take into consideration the probability that incumbency will be a factor.

What Do They Mean, Summit?

DAVID LAWRENCE

Phony Claims of Red Righteousness May Torpedo Summit Conference Agreements

SAN FRANCISCO—Did Molotov torpedo the conference "at the summit"? Is there any real possibility of agreement now? For the Soviet foreign minister has announced an unalterable, rigid line of policy which offers no concession—in fact, admits no wrong in the communist imperialism and aggression of the last ten years.

There are still among the delegates some who refuse to have their ardor dampened and who profess to see in the Molotov review of world affairs a confession of weakness and a vindication of the policy of military strength as a deterrent. But many others are whistling to keep up their optimism. For the plain meaning of the Molotov address is that he wants peace—but without any price at all to the communists.

BOMBHELL. The Molotov address was a bombshell. It aroused adverse comments in rebuttal from the Cuban, Philippine and French spokesmen. But everybody realized that, with the speech scheduled for Friday by the U. S. Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, there could be only an implicit rather than an explicit reply because the rules of this U. N. session do not permit direct attacks by one country on another. The results have to be carefully phrased so as to appear to be general rather than specific.

What the American delegation might have done was to schedule a speech at the Commonwealth Club here—outside the U. N. meeting—challenging the Soviet government to let some American spokesman have time on the television and radio networks throughout Soviet Russia, so that the people there could get the other side of the story of what has been happening in the last ten years. According to Molotov, only the western countries have been committing aggression and threatening attack.

The British foreign secretary, Harold MacMillan, used the device of a speech at the Commonwealth Club to get off his chest a lot of things he wanted to say about what is going on in the world. For one thing, he wished to pay his respects to those in both America and Britain who talk loosely about "nationalism" and "colonialism." He said:

"Nationalism, like alcohol, should be taken in moderation—as a stimulant, not as a drug. Anyway, nationalism in Asia has often been the stodge and stalking horse of communism. These young countries need patriotism—but they need also to be protected from the blandishments of communism masquerading as idealism."

Then Mr. MacMillan went on to tell the real story of what is happening in Malaya—a British colony. He declared that it is a part of the world "where subversion is being promoted by open violence—amounting to war." He explained that the communist terrorists "have recently turned their attention to the cities; to subverting political parties, trade unions, and—most serious of all—to forming communist cells in schools."

REFRESHING. What a refreshing thing it is to hear a British foreign secretary talking about the facts of life as the communists shape them nowadays! He added:

"It's easy to repeat old sneers about British colonialism. I sometimes hear them still—chiefly nowadays from the leftists in our two countries—the intellectual bourgeois who have forgotten nothing and learned nothing, and hope that those they write for or speak to haven't either."

Mr. MacMillan talked of the elections held in Singapore recently and the elections soon to be held in the Federation of Malaya, and then remarked: "I've not heard of any elections in communist-controlled territories—except the ones when 99.7 per cent of the people vote obediently for one party—the party of their masters. Dr. Gallup hasn't much of a look-in under communism."

Unfortunately, the British foreign secretary marred his speech by an oblique defense of the British policy in recognizing the Red Chinese government. He said that the only test was that the government should really be in actual control of the territory concerned—that's why we recognized the government in Communist China and sent a mission there.

But, while arguing that this doesn't mean approval of the governments being recognized, he forgot that his own government today refuses to agree to the admission of Spain into the United Nations because it dislikes Franco's government—which, of course, is in complete control of Spanish territory.

Nor is the issue what Mr. MacMillan presented. Nobody quarrels with what Britain did in recognizing Red China prior to the Korean war, but the critics rightly point to Britain's expressed willingness to admit Red China into the United Nations after the Peiping government intervened in the Korean war of aggression and caused hundreds of thousands of casualties. It is British readiness to ignore that phase of the behavior of the government of Communist China that has profoundly shocked Americans, especially those who don't believe international morality is advanced by rewarding an aggressor.

The British cry out when their interests are damaged in Malaya, but they are evidently willing to play the game of expediency in other parts of the world. America alone carries the torch of idealism and morality. It is too bad British materialism and its concern for trade through Hong Kong, another British colony, has caused the British of both major parties in parliament to fail to see that a shortsighted course which makes compromises with evil only compounds the felonies of international crime.

DREW PEARSON

Mrs. Hobby Makes Goat of Dr. Scheele in Vaccine Row

WASHINGTON—Dr. Leonard Scheele, director of public health who was publicly blamed by secretary Oveta Hobby for being responsible for licensing the Salk vaccine manufacture, is a career public servant who cannot speak back.

However, here are the inside facts about his relations with Mrs. Hobby and his responsibility for the Salk polio vaccine.

On April 12, when the miracle of the Salk vaccine was announced in Michigan, Mrs. Hobby scheduled a press and television conference at 4 p. m. at which she was to announce the licensing of six drug companies to make the vaccine.

The conference, which was to pack a powerful publicity wallop, was prepared without informing Dr. Scheele. Meanwhile he received a copy of the full report on the vaccine only on the early afternoon of April 12, and needed time to study the medical and technical details.

Consequently he refused to license the drug companies before 4 p. m.

This made Mrs. Hobby furious. She phoned Dr. Scheele at the national health institutes in Bethesda, Md., and demanded that the drug companies be licensed. The press and TV people, she complained, were waiting.

However, Dr. Scheele refused. He did not OK the new formula until 5:30, by which time the press and TV representatives had left.

Remarkably Mrs. Hobby's press-relations man next morning: "Those characters out at Bethesda really balled us up yesterday. We lost our press and television coverage because of Scheele."

Yet, despite her goading of Scheele to speed up the licensing, Mrs. Hobby in a nationwide TV program passed the buck to Dr. Scheele.

SELDOM CONSULTED. Prior to this time, Dr. Scheele was seldom consulted by Mrs. Hobby about anything that went on in her department, even though it does deal with the health of the United States and even though he is head of the Public Health Service. Without consulting her director of public health she proposed in 1954 wiping out federal grants to medical schools for research on cancer, heart, mental health, etc.

Dr. Scheele was opposed to this. Nevertheless, when informed that this was Mrs. Hobby's policy he stood up before a congressional committee and went down the line for her. He even called a meeting of state health officers and begged them to support that policy.

Despite that, Mrs. Hobby has given him slap after slap, publicly and privately. Her TV Alibi that he was responsible for the Salk vaccine licensing was not the first time she has rebuffed him.

To appease the American Medical Association she imported Dr. Charles Keefer from Boston as special assistant on medical affairs. Though Keefer spends only part time in Washington, Mrs. Hobby has paraded him up to Capitol Hill before congressional hearings. There she sits flanked by charlatans, assorted experts, and Dr. Keefer.

At several senate hearings, Dr. Scheele was so shunted out of the picture that he had to look for a seat in the audience, and once Senator Hill of Alabama, chairman of the health committee, had to call out: "Is Dr. Scheele in the room?"

Dr. Scheele got up from the bleachers and came up to the witness table. This is the surgeon general of the United States upon whom Mrs. Hobby now places the vaccine blame.

JOHN S. KNIGHT

Independence-minded America Must Guard Against Visionaries

AS A CITIZEN of the United States, do you believe in preserving your country's independence?

If the answer is "Yes," be on guard against the efforts of the globally-minded visionaries who are trying to destroy it.

Two powerful and well financed groups, Atlantic Union and the United World Federalists Inc., are again beating the drums for federation with other nations.

The UWF's plan would take us into world government by amending the charter of the United Nations. Atlantic Union's scheme is less ambitious but likewise, within the framework of the U. N., would join the United States and the Western democracies, "federally or otherwise," into "a defense, economic and political union."

What does all this mean to you?

It could mean that the United States, except in purely domestic matters, would be subservient to a world legislature.

It could mean, since treaty law takes precedence over domestic law, that if the United Nations is permitted to assume the responsibilities of world government, our constitutional guarantees might well be destroyed.

Any form of "defense, economic and political union" with other countries would spell the end of our republic as conceived by the founding fathers.

We now have defense agreements such as NATO which insure our freedom of action. We give economic assistance to less fortunate countries without thought of repayment.

We cooperate in diplomatic and political affairs to promote peace and better understanding.

But once the United States joins either a limited or global federation of nations, your country then loses its right of self-determination while assuming the defense, economic and political burdens of the world.

ACTION PROPOSED.

There are presently before both houses of Congress concurrent resolutions requesting the President to invite appointed delegates from the democracies to meet with similarly appointed representatives from the U. S. for the purpose of exploring the possibilities of creating a super-government.

BILL VAUGHAN

Briefs From Sen. Soaper

The newlyweds down the block have bought furniture for their porch, patio and breezeway and expect to start on the inside of the house in another year or so.

Gen. Gruenther, in testifying that the Russians have overextended themselves, says, "they have discovered there is only so much blood in the turnip." But let's not deny that it's no mean accomplishment at that, to discover any at all.

Why Not Forgive?

As God is willing to forgive ... We also should relent ... And offer every mercy to ... The ones who would repent ... However serious the wrong ... However great the threat ... Why not forgive them in our hearts ... And struggle to forget? ... Who knows but someday we may be ... As guilty as they seem? ... And someday wish our wrongdoings ... Were just a frightful dream? ... And even if our path is clear ... And perfect is our score ... Why not be generous to those ... Who knock upon our door? ... For, after all, we would be wrong ... As anyone could be ... If we refused forgiveness as ... The least of charity.

Why of Strikes

Parents of normal children and other taxpayers should be concerned with the fact that many of our high schools are becoming little more than day nurseries for many unruly boys and girls and those with low intelligence who would like to be out working, but are forced to remain in school and obstruct the progress of the bright and willing ones. Don't we want our high schools to be institutions of learning where clear thinking and concentration are possible and children learn to respect authority?

It is also the opinion of some prominent educators and others in high places that very few who drop out of school in their teens ever return. Having taught night school classes in a large city high school where I also taught day classes, I know that many of these dropouts do return and finish their high school work in night school. Most of them told me they quit day school because they lost interest and wanted to work. They soon found they were handicapped

DR. LEONARD SCHEELE "Hobbygoat"

The resolution, advanced by the Atlantic Union Committee Inc., is being supported by 16 Senators and 53 Representatives.

The United World Federalists are even more active through a large number of local chapters and the emotional propaganda that is generated whenever they can induce anyone of national importance to join their cause.

Both groups speak of "the dangers" which confront our country and imply that somehow these "dangers" would disappear if their pet nostrums were used to save the world.

But they never quite get around to explaining HOW or WHY, except in the most naive and fatuous terms.

Without questioning the sincerity of those who favor our federating with other countries, it would seem they are ready to abandon the principles for which this nation has fought and bled.

True, our country is facing, as it has through the pages of its glorious history, many critical and dangerous problems.

But haven't we the strength and the patriotism to face them as courageously as we have in the past?

It is appalling that responsible elements of our citizenship have so little national pride that they would be willing to sacrifice our independence on the altar of a super state.

They ought to try on some Davy Crockett caps for size and read a few volumes of American history.

RANDOM NOTES: The resignation of Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens was overdue, but welcome ... The Army-McCarthy hearings of last summer revealed Stevens as a weak and befuddled businessman totally unsuited to the bruising pace of politics and government ... His successor, Wilber M. being greeted with considerable reserve by the Washington correspondents.

Roy Cohn's complaint of a news blackout on Sen. Joe McCarthy felt flat a few days later when Joe took the Senate floor and launched a slashing attack on President Eisenhower ... All this was fully reported, including the 77-to-4 defeat of a McCarthy resolution to force discussion of the Soviet satellites at the forthcoming Big Four conference ... When McCarthy makes news, it gets printed.

Fred E. Busbey, former congressman from Illinois, is urging the conservatives to wrest control of the Republican party from the "welfare state" advocates ... At about the same time in Detroit, Vice President Nixon was telling the Young Republican Federation that "if we are to build a stronger party, Republican leaders and workers should associate themselves with and support wholeheartedly the leadership and program of President Eisenhower" ... Which helps explain why Busbey is out.

A panel of top polio scientists has voted 8 to 3 in favor of continuing the nationwide Salk vaccine inoculation program ... Worried parents won't find much comfort in the split vote with three eminent experts dissenting from the majority opinion.

Henry Ford II says that his company's acceptance of Walter Reuther's guaranteed, annual wage principle "was founded upon us by the competitive situation in the industry" ... In other words, the principle that principle doesn't pay, except for Reuther.

The proposed Washington memorial to the late Senator Taft is a fitting tribute to a statesman who never became President because he thought of his country instead of himself.

TOWN MEETING

Reader Says Teen Dropouts From Schools Not Always Deplorable

TO THE EDITOR:

In recent months many articles on elementary and high school problems, written by high school teachers, have been appearing in some of our best magazines and newspapers.

Some prominent educators and others in high positions have expressed opinions regarding these problems and most of them seem to think that every youngster should be kept in school as long as possible whether he is accomplishing anything or not.

The articles by classroom teachers take quite the opposite viewpoint. Most teachers feel that there are some teenagers who have no business in the public schools and that their presence there places a serious impediment in the way of the normal, cooperative students.

These youngsters who may be over-developed physically and worldly wise or who have reached their capacity for learning, respond to nothing the school has to offer. They usually become disciplinary problems and their main objective is to divert the attention of the other members of the class to themselves. This is most distracting to their teachers and fatal to the progress of the class.

Parents of normal children and other taxpayers should be concerned with the fact that many of our high schools are becoming little more than day nurseries for many unruly boys and girls and those with low intelligence who would like to be out working, but are forced to remain in school and obstruct the progress of the bright and willing ones. Don't we want our high schools to be institutions of learning where clear thinking and concentration are possible and children learn to respect authority?

It is also the opinion of some prominent educators and others in high places that very few who drop out of school in their teens ever return. Having taught night school classes in a large city high school where I also taught day classes, I know that many of these dropouts do return and finish their high school work in night school. Most of them told me they quit day school because they lost interest and wanted to work. They soon found they were handicapped by the lack of education and a diploma and were anxious to make up their work. Most of them did excellent work. Every June thousands of these dropouts graduate from the night classes of our city high schools. They may have had to learn the hard way, but they learned and matured in the process.

So, if Johnny and Mary want to quit school and go to work, it may not be so deplorable as it seems. It may be just what they need and the school may be infinitely better off without them. If they really have a capacity for learning, they will seek to further their education later by taking advantage of the opportunities offered.

Why of Strikes

TO THE EDITOR: Mrs. J. R. Sinclair wrote wondering about people's wages and why they go on strike. It is really very simple. These people work for every penny they get and don't live for years and years off the taxpayers' sweat. They want all they can get for their service. They can get for their service.

Park Complaint

TO THE EDITOR: How about the way band concerts are handled in Lincoln Park? No seats are available, and the grass is always damp. But there are hundreds of seats at the Spit and Argue Club.

And Bixby Park, Houghton Park and Recreation Park—no seats anywhere, except bunched in picnic area.

Have you been to Anaheim and smaller towns where picnic tables are spread out and apparently there is an effort to make people comfortable instead of this mass idea of tables and benches.

Rainbow Pier is the same with only a few benches. Doesn't anybody care?

SIESTA FOR INTERPRETERS

Universe Pretties Speak Yankee, Too

Many languages will be spoken, but English will predominate among foreign entries in the Miss Universe Beauty Pageant here July 14-24.

An increasing number of girls from the many countries represented in the pageant speak English—many of them flawless English—say Miss Universe officials.

For instance, Sirkku Talja, ice skating miss who this year will represent Finland, speaks excellent English. A complete about-face from Armi Kuusela, first winner of the pageant, who spoke almost no English at all.

HANYIA BEDOUN
Arabic, English, French

Also, for instance, this year Norway's Solveig Borstad and Sweden's Hillevi Rombin will need no help from the interpreters.

In previous pageants, many girls from South and Central America spoke only Spanish. Thus far Ecuador's Leonor Carache is the only South American girl to enter the pageant who needs help in meeting the language barrier.

Korea's Kim Mee Chong will be accompanied by her own interpreter.

Hanyia Beydoun, Lebanon's first entry, speaks Arabic, English and French.

But in any event interpreters will be available to translate everything from Abyssinian to Alabaman.

Universe Girls Vie at Laguna

Contestants will vie at the Laguna Beach Hotel Tuesday night in preliminaries of the Miss Universe Beauty Pageant. Entries are still being accepted at the Walter Clark Hawaiian Shop.

The winner will compete in the contest scheduled Wednesday night at Del Mar to select Miss California.

Work Horses of Fleet Come Up With Names

In ceremonies this week and over Fourth of July, the "work horses" of the U. S. Navy will get names instead of numbers. Effective July 1, the Navy has decreed that its LSTs (Landing Ships, Tank) shall hereafter be known by the names of counties of the United States instead of just numbers.

The first of these change of name ceremonies occurred Saturday when the LST 561, commanded by Lt. G. G. Ely Kirk, became the USS Chittenden County.

Between now and July 4, 13 other LSTs based in the Long Beach area will assume names instead of numbers. Some 50 LSTs of the Navy's Pacific Fleet are affected. Throughout the Navy, there are 158 LSTs which hereafter will be known by names.

Next ceremony is Wednesday at 2 p.m. when LST 827 becomes the USS Hillsborough County in a ceremony at Berth 38, San Pedro Navy fuel annex. Lt. Comdr. J. R. McNaught, its commanding officer, has invited representatives from Hillsborough Counties in Florida and New Hampshire.

Three ships have scheduled ceremonies Friday. They are the LST 975, which will become the USS Marion County; LST 1146, which becomes the USS Summit County; and the LST 799, which will be the USS Greer County.

The LST 799, flagship of Mine Squadron 7, will hold its ceremony Friday at 2 p.m. The ship's original sponsor, Miss Mary R. Whelan of Louisville, Ky., has been invited. The ship is named after the Oklahoma county.

The LST 1048 will become the USS Morgan County in shipboard ceremonies Saturday at 9:30 a.m. Lt. R. A. Vollersen, commanding officer, has invited representatives of the 11 counties which bear that name.

At 3:30 p.m. on the Fourth of July, the LST 1068 will be redesignated the USS Orange County. It will be moored at Berth 12, Pier B, according to its commanding officer, Lt. L. Thompson, and the public is invited.

Other ships and their new names, ceremonies for which have not yet been announced, are LST 279, Berkeley County; LST 400, USS Bradley County; LST 735, USS Dukes County; LST 802, USS Hamilton County; LST 819, USS Hampshire County; LST 914, USS Mahoning County; LST 1083, USS Plumas County.

The LSTs 735, 799 and 802 are all assigned to the Mine Force, Pacific Fleet, here, commanded by Rear Adm. Roland N. Smoot, USN. All of the other ships are in Amphibious Squadron 7, commanded by Capt. W. J. Galbraith.

50TH WIN FOR BUMS

Newcombe Tames Milwaukee, 5-3

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Brooklyn's second inning, scored Milwaukee's first run as Danny O'Connell was being thrown out by the circle Saturday when his 5-3 victory over the Milwaukee Braves made him the first pitcher in the majors to win every pitch in the 50th victory. A point they didn't reach last year until July 10th.

Facing Milwaukee for the first time this campaign, Newcombe shows just one loss. He has won 13. He needed help from Earl Spooner to get the final out. The high stepping Dodger thus reached their 50th victory, a point they didn't reach last year until July 10th.

The Braves' defeat left the Chicago Cubs, the only team to beat Newcombe this year, get back into second place by virtue of their 6-4 victory over Pittsburgh. Milwaukee, ending a seven-game win streak, dropped down to third, one game behind the Cubs and 14 in back of Brooklyn.

Gene Conley, reaching for his 10th victory, was lifted after a liner off Newcombe's bat hit him on his pitching arm just above the elbow in the fifth inning. Conley finished the frame but was relieved then and went to the clubhouse where the trainer said he suffered just a bruise.

Conley gave up six Dodgers hits and three runs before he left it was his fifth loss.

Newcombe, who continued as a threat at bat with three for four, gave up 10 Milwaukee hits. Spooner came in and put a called third strike past Bill Burton for the final out after singles by Bobby Thompson, Del Crandall and pinch batter Andy Pafko had given the Braves their third run.

The Dodgers, trailing 1-0, put over three runs in the fifth inning to go ahead to stay. Singles by Rube Walker and Newcombe and a walk to Junior Gilliam loaded the bases in the fifth with none away. Pee Wee Reese lifted a sacrifice fly. Snider singled to center and Gilliam stole home for three runs.

In the seventh, Hank Aaron dropped Reese's sinking drive to right to let Gilliam score all the way from first. Reese scored later when Jackie Robinson's squeeze bunt couldn't be handled by relief pitcher Ray Crone. Both runs were unearned.

Sowell Wins 880 in 1:47.6

Cerv's Pinch Single Nips Tribe, 3-2

Jenkins Wins 440 in 46.7

BOULDER, Colo. (UP)—Arnie Sowell of Pittsburgh, driven by a desire to vindicate his lazy failure in the NCAA championships last week, unofficially bettered the world record in the National AAU 880-yard finals Saturday by a full second.

The New York Athletic Club won the team title with 111 points followed by the defending champions from Los Angeles Athletic Club at 87½.

Despite the rare atmosphere of the 5,000-foot altitude at the University of Colorado, Sowell set such a blistering pace from the start that four other runners beat the AAU meet record trying to keep up with him. Lonnie Spurrier, who earlier this year also bettered the world 880-yard mark of 1:48.6, matched Sowell stride for stride for the first 440 yards but finished fifth.

Sowell's time was 1:47.6. Spurrier's mark of 1:47.5 is now being considered for official world record status. Mal Whitfield established the recognized world record in 1953. Gunnar Nielsen of Denmark tied it in 1954.

When he burst through the tape, the full effect of running in an atmosphere 20 per cent less dense than at sea level hit him and Sowell collapsed into a near-faint. But he recovered in time to receive the accolade of "outstanding athlete" at the end of the AAU championships.

After Spurrier dropped out of contention, Tom Courtney of Fordham and Billy Tidwell of Kansas State Teachers College came on to challenge Sowell. Courtney, clocked at 1:48.0, placed second, a stride behind the inspired Sowell. Tidwell was third in 1:48. Lang Stanley of the Air Force was fourth in 1:48.6, and Spurrier was fifth in 1:48.7.

In the 440-yard dash, Villanova's Charley Jenkins left the once invincible Mal Whitfield and defending champion Jim Lea far behind, but threatened no records. Jenkins, who finished second to Oklahoma A&M's J. W. Mashburn in 46.8 in the NCAA championships turned in a sizzling 46.7—one-tenth of a second off Lea's AAU record.

Lea finished in 47 seconds flat, followed by Dick Maico of the New York Pioneer Club, 47.1. Whitfield, of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, ran fourth after electing to compete in the 440.

Police officers said Jordan's 1950 Mercury was an hour when it failed to negotiate a curve.

Ex-Phil Triumphs in Relief

NEW YORK (UP)—Ex-Phil Jim Konstanty, pitching from his 1950 memory book, turned in his second relief victory in as many days Saturday for the New York Yankees over the Cleveland Indians, beating them 3-2 after Bob Cerv batted in the winning run with a pinch single.

By winning, the Yankees retained their two-game lead over the runnerup Chicago White Sox, who also won Saturday at Boston.

Konstanty, gaining his sixth victory without a defeat in his 22nd relief appearance, took over at the start of the seventh when starter Ed Lopat came up with a sore index finger on his pitching hand.

Yogi Berra had just put the Yankees back in the game with a two-run homer against the upper deck facade in rightfield, following a single by Gil McDougald.

Cleveland had taken a 2-0 lead in the top of the sixth to break open a scoreless duel between loser Al Houlihan and Lopat. Al Smith drilled a two-run homer well into the left-field seats after a walk to Bobby Avila.

With the score deadlocked at 2-2, Andy Carey led off the Yankees seventh with a double and scored on Cerv's pinch-hit.

Konstanty pitched himself into and out of a jam in the eighth when with one out, he walked Avila, and Smith doubled for his fourth straight hit, raising his batting average 10 points for the day to .315. However, Dave Philley grounded out to first, Al Rosen popped to Carey and after Larry Doby was purposely passed, pinch-hitter Dale Mitchell grounded out.

Konstanty retired the side on five pitches in the ninth.

Trans-Pacific Race, Inboards on July 4 Agenda

By BOB RUSKAUFF

Chaired by the Trans-Pacific Yacht Club, the Trans-Pacific Yacht Club race start and the huge inboard speedboat race meet at Marine Stadium, both on July 4, the holiday's greatest independence celebration. The Trans-Pacific Yacht Club's annual regatta program is ahead.

The above fixtures, one a drama in grace and beauty, the other a spray-filled and swash-buckling, will be the towering events but they fall at end of the three-day holiday and there's a passel of things, starting Saturday. Such as:

Alamitos Bay Yacht Club's traditional, three-day small boat inboard series, to be raced on both bay and ocean courses; a similar regatta for all classes, but only the first two days, jointly sponsored by Newport Harbor and Balboa YCs; Santa Barbara's Semana Nautica (includes a stock outboard regatta Sunday and racing outboard meet Monday, both on Cachuma Dam); the San Pedro Yacht Club's annual regatta, to be held on the Catalina Channel, plus other series of varying stature and the usual Catalina regatta of hundreds of yachts for three-day cruise layovers.

With its now-53 entries, transcending by far the 34-boat record set in 1947, the 19th Trans-Pacific biennial since 1906 stands as a fiscal that out-ranks anything ever held for any comparable event in the entire history of yachting.

Entry-wise, the east's 3,000-mile Atlantic crossing to Norway is small potatoes. The biennial Bermuda race, also born in 1906, is but 690 miles long.

Largest of the 1955 Trans-Pacific contenders is Ramona, the 109-foot schooner entered by William Pomeroy of St. Francis Y.C., San Francisco. Smallest is Elmer Hitchcock's 36-foot schooner Sea Mist of Salinas on ratings, though over all length honors go to the 35-foot Wilbo Ketch, Sea Queen.

This staunch little boat, owned by Fred Harris, is considered a good bet for fleet handicap honors. She's a sister ship to Sea Witch, which Sandy McCormick sailed to win in 1951.

As for the July 4 inboard speedfest, sponsors of the West Long Beach Lions Club, handling the event for their fourth time, are now surpassing the classic will equal or surpass the first of the national holiday meets, Memorial Day.

It will take some doing. The meet provided some action and before the second largest throng in Marine Stadium history. There's impetus in the battle of now-eight boats for 1955 national championship in the Pacific hydroplane class. Here defending champ is Marion Beaver, Parker, Ariz., veteran and record holder, with the Little Beaver.

The nationals, notwithstanding, E-Racing reunions, which have a terrific resurgence after a other red-hot classes may well provide the real razz-ma-tazz action of the day.

Among these will be the means going.

BOSTON—A man who is unknown in baseball circles has caused quite a lot of controversy. John A. Owen wrote a story titled "Baseball Is a Stupid Game" which appeared in a national magazine.

Well, I guess there are millions of stupid people, for millions both play and watch our national pastime.

Baseball bigwigs are up in arms in defense of their interests. And they've got all the facts on their side, too. Owen's story is filled with flaws.

For instance, he says that it takes from 35 to 40 seconds to complete a double play. Actually most double plays require three and one-half to four seconds.

Longer periods are required only when runners are trapped between bases and must be run down.

Anyone who knows anything at all about baseball would recognize the holes in his contention—and wonder why any magazine would print such a story.

THERE IS GOING TO BE quite a commotion raised when American and National League officials get together with Commissioner Ford Frick at All-Star game time.

It seems that a lot of the clubs are abusing a rule pertaining to the disabled list. Looking for some early changes in the limitations of this regulation.

A ball player must be disabled when put on this list, but lately many of them have been late and hearty. I know. I've seen their horseplay in off-game hours.

TAKE A LOOK AT THE BOSTON RED SOX' record since the return of Big Slug! Ted Williams inspires the younger players on the club merely by his presence. Few of us up here will be surprised if the "new" Red Sox finish in the first division—or even take it all.

But it still looks like a real battle between our Chicago White Sox and the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians for the American League pennant. The club getting the breaks at the right spot should win.

They might as well call off the National League race and let the other seven teams battle for second and third. Those Brooklyn Dodgers have impressed me as a real powerhouse on the few occasions I've been able to watch them play.

Stearn vs. Great Scott

Promoter Louie Miller, with three main event wrestlers on his hands, announced Sunday that his top bout this Thursday at the Municipal Auditorium would be a rematch between George (Great) Scott and Ray (Thunder) Stearn.

Miller had a prominent wrestler all signed to meet the winner of last week's bloody bout, but when Scott won on a technicality—Stearn was a technician—too badly to convince the promoter to let them go at it again.

Juan Humberto and Bob McCune are in the semi-main, with Joe Blanchard going after Skippy Jackson in one preliminary and Johnny Demchek facing George Bruckman in the other. The show opens at 8:30.

Fishin' Around

By DONNELL CULPEPPER

If you are one of those ocean anglers who never handles a rod and reel until the albacore move in, don't get excited over the present catches. Just let the outfit stay where it is because the longfins are far, far away.

There were more catches by fast boats making the long runs to the so-called 35-mile bank Thursday and Friday, but don't get the idea that 35-mile bank means the distance from Long Beach. One hundred would be closer to the correct figure.

The schools presently are at least 40 miles west of San Diego and that's a long run, even for a boat at the border city. However, some of the Long Beach skippers who seem determined to get some records went for them and their passengers were rewarded by a few fish.

The Fishermen II (Pacific Landing) and the Spitfire and Sea Sport (Pierpoint Landing) seem to be leading the parade; in fact in case you are interested in long boat rides.

Elsewhere, fishing slowed late last week, with only sporadic catches on the Horseshoe Kelp, this city's chief fishing banks. There was slightly more activity at Catalina and San Clemente Islands with some barracuda, an occasional yellowtail and white sea bass.

The old reliable kelp bass kept anglers interested at both islands. San Diego's yellowtail run, which slumped seriously because of dirty water, was on again late last week, with indications that the big fighters will continue hitting.

The Department of Fish and Game again calls attention to the fact that you may possibly catch a tagged yellowtail. If you do, please call the Fish and Game office, 511 Tuna St., Terminal Island, or at 1005 St. Ash St., San Diego.

HERE AND THERE
The June 27 issue of Life Magazine should be on the "must" list of all fresh-water fishermen. It contains pictures, in natural color, of the 73 most-sought-and-caught game fish in U. S. inland waters. The article, which takes 10 pages, is one of the most authentic that has come to our attention recently.

A great deal of credit should go to Maynard Price, wildlife artist, who made the drawings after a journey of 20,000 miles throughout the nation. He was given assistance by federal and state fish and game authorities.

The colorings are superb and, if you have any specimens of fish caught, keep a copy at hand. The drawings should be in his travels that although there are 30,000,000 anglers in the U. S., many of those don't know what kind of fish they are taking home.

Art and Mrs. Hall are back from a two-month fishing trip off South America. They fished at Cabo Blanco, Peru, and off the Galapagos Islands where both Hall and Mrs. Hall caught sailfin that were recognized as world records. Mrs. Hall's fish weighed 178 pounds and was caught on 30-pound-test line in 30 minutes. Art's was a fish weighing 158 pounds, caught on three-sixty tackle in 14 minutes.

It was the pleasure of Dr. George C. Chuck, past president of the Southern California Tuna Club and western representative of the International Game Fish Assn., to notify the Hall's of their records.

Art, a SCTC member, caught a 590-pound black marlin off Cabo Blanco. He previously held a world record for a 979-pound broadbill caught on 39-pound line in 1953. That record since has been broken.

TRAVELING ANGLERS
Many sportsmen in Long Beach and Southern California remember Edwin L. Carty, former member of the California Fish and Game Commission. Well, Carty and his wife continue well, so, Norway, for waters surrounding Svalbard on July 6.

The Cartys, who live at Oxnard, seal gunning for polar bear, seal and arctic waterfowl, while aboard the diesel ketch Havella. They also expect to do some salmon fishing in that area.

Memo to any fishermen going east for big game: The Ocean City Fish Co., A and Somerset Sts., Philadelphia 34, Pa., has the following states: Maryland, Virginia, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts. Maps cover fresh fishing grounds, both fresh and salt water. Charts suggest best fishing seasons for each species, best fishing methods and bait for each.

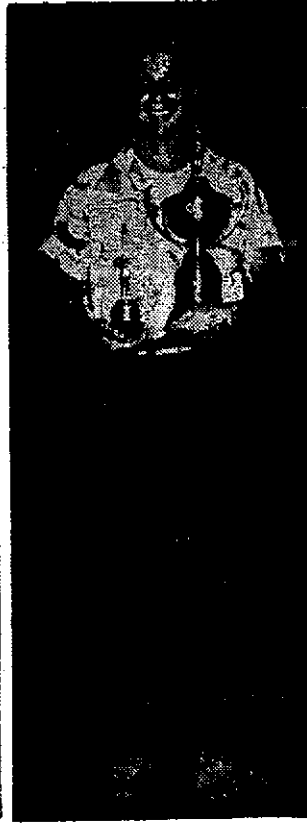

S. Kip Farrington, noted big-game fisherman, reports from Cabo Blanco, Peru, that James M. Hutton III, of Cincinnati has taken a 1,340-pound black marlin on 39-thread Ashaway line in 1 hour, 40 minutes. Other successful black marlin anglers are listed as Alfred G. Gassler Jr., Houston, 765 and 555; Jaime Llavallol, Buenos Aires, 780. Both anglers also were using 39-thread Ashaway.

The Ocean Fish Protective Assn. will elect officers and directors at its meeting next Wednesday night in Tri-Angels Hall, Fishermen, with all salt-water fishermen invited.

If you think the kids have gone slightly daffy over the Dave Crockett Ballad these days, you ought to hear the California fur buyers and trappers sing it. Low-quality rabbit, gray fox, coyote and, of course, the favored raccoon pelts—all considered a drug on the market for years—have come into their own and are really selling fast these days.

Unbeaten Jr. Swimmers Honored at 'Y' Dinner

The unbeaten juniors walked off with team laurels and Ronnie Blackledge, Russell Poe, Bruce Mosely and Jerry LaBonte were individual trophy winners last week as the Downtown YMCA honored its swimming teams at a recognition dinner.

Blackledge, a high school member of the Midget team (age 9-10) was presented with the "most improved swimmer" trophy by Glenn F. Thomas. The "Y" Men's Club donated the trophy.

Poe won the Exchange Club "sportsmanship trophy" as a member of the Junior team (13-14). Zena R. Hyde made the presentation. LaBonte won his trophy for being high point man in the Senior "Y" area meet at the Santa Monica, while Mosely paced the Junior scoring in the same meet.

LaBonte, who coaches the juniors, also is one of the Southern's top collegiate swimmers. He won All-America mention in the recent NCAA coaches poll. He attends Whittier.

Al Fish was master of ceremonies at the presentation dinner. Others participating in the program included Glenn Thomas, in invocation; Ernie Ingalls, in charge of dinner; Dr. Ed Beebe, who delivered a congratulatory message on behalf of the "Y"; and Mrs. George C. Booth, publicity chairman who presented a report to the parents.

Regular members of the five "Y" teams: JUNIORS (9-10)—Mark Driscoll, Ronnie Blackledge, David Garner, Art Overman, Dick Stull, Pete Wisniewski. FRESH (11-12)—Trudie Tinton, Riley Quayle, Gary Grandie, Johnny Poe, Bill Wisner.

SWIMMERS (13-14)—Kenny Quayle, Steve Chew, Gary Clarke, Betsy Vire, Ivan Cook, Jr., Stanton Smith, Mike Scher, Casey Coleman, Russell Poe, Bruce Mosely, Steve Bauer.

BOWLING ALONG

What are the returns on the noble "experiment"—automatic pinspotters at the Virginia?

Well, Alice Meglerre, secretary of the 6:30 Mixed Four-some, has this to say:

"Some of us were wobbly in our delivery because of the absence of the ball track—it was nice to keep us lined up as we agreed with the foul line. We all approved with 'mixed emotion,' however, progress is wonderful! Two gals couldn't have liked the alleys more—check the games and series." (Barbara Hadley 208, 535-129 average; Maxine Bagdasar 209, 560-144 average). Do you all feel the same way?

RAY VICKERY pens a note concerning the Major Monday Handicap. Says Ray:

"If you happen to drop in at the Major, you'll undoubtedly hear some remark made about the kids." They came to us in March after winning the trophy in the Thursday night winter league—men old enough to be their fathers and grandfathers. Currently they are tied for first place. It is hard to say who is going to stop them from walking away with the trophy. Any one of them is capable of rolling in the 200s. They bowl under the title of 'Westside Gang.' Their lineup with averages: Bob Bright, 15, 153; Jack Rozar, 18, 148; Jim Rozar, 15, 149; Larry Bright, 16, 170; Tom Cheeseman, 20, 145. Tom recently received the ABC Triplicate Shield for rolling three consecutive 157 games in league competition."

SOUTH PACIFIC Tuna is the only Long Beach entrant in the top 10 of any of the classes in the state tourney in Stockton. They're 10th in team events.

AROUND THE HORN: Jim Porter's sparkling 215-812 paced the Major 535 Trio. Tony Gustave had a 222-799; Chas. Cahone 242-787. . . . Major Mixed Fivesome was led by Vickery with a 243-581. Alcey Hinton had a 224-584; Pete Pedrigo 252-554. . . . Split pickups were common the past week. Here are a few: Doris Smith, 5-7; Harriet Mallow 3-10; Laddelle Hudson 5-6; Ann Murawski 5-7; Betty MacDonnell 5-10; Jack Fleming 4-6; Blackie

Blackburn 5-7; Tom Gannon 7-6-10; Jim Markley 5-7; Bill Welford 6-7; Bill Hainley 5-7; Jerry Rupswick 5-7; Shig Kadota 4-7-10; Joe Medvec 4-5-7.

ABC NOTES:
As the 52nd annual American Bowling Congress tournament came to a halt on June 5, the 3,136 score rolled April 19 by Pfeiffer's Beer of Detroit stood up as the best team score, giving captain Lou Seilaff's crew an unprecedented third championship.

Pfeiffer's won in 1953 with 3,181 and in 1952, as E & B Beer, with 3,115. They are the only teams with more than one 3,100 in ABC tournaments. Their 9,449 team all-events became the third best on record, and for the second time they had all five men top 1,800 individually.

Pfeiffer's set a new record for team prize winnings, $6,046.42. They set the old record of $5,743.76 in 1953. The $4,713.30 they won in 1952 gives them the first three places in this category.

The 1,365 doubles game rolled April 15 by George Pacropolis and Harry Zoeller of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., ties for the 8th highest total in ABC history and is the sixth best winning score on record.

Zoeller . . . 256 224 173-688
Pacropolis . . . 253 222 225-689
Total . . . 509 455 401-1385

Eddie Gerzine's feat of winning the singles title on the third day of the tournament gave the Milwaukee team proprietor the earliest title in modern times. He rolled his 738 on March 23.

Rockets Seek Fourth Loop Win Today

Tied for the Summer League semipro lead with three straight wins, the Long Beach Rockets will go after victory No. 4 today when they host the L. A. Colored Yankees at Recreation Park. Game time is 2:15 p. m.

The Rockets have bowled over the L. A. Eagles, Gant's White Sox and Chandler Longshoremen since the start of league play on June 5. Next Sunday all teams will be idle because of the holiday week end. The Rockets will close their regular five-game league slate on July 10 against the Long Beach All-Stars. Two more wins will put the Rockets into the playoffs.

Rocket Manager Wait Carson received some good news this week when he learned that distance-hitting Jack Graham has given up umpiring and will join the locals as a coach and pinch-runner today.

Another newcomer who may see action is pitcher Fred Stroble, who was forced to give up organized ball because of bone chips in his arm. Stroble, former Poly High ace who later pitched for Pittsburgh and Hollywood, was with Williamsport of the Class A Eastern League until he quit early this month. He expects to give his ailing arm another tryout with the Rockets.

Today's probable Rocket batting order:

Seifridge of Winslow 2b, Carter of Pearson of Howard 3b, Ryan 1b, Zickman of Seaford 4b, Jones of Cantonment 5b.

Judy Garland Will Bring Big Show to Long Beach

Judy Garland, who plans to tour the nation with one of the greatest stage shows in history, will present the troupe in one performance in Long Beach, Monday night, July 11.

It will be the only performance for the big show in the Hollywood-Los Angeles area and many of the top film stars are expected to attend. The show will be in the Auditorium.

The show is being presented here under the auspices of the Long Beach Exceptional Children's Foundation and efforts already are under way to assure a packed house and big profit for that organization.

With Judy in the starring role, the show will offer many top performers from the films and stage. The tour will open in San Diego, then come to Long Beach and then swing north to Seattle, then into Canada and on into the East.

Local sponsors say that never in history has such an aggregation of star-studded talent been assembled for a road show and with 100 seats reserved for other Hollywood stars, it will be the greatest assemblage of film and TV stars here in history.

Tickets for the extravaganza already are on sale with a special office set up at 523 American Ave. Reservations may be telephoned there at 7-6962 or 7-4331.

Other ticket offices are at the Wilton, 6-1284 and Humphrey's, 7-3789.

Ticket reservations have been made by Lauren Bacall and Humphrey Bogart, Jack Benny and wife, Bing Crosby, Frank Sinatra and Gary Cooper and wife, the sponsors said. Because the show is being sponsored here to raise funds for the Exceptional Children's Foundation, it was obtained at a cost lower than for other cities, it was explained.

One Long Beach businessman has under written the show and will personally pay for all other costs of staging it.

Leaders of the foundation are busily lining up sponsoring groups for the affair. Already 40 organizations have accepted sponsorship. They are:

North Long Beach Junior Women's Club, Plumber's Auxiliary No. 70, Independent Business Men's Association, Beta Sigma Phi, Beta Upsilon Chapter, African Violet Society of Long Beach, Native Sons of the Golden West, Long Beach City College Alumni Athletic Council, Stud Club, Long Beach Board of Realtors, National Council of Jewish Women, Long Beach Chapter of the Red Cross, Long Beach Lions Club, Long Beach Kiwanis Club, Long Beach Elks Club, Long Beach Chapter of the Order of Foresters, Long Beach Court No. 35, Lakewood Jaycees, Kappa Kappa Gamma, North Long Beach Commercial Club, Long Beach Bar Association, Metropolitan, Long Beach Unit of United Association, Registered Commercial, Local American Federation of Labor, Long Beach Branch No. 870, American Legion Child Welfare Department, American Legion, Alamitos Bay Post 445, Belmont Shore Lions Club, National Secretaries of Long Beach, Lakewood Real Estate Association, Beta Sigma Phi, Beta Upsilon Chapter, Long Beach Zeta Lodge 885, Phi Alpha Kappa—Opsilon Chapter, Kappa Zeta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, Klatt Tavern Association—Long Beach Chapter, Catholic Youth Organization, Osteopathic Medical Assistants Association of Long Beach, Sons of American Revolution, Jewish Community Center, Dr. Harold Wachman.

'Night With President' Is Another Hit

By VERA WILLIAMS

John Green, Long Beach's ambitious young playwright who bears definite promise of going places, takes a long step forward in "A Night With the President," being presented by Lakewood Players in MacArthur auditorium, Centralia St. and Woodruff Ave.

A double row of hurricane lanterns, flickering in the night wind but not quite going out, furnish atmosphere and lead playgoers from the street to the auditorium. Johnny Green directs his production.

The play will be repeated at 8:30 p. m., July 1, 2 and 3.

Gaily spoofing the entertainment world, it tells about a movie star visiting Chicago and the efforts of her studio to keep her both slim and pure.

The play has a striking modern setting, many laughs, talent. The idea could be advanced that it needs tightening here and there, but what new play doesn't? Some of the actors need to learn their lines better—but what new actors don't? "A Night With the President" furnishes an evening of good entertainment.

Congresswoman Plans Free Salk Vaccine

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Eleanor K. Sullivan (D-Mo.) proposed Saturday that the federal government finance free distribution of Salk polio vaccine to all Americans under the age of 20.

She said she would introduce a bill Monday to authorize the government to buy the necessary amount of vaccine and turn it over to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis for distribution.

FATE STEPS IN

NEW YORK — "Everything happens for the best," my mother used to say.

My mother must have said it often, for I find myself repeating it when something goes wrong in my own skeptical world.

And now here comes Miss Shirley Jones, 21, blonde and pony-tailed, daughter of a small-town brewer, whose remarkable story you've probably read.

In August 1953, while vacationing in New York, this completely unknown, virtually untrained amateur from a town of 800 was chosen by Rodgers & Hammerstein to play "Laurey" in their great Todd AO movie, "Oklahoma!"

My story here is that Shirley Jones of Smithton, Pa., had suffered the crushing of crushing disappointments the year before that.

In 1952 she was "Miss Pittsburgh" and her friends thought she'd win the "Miss America" title at Atlantic City with ease.

"First, though, I had to win the 'Miss Pennsylvania' title in Philadelphia," she says. "At Philadelphia, I finished second. I went home ad bawled."

"When I came to New York on a vacation, I didn't think I was ready for New York. I still had a year in drama school."

But one day she sang for Gus Schirmer, the agent, who quickly thereafter had her over at the Majestic singing for John Fearnley, then the Rodgers & Hammerstein casting director.

Now here was the lucky part. Fearnley rushed her across the street to the 46th St. Theater where Dick Rodgers was rehearsing an orchestra for a road company of "Oklahoma!"

She went on with the full orchestra—where a girl always sounds better—and Rodgers soon said, "Would you mind waiting a few minutes for Mr. Hammerstein?" The latter, no word-waster, said when he heard her: "She's a perfect Laurey."

If she'd become "Miss America" in '53 she'd have gone on tour, she'd not have been "At the right place at the right time." Shirley leaves for Paris shortly to play "Laurey" there and in Rome—returning here in time for the big Broadway picture premiere.

Miss Jones, a religiously-inclined young woman, sometimes uses terms like "Providence" when she recites this tale. I thought it might be appropriate to pass it on to you for your Sabbath contemplation.

THE WEEK-END WINDUP... "DON'T PRINT THAT!" One of the country's most famous singers, who retired a million-aires years ago, is unhappy. He complains, "My records don't sell any more—people don't like me!"

Dick Shawn, golfing at Englewood, N.J., hit a ball into the framework of a house being built. Looking for the ball, Dick liked the house and bought it. (Never found the ball)...

WISH'D SAID THAT: "Alcohol is just about the only enemy that man has learned to love."—Quota.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: "Who was born on a mountain in Tennessee? If you don't know, tell us where you spend your spare time—we want to go there, too."—Marion (Ky.) Falcon.

Billy (Little Club) Reed hears that in Las Vegas the kids grow up from three-wheelers to two-wheelers to one wheel. That's earl, brother.

Lawmaker Sees $30 SS Benefit Proposal Gaining

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Thomas B. Curtis said Saturday the House Ways and Means Committee probably will vote next week to increase the present $30-a-month minimum Social Security benefit and broaden coverage to include dentists and lawyers.

The Missouri Republican told a reporter that key Democrats indicated at a closed committee meeting late Friday that they would move next week to include these new provisions in their plan to liberalize the Social Security system.

Curtis said the Democrats also hinted they might favor raising the payroll tax on employers and employees in 1956 or 1957 to pay for the cost of benefits included in their package plan.

Visitors Rule Long Beach Strand

OUTSIDERS DOMINATE the Long Beach strand. The point is illustrated by these sun cultists. Left: Dwight Buncie of New York City makes a catch at Belmont Pier. Center: Anthony De Frank of 2545 Zandia Ave., Lakewood City, romps with daughters Debbie, 3, and Toni, 5. Right: Virginia (Ginger) Otte, of Los Alamitos and Leo Roncini of Anaheim down a cooling draught.

THIS old mountain boy has been thinking about a certain river again. It's a savage blast of water, pouring down out of snow peak country, splashing against big rocks in the canyon it has dug for itself. Here and there it whirls into big pools where the trout lie deep.

I'm going up and try to do something about these trout. And in the steep mountain sides nearby are some old gold claims, and some mines that yielded plenty to the hardy gents who worked them in the last century.

No doubt somebody has been all over the country looking for uranium. But if I can find a Geiger counter with a built-in tick, I'm going to do a little prospecting of my own. But I want one that is sure to click now and then, just for thrills.

Of course, I know nothing whatsoever about Geiger counters. The only one I know is a friend of mine who, mulling through the Long Beach telephone directory one day, discovered there are 25 families named Geiger listed there.

ALL of this is by way of giving my readers the good news that I won't be here this week, and some talented guest columnists are going to fill this space.

I would have let one of them take over today for your pleasure, but there are a few odds and ends I want to take care of.

LIKE that story about Wanda Bright, the girl who, ten years ago, was rushed from Long Beach to Rochester, Minn., on an air force B-17.

She was seriously ill, and the Long Beach Elks Lodge arranged with the air force to take her to Mayo Clinic. A few days ago an eastern firm which is making some TV shorts about the air force, asked the lodge here to locate Miss Bright. It wanted to tell her story over again.

Well, the story in this dept. gave a lead. Somebody telephoned Bill Seguin of the Lodge and gave him the name of Miss Bright's mother in Hollywood. And a call to the mother brought some sad news.

92 Gal Fliers, 54 Craft Due for Puff Derby

Fifty-four light airplanes and 92 women fliers will arrive at Long Beach Municipal Airport this week to get ready for next Saturday's takeoff in the ninth annual Powder Puff Derby.

(For more about the Derby, see today's Southland Magazine.) The 2,800-mile route—longest in the nine-year history of the event—ends at Springfield, Mass.

Three previous winners are among the pilots competing in this year's event. They are Lauretta B. Foy of Van Nuys, winner in 1949; Shirley B. Floyd of Inglewood, who won in 1952; and Frances Bera of Los Angeles, 1953 winner.

Only one Long Beach woman is entered. She is Dee Thurmond, 1515 E. 3rd St., who regularly flies C47s for Bixby Airlines here. She is flying a Cessna 195, sponsored by Wood-Callahan Oil Co. of Long Beach. It is her fifth race.

The annual event, officially known as the All Woman Transcontinental Air Race, is a handi-cap event. Planes compete against a "par speed" set for their type. The women can fly only during daylight hours.

The route is through Blythe, Phoenix and Tucson, Ariz.; El Paso, Midland and Wichita Falls, Tex.; Tulsa, Okla.; Springfield and St. Louis, Mo.; Terre Haute, Ind.; Dayton, Ohio; Wheeling, W. Va.; Reading, Pa.; and Springfield, Mass.

Beach Count Shows Locals in Minority

By GEORGE ERES

Speaking of people on the beach, it's obvious that the decision on where to spend your vacation is not made on the basis of who wins the annual argument at home: where do we go, the beach or the mountains? The decision is apparently based on something entirely different. You take a look at where you live and go some place different.

This accounts for the fact that about two-thirds of the people who use the beach here are not Long Beach residents. There are official statistics to back up the sunspot survey. The Recreation Department's survey shows that only 32 per cent of our beach users are residents of Long Beach.

Of the others, 61.8 per cent are Californians and the remaining 6.2 per cent reside outside the state.

LIFEGUARDS ESTIMATE that more than 5,000,000 people a year use the 6.48 miles of supervised beaches in Long Beach. On a warm summer Sunday you can run into more than 200,000 people and on some holidays the number's closer to 300,000.

When you take a look at who uses the sportfishing facilities on Pier A—Pierpoint Landing and Pacific Sportfishing—the out-of-towners who know a good thing when they see it are even more in evidence.

The Harbor Department made a study last year of the number of autos that crossed a certain line—putting them in the pretty certain category of visitors to Pier A. The count was: more than 1,000,000 autos. Figuring the average number of persons to a car at 2½, the total equals the entire population of Los Angeles.

A RANDOM SAMPLING of passengers on a Pierpoint Landing sportfishing boat, the Sea Angler for June 18, showed 34 of the 43 passengers had signed up to participate in the jackpot (the person catching the biggest fish wins).

L. B. - Catalina Mail Service Ceremony Set

Special ceremonies inaugurating mail service by air between Long Beach and Catalina Island will be held Thursday noon at Municipal Airport, Dick Probert, president of the Avalon Air Transport announced Saturday.

The new service will begin Friday carrying mail regularly once a day. Schedules call for delivery of inbound mail to Catalina in the morning, with outbound mail being picked up in the afternoon.

The U. S. Postal Department awarded a contract for one year, which includes the handling of all classes of mail, for the service.

The mail route has been designated an "air star" route by the Civil Aeronautics Board. It is one of two air star routes assigned west of the Mississippi.

Participating in the inaugural ceremonies will be representatives from the U.S. Postal Transportation Department, mayors and postmasters of the two cities as well as officials from the Long Beach and Avalon chambers of commerce.

Probert also announced that an unofficial catchet was being prepared by the City of Avalon for the first mail being flown out of the island. Stamp collectors who want to participate in the special postal cancellations should send their letters to the Avalon Chamber of Commerce. For this inaugural flight cancellation will be made both at Catalina and at Long Beach.

Avalon Air Transport currently is providing regular passenger flights daily between Long Beach and the island.

Demos Seek Truman for L. A. Talk

WASHINGTON — Former President Harry S. Truman may be the star attraction at one or more Democratic Party "field conferences" scheduled to be held in California this coming September.

A spokesman for the Democratic National Committee told the Independent Press-Telegram Washington Bureau that the committee is attempting to get the former President to address conferences in San Francisco Sept. 15 and/or Los Angeles the following day.

The concept of the "regional conference" was developed by National Committee Chairman Paul M. Butler after conversations with Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) in which Humphrey urged launching a full-scale "political revival" in California to counteract the Republican Party's national convention in San Francisco in 1956.

Butler and Humphrey hope the San Francisco and Los Angeles meetings will accomplish a number of things, chief among them a unification and strengthening of the California party, long torn internally.

Secondarily, the conferences will bring together party chiefs from several Western states in a '56 strategy huddle. Butler himself is expected to head the national committee contingent at both meetings, with emphasis to be laid on ways and means of developing winning candidates and vote-getting issues.

While no detailed plans are on paper as yet, the San Francisco-Los Angeles conferences this fall are admittedly the opening salvo in a determined offensive to wrest the Golden State from the GOP.

Democratic strategists are convinced the 1954 Congressional elections, which returned control of Congress to their party, established a real trend away from the GOP. No matter who the Republicans run for President next year, they argue, California's 32 electoral votes could swing the election their way.

Deadline for Soap Box Derby

July 26 will be the last day to enter a car in the Long Beach area elimination contest for the 1955 National Soap Box Derby.

The deadline was announced Saturday night by the co-chairman, Ross Phillips, automobile editor of the Independent Press-Telegram, and Dave Davis, sales manager for the Beach City Chevrolet Co.

An estimated 500 boys in the cars they have built themselves are expected to take part in the Long Beach area contest.

Heat trials for the area race will be July 29 over the race course on Redondo Ave., north of Pacific Coast Hwy.

Estate Yields $1,500 Gift to Heart Fund

A gift of $1,500 was presented Saturday to the Long Beach Heart Association at its offices, 815 Pine Ave., by John A. Paap, executor of the estate of the late Ada Schwab.

Miss Schwab died here in 1953 when she was 83 years old. She had lived in Long Beach 28 years.

"Miss Schwab had long been an ardent supporter of the Long Beach Heart Association," said Dr. Pettus G. Secrest, president of the Long Beach group. "She stipulated that the bequest was to be used for the general purposes of the association locally."

"This fund will be used as Miss Schwab intended, in the furthering of the Long Beach Heart Association's three main functions. They are research, education, and community service."

Catalina Airlines Eyeing Torrance Field

TORRANCE—Possibility that Catalina Airlines may operate from Torrance Municipal Airport was indicated Saturday by R. C. Herrick, chairman of the City Airport Commission.

He said officials of the line have surveyed the field with a view to using it as its mainland terminus of flights to and from Avalon. However, the company has not filed an application for use of the airport.

Catalina Airlines currently flies eight-passenger planes from Los Angeles International and Burbank airports.

Spanish War Veterans Set Session Here

Two thousand men who fought in the Spanish-American War will come from all parts of the United States to the 57th national encampment of United Spanish War Veterans and auxiliaries in Municipal Auditorium Sept. 18-22.

This will be the first national encampment of the organization in California in more than 20 years. Frank Higley, 37 Ceritos Ave., California Department chairman, is encampment chairman.

Hosts will be the two local camps, McKinley and Long Beach camps and their auxiliaries.

1st World War Veterans Unite

All veterans of World War I are invited to a meeting of Long Beach Barracks 154, Veterans of World War I of the U.S.A., at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Veterans Memorial Bldg. Commander Jim Butler will preside.

GOP Wants Pictures of Ike in Schools

A one-day drive to place pictures of President Eisenhower in each of the 1,400 schools in Los Angeles County is planned for Sept. 19 by the Republican County Central Committee and the American Legion.

University Women Open L.A. Convention

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The California convention of the American Assn. of University Women will be held today, the national meeting starting Monday.

Feel Shaggy? Don't Be a Silly Ash, Try Trim From City Tree Barbers!

By GEORGE WEEKS

Beginning next month, the city's 200,000 street trees, in parkways and dividing islands, are gradually going to take on a more pleasing appearance.

The first systematic pruning schedule for street trees, to minimize that shaggy, unkempt look, will be inaugurated early in July, Director of Parks Donald D. Obert announced Saturday.

Building of Hospital Gets Go-Ahead Nod

Immediate construction of the first new general hospital to be built in Long Beach in more than 20 years is assured, Dr. Rufus A. Davis, president of Long Beach Osteopathic Hospital, Inc., announced Saturday.

The new 96-bed hospital will be located on Pacific Ave. between 27th and 28th Sts. The site, which will provide initial off-street parking for 100 cars, covers a square block.

Complete cost of the project, including the 4½-acre site, will be approximately $1,300,000 or $46,000 more than originally estimated, according to Dr. Davis.

"Doctors, themselves, financed 88 per cent of the cost of the new hospital before inviting public assistance," said Dr. Davis. "In a city-wide campaign last December more than 300 individuals, civic organizations and business firms made contributions ranging from $1 to $14,000. However, we still must raise an additional $100,000."

The new hospital will be a reinforced concrete structure, two stories with three wings, and expandable to a 200-bed capacity.

Mumps Is Not Funny if You Are an Adult Victim

By OWEN CRUMB

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Once I got a big laugh when my boss had the mumps. I just had it—and now I know that mumps in an adult is no laughing matter.

If little Johnny's playmate comes down with the mumps, you might take the advice of doctors I sought out for facts about this virus disease for which there is no real cure:

Don't get panicky and lock the child indoors. And don't demand that your family doctor come up with some miracle that will keep your child from catching mumps. Because of the dangerous potential it holds for adults, doctors agree it is better to have mumps as a child and get it over with.

A pediatrician told me: "Mumps gives a fairly lasting immunity. There is an anti-mumps vaccine, but I wouldn't give it to a child. It doesn't give as lasting an immunity as an actual case of mumps. If a child is healthy, and not run down, it probably would be a good thing for him to have the disease."

A surgeon said with a grin: "My youngest child hasn't had mumps yet. If it were not illegal and I knew of a convenient case down the block, I'd bring it over to my house."

That doctor had mumps as an sult in some involvement of the central nervous system—from simple headache to serious brain damage. But he adds: "In all the world there probably have not been more than a dozen authenticated cases of death from mumps."

mumps a second time if swelling, laymen, doctors said, is a common belief that it almost automatically results in sterility in male adults. I received many consoling glances upon my return to work.

"Although it's possible, but unlikely, that you can have the mumps twice, having it on one side provides just as lasting an immunity as both sides," Dr. Silverman says. Another misconception among

Cadillac

One Thing Men Agree Upon!

It is in the nature of things for men to hold opinions and to argue and dispute.

Football, baseball, politics—guns, golf clubs, breeds in dogs... name a best, and you have an argument.

And so it goes through boats and trains—and horses and tennis and makes of planes.

But when it comes to motor cars, you'll seldom get an argument if you name CADILLAC as the car of cars.

That's just about as close as men can come to universal agreement. And with good reason.

Who could look about him at the various styles in motor cars—and not give the nod to Cadillac for its great dignified silhouette?

Who could take the wheel of this dynamic performer—with a hundred horsepower added to its engine for safety alone—and not crown it the king of the highway?

Who could relax in its luxurious comfort for a mile or five hundred—and fail to recognize it as the finest riding car on the world's highways?

And who could look back over its illustrious past—or look about him at the people who own it and drive it today—and not acclaim it as the most distinguished motor car in the whole automotive world?

We feel assured that you are aware that Cadillac is the car of cars. But that is but part of the wonderful Cadillac story.

There are economy—and value—and dependability. There are long life—and resale value—and freedom from repairs. And there are all the other sound, practical reasons for owning a Cadillac.

Come in and see us. We'll be only too happy to give you the whole story—and the keys to a car. Thirty minutes at the wheel... and you'll understand why there's no argument about a Cadillac!

Nearing End of 'No Down' Sale Terms

Veterans are reminded this is the last week-end to purchase Verano House and Garden Homes in Garden Grove on "no money down" terms.

More than 60 per cent of the homes, which come complete with both indoor and outdoor features for one purchase price, already have been sold, according to the Tobin Co., builders.

Exterior features include a six-foot redwood fence enclosing the back yard, full sprinkler systems, garden walks, cement patio area and complete landscaping.

Three-bedroom, 1½-bath homes are selling for $10,995 with vets paying "no down" and $59 a month. Four-bedroom, 2-bath models, have payments of $66 a month, including principal and interest, and are priced at $12,595.

Inside the spacious houses, home-seekers will find two big dining areas, Columbia Steel kitchen cabinets with sliding glass doors, Westinghouse food-waste disposers, dramatic fireplaces, Owens-Corning Fiber Glass insulation, fingertip heating by General Thermostat Controls, a Dishmaster and Laminart kitchen counter tops.

Those who live in Long Beach can view Verano House and Garden Home furnished models by traveling east on Seventh St. Turn right on Century to Verano. Pioneer Land Company is sales agent.

LAFAYETTE ADDS ANOTHER

Continuing the steady improvement program, Lafayette Hotel has added another dining room, known as the Cavalier Room. This shows a portion of the room which will seat 350 persons for a dinner dance or banquet. Improved at a cost of $25,000, the room was a former garage portion of the hotel. David Tallichet, manager, said other improvements are planned for the near future as the hotel plans to bid for more major conventions and tourist trade. He said the new room gives the Lafayette more dining facilities than most places in the Southland.

Financial Aid of Others Is Aim of Club

Looking for anyone with an idea, patent or business speculation worthy of financial aid, a Long Beach group is ready to lend support, it was announced Saturday.

The Quatra Club is composed of 25 men in various business types in Long Beach who have banded together to invest in various enterprises. By pooling their resources they are in a position to invest in various deals.

Included in the group are doctors, attorneys, engineers, contractors, realtors, and businessmen.

Dr. Al Weil, 5375 Village Rd., is president and Jack Frank, contractor, 3306 Lime Ave., is treasurer.

"We know there are many individuals in need of help in carrying out inventions or other plans and we are ready to listen to them," said a spokesman.

Dividend Declared

REALTOR OF WEEK

J. R. Seaton Recalls Early Days in L. B.

A man who when he first came to Long Beach termed a real estate man "crazy" for thinking Long Beach would extend as far eastward as Redondo Ave., is the Realtor of the Week.

And that same man who learned the salesman was correct, once was taken to task by a wife for selling her husband some lots in Belmont Shore.

"Yes, things have changed, and all to the good," says Seaton who has had a colorful career in public and business life.

Born near Lamar, Mo., Seaton graduated from business college in Springfield, Mo. His first job was hauling coal from his father's coal bank at the age of 12.

After school he ran his own employment and collection agency. Later he was in charge of furnishing workers for the Frisco railroad.

James Richard Seaton came to California in 1912 and managed the newsstand and concessions on the Southern Pacific Railroad out of Fresno.

In 1913 he came down to Long Beach and a salesman took a bus load of prospects out to Redondo Ave., and showed them land. "He told us that Long Beach within 20 years would be grown out that far and we thought he was crazy and afterwards he admitted to us there wasn't much truth to what he was saying."

Seaton entered realty in Fresno in 1917 and came to Long Beach in 1923 and established an office at 452 W. 7th St., where he has been since. For 20 years he was associated with G. Sherwood Holbert and the firm was Seaton & Holbert until the latter retired a few years ago.

When Belmont Shore was being developed Seaton helped sell the lots. "We took people out on busses, fed them and tried to make sales," he recalls. "I sold one man 2 lots on East 2nd St., and his wife saw me later, called me a crook and wanted to know how many bucketsfull her husband bought."

Seaton was a member of the City Council from 1943 to 1954. He was a member of the Park Board as representative of the council 6 years. He is a charter member of All States Lodge 593 F. & A.M., is a member of the Masonic Club, United Church Brotherhood, Council of Churches, Chamber of Commerce, Missouri Society, is a director of Goodwill Industries and the Civic League.

His family now consists of a daughter, Mrs. Fred E. Selover, granddaughter, Margaret Selover who is now a salesman over his old office, a salesman for him and a great grandson, Wayne.

"I have seen the city grow to one of the finest in the United States and with our fine harbor and industries there are great opportunities here for all,"

JULIA GOAINS
Heavy Sales Recently

says Seaton. "We are just beginning to grow."

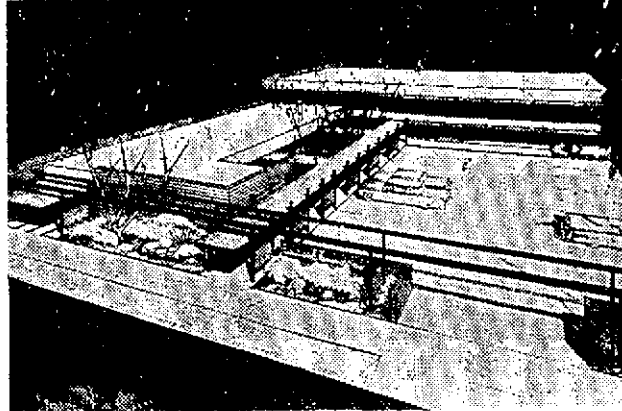

Julia M. Goains, the Salesman of the Week honored by the Long Beach Board, has been in realty two years but her real results have been produced the past two months. As a salesman for Stormy Keats, Mrs. Goains since April has sold $65,000 in homes and duplexes. Born in Kansas and raised in Fairbury, Neb., Julia has been a resident of California 18 years.

She worked in the shipyards 8 years before turning to real estate. She was 2 years with Joe Mitchell in the Bellflower office before joining Stormy Keats at 1227 Pine Ave.

Julia's husband, Jason, works at Douglas and their home is at 60 W. Del Amo. She has three children, a daughter Jo Ann in Ogden, a daughter Sharon and a son Doak at home. Doak was named after Doak Walker, the great football player.

Goains, a Texan, is a great football fan.

TO BUILD OFFICE

Demonstrating faith in the future, Swett & Crawford, insurance general agents, announced plans to build an 18,000-square-foot office on Long Beach Blvd. in the Bixby Knolls section. The building, designed by Architect H. Douglas Byles, A.I.A., will house the Swett & Crawford Long Beach offices as well as additional rental space. A secluded courtyard will be the entrance to most of the offices with access from the street or from generous parking facilities.

Dale Park Designed to Avoid Tract Look

One of the achievements officials of the Murray-Sanders building organization are most proud of in Unit 2 of their Dale Park "Achievement Home" series in the Garden Grove area is the individual way each home has been scientifically set back from the street to capture as much sunshine as possible, create privacy, and distinguish each home from its neighbor, it was explained yesterday.

"By building one house on a 'sunshine angle,' its neighbor usually far back from the street, a third on a reverse angle, etc., Dale Park has none of the 'box car' appearance of houses row-on-row, but instead, all of the desirable features of a community of custom-styled residences, each with its own personality and individuality," sales officials point out.

Located on the west side of Garden Grove, just minutes from the library, post office, park, bank and modern shopping center, the community boasts ten elementary schools, a high school and two parochial schools, with 20 churches representing virtually every denomination.

Dale Park is also just 200 yards off Highway 39—a broad artery from Huntington Beach north to the Santa Ana Freeway, thus making home-owners in this new community just 15 automobile minutes from Long Beach, 10 minutes from Santa Ana and popular beach cities, and only 35 minutes from metropolitan Los Angeles, sales officials report.

Encompassing all the benefits of modern, contemporary design and construction, Dale Park homes offer a choice of either three or four bedrooms for nothing down to veterans except costs and impounds. Prices range from $9,688 to $10,971, and payments are from $49.86 to $56.65 including principal and interest.

Luxury features include beechwood cabinets, ventilator fan, semi-automatic dishwasher, birch-paneled wall in living room, concrete garden patios, and tub and shower in each bathroom.

From Long Beach Dale Park may be quickly and easily reached by driving east on 7th St. to Huntington Beach Blvd. (Highway 39); turn left (north) and go to Chapman, then turn right and drive approximately 200 yards to development.

Hutton to Conduct Investment Forum

The investment firm of E. F. Hutton & Co., 219 E. Broadway, Long Beach, announced they will hold an Investment Forum on Thursday evening, 8 p. m., at the company offices. The topic will be "Investment Opportunities for Increased Income."

William C. Ferguson, local manager, stated, "People are constantly striving to better their income through various investment mediums. It is through public forums such as this that the public can be informed of the possibilities that are present in the market."

Present for the discussions will be Fred A. Marshall, well known distributor for several investment funds, S. Keith Davis and Donald E. Leedom, registered representatives with E. F. Hutton.

IN PEMBROOK VILLAGE

Opening today is Unit 5 of Pembroke Village, Garden Grove. This is one of the models offered, each filled with custom-type features.

Pembroke Villages Unit 5 Is Opening

The 5th unit of Pembroke Village in Garden Grove is having its grand opening today, according to Bruce Bartleson, sales director for Pembroke Co., builders and developers of a unique and popular rustic architecture for country living.

Because of the phenomenal success in Orange County of previous Pembroke Village units, it is expected that this new group of 3 and 4-bedroom, 1½ and 2-bath homes will be quickly sold out, Bartleson related. Continued emphasis on custom details as well as several outstanding new features are of special note in these Hanson & Hintz quality construction homes.

Compartmentalized baths with sliding doors make it possible for 5 people to conveniently use the facilities in complete privacy. The bathrooms are equipped with fans and Pullman lavatories. Another unusual luxury added to the fifth Pembroke unit is the Musical, which transmits music and interphone communication to four speakers. A master panel is included.

Custom ideas incorporated in Pembroke Village Unit 5, as in the past units, are golden hardwood floors, used brick fireplace, diamond-pane windows, circulating floor plans, service porches, plenty of storage and closet space throughout, mahogany slab doors and flush-lighted entryways.

Pembroke Village Unit 5 is on Harbor just south of Chapman.

'Flesh Gun' Tuner for TV Is Tested

A startling new kind of television set that uses a flash beam from a small pistol shaped gadget to turn the set on or off, change channels, or cut off the sound, was recently announced by Sues, Young & Brown, distributors for Zenith television. announced that this was not the pilot model for some dream device, but a tested and proved product that has been used in the homes of Zenith officers for the past year and that will reach the consumer market this summer. Viewers who use it will find that they can operate the Flash-Matic set from any place in the room facing the set.

Casas Lindas Location Has Much Appeal

"A survey among home buyers in Casas Lindas Estates reveals that the location of this Garden Grove development has been an important factor in influencing people to buy here," a spokesman for Eastern Builders Co. He pointed out that Casas Lindas is near shopping centers, schools, churches and resort areas. Casas Lindas is but a few minutes away from major highways and the Santa Ana Freeway.

Because Eastern Builders, developers, have learned home buyers prefer the convenience of central hall planning, they have incorporated this feature in all their homes.

IN BUENA PLAZA

"Triumph Series" of 3-bedroom, 2-bath, custom-styled homes in the new unit of Aldon's Buena Plaza is typified by above exterior. Location is Miller St. and La Palma Ave., in close-in Buena Park.

Expecting Big Rush of Buyers in Aldon's Buena Plaza Today

Aldon Construction Co. officials expect an influx of buyers today to take advantage of the last chance to buy custom-styled 3-bedroom 2-bath homes in the famed "Triumph Series" at Buena Plaza on vets' terms of no cash down, even for costs and impounds.

Approximately 75 of the fast-selling "Triumph Homes" remain, and no more will be available on no-cash-down terms, due to the recent restrictive VA regulation, Aldon officials pointed out.

"This important fact, plus highly desirable location at Miller St. and La Palma Ave. in Buena Park, and the popularity of Aldon's new custom-styled home, provides a sales stimulant which unquestionably will bring about an early sellout of the last of the 521 homes in this series," a key Aldon spokesman explained.

Meanwhile, it was noted, thousands of week-day and weekend visitors are going through Buena Plaza's "Greatest Home Show on Earth," which features 5 new model dwellings of the "Triumph Series," all furnished by Aaron Schultz in varying motifs. Included in the display are 10 special construction exhibits, presenting visually the latest developments in the home field in quality materials, building techniques and Aldon "luxurized" features.

Priced at $12,750, the three-bedroom, 2-bath homes in the new $50,000,000 planned community of Buena Plaza are "absolutely no cash down to vets," according to E. (Bully) Hamburg, general sales agent. Vets' monthly terms of $66.16 include built-in Western-Holly

Sanders Sent to Covina Area

Charles Sanders, division sales manager of Walker & Lee, Inc., has been transferred to the Covina area to serve clients in that vicinity, it was announced by Frank R. Hart, general sales manager for Walker & Lee.

"We are moving Sanders to the Covina area," stated Hart, "because of our firm's increased activity in that area. At the present time we are selling the two new Cunningham subdivisions, W. I. Wilkie's development in Glendora Gardens, and Foremost Park homes. It is our belief that our activities in the Covina area will continue to increase at a rapid pace."

Walker & Lee, Inc., pioneer Lakewood realty firm, at the present time has in addition to its main office at Bellflower and Carson, an Orange County branch on Manchester Ave. in Anaheim. This realty firm, known as specialists in merchandising of subdivisions serves many of the southland's top builders.

Some choice homes in Banner Park are available because original purchasers failed to meet credit requirements, according to Frank Hart, sales manager for Walker & Lee, Inc., sales agency for the Garden Grove development.

The kitchens have Western-Holly built-in ranges and ovens, Stanthony stove hoods with electric light and fan and garbage disposals. Open beam Celotex insulated ceilings are used; kitchen and bathroom floors are asphalt tile.

Resilient Kenkork tiles are used throughout the rest of the homes, which are situated on large lots. There are stall showers, 40-gallon water heaters, metal sash windows and living rooms with walls of glass.

The homes in Banner Park are priced from $12,500. Monthly payments are approximately $67. There is no down payment for veterans and FHA terms for nonveterans.

Banner Park is open daily to 9 p. m. and may be reached by driving out Seventh St. (Garden Grove Blvd.) or Westminster to Harbor, turning south on Harbor to Hazard.

Villa de Flores in Preview Today

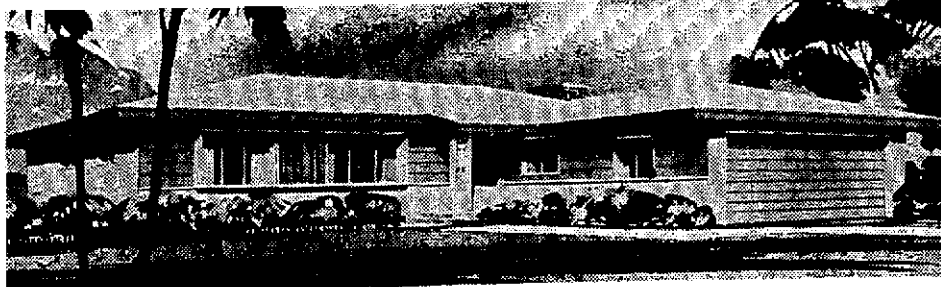

Preview today of the new "Flowers-You-Know" series of 108 custom-styled California modern and ranch-type 3-bedroom-and-a-den or 4-bedroom homes just off the Santa Ana Freeway on Flower St. in Santa Ana, will mark a high point on development of this new community planned by Brainerd Construction Co.

Officials announced yesterday that focal point of today's activities will be official unveiling of the model homes furnished by W. & J. Sloane of Los Angeles, that will display the 3 basic floor plans and present visually the materials, building techniques and special features that have been used to distinguish these spacious homes.

Priced from $14,500 to $15,400, residences will be sold to qualified veterans on terms of nothing down except impounds and closing costs, with convenient FHA terms also available for non-veteran buyers, it was noted.

Large lots average 8,500 square feet, builders report, and are graded "broom clean" for landscaping.

Designed to accommodate in comfort today's large and growing families, homes offer a choice of 4 bedrooms, 3 bedrooms-and-a-den or three-bedroom models, all with 2 large baths, and 2-car garage.

With three basic floor plans and nine exteriors to choose from, scientific room coordination, builders point out, to combine distinguished styling with smart design, and sound construction in modern ranch-side.

A WONDERLAND HOME

Construction is now being rushed on 162 three- and four-bedroom, two-bath Wonderland Homes, typified above. Located on the southwest corner of Ball Rd. and Walnut St., Anaheim, the new residences are but one quarter of a mile from "Disneyland."

Wonderland Homes Will Be Ready Soon

Construction of 162 luxury, styled 3- and 4-bedroom, 2-bath homes is now proceeding at full speed at Wonderland Homes, it was announced yesterday by the builders who asserted that first buyers will move in at an early date.

"After unavoidable delays, brought about by torn up streets and other factors, work is proceeding on schedule," it was announced by the sales agents, Pioneer Land Co.

Viewers may now see the homes at every stage of construction as well as visit a display of four furnished models at the southwest corner of Ball Rd. and Walnut St., in Anaheim, it was noted.

The new homes, it was stated, are priced to sell in the $12,486 to $13,870 price range and are offered to veterans for no cash down, except for costs and impounds with monthly payments from $64.49, principal and interest. Vets buy on 30-year 4 1/2 per cent GI loans, while non-vets are offered low FHA terms and down payments.

Living rooms of the new dwellings are exceptionally light and airy, all with complete walls of glass, sliding glass doors and fixed floor-to-ceiling windows creating an expanse of 21 feet overlooking paved patio-terraces, it was stated.

Also featured are forced-air heating, hood and exhaust fans over kitchen range area, garbage disposals, ceramic tile in baths, formica drainboards in kitchens and a choice of wood shingle or colored rock roofs.

Located within a quarter of a mile from "Disneyland," the new homes may be reached via the

Whaley Will Open Another Unit

The new Los Altos 25th Unit will be ready to open soon, Rod-ney Whaley, executive vice president of Los Altos Realty, Inc. announced.

These homes are planned for pleasant family living with three and four bedrooms with features of the latest conveniences of the modern-day living, said the sales agency head. Built-in Westinghouse dishwashers, the new Westinghouse range and oven, garbage disposal, exposed beam ceiling, natural selected hardwood floors, fireplaces and planters and many other features are included.

All streets within the subdivision are paved and parkways completely landscaped.

All of these homes, stated Whaley, are beautifully color coordinated by Paul Bennett, color consultant of Beverly Hills. Nothing has been spared to give the Los Altos 25th Unit home owner the best home value on the market.

The architectural planning has been done by Poper & Lockett, AIA, of Long Beach and they have put together what is believed to be the finest homes ever built in the Long Beach area.

The location of Los Altos is one of our greatest selling points continued Whaley. The 25th Unit is within the city limits of Long Beach, just off the campus of Long Beach State College. It is close enough to the beach that the ocean breezes dispel smog. The Long Beach Marina Yacht Harbor is just a few blocks away and these homes are only a short distance from the $25 million Los Altos Shopping Center.

The Los Altos Unit 25, L. S. Whaley model homes are on Palo Verde Ave., between Anaheim and Atherton Sts. Grand opening of the model homes will be over the 4th of July weekend.

Fairview Ranchos, newest D. & E. Corporation 2-bedroom and den, and 3-bedroom completely landscaped development, is located on Bristol Ave., at Fairview Ave.

These garden homes, landscaped and planted so buyers

Fairview Ranchos is easy to reach from Los Angeles via the Santa Ana Freeway by turning south on Harbor Blvd., pass Disneyland, then continue to Edinger St., drive left on Edinger to Bristol St., then left on Edinger to the "parking corral" where Davy Crockett will be stationed at the frontier-style sales office.

The trio of models, furnished under the skilled direction of Tony Pereira, depict the various styles and varied decor that can be achieved by G.I.'s buying this development, situated in orange grove.

"These homes, finished with the garden theme, are complete with fencing and shrubbery so the buyers will be able to save time in caring for the garden," said the sales agent.

Southern California leads the nation in outdoor living, and this Fairview Ranchos "package is keyed to this fact."

Display of five completely furnished model homes is drawing large crowds to see the new "Sterling Series" 3 and 4-bedroom, 2-bath residences at Orangewood Estates. It was reported yesterday by W. E. Robertson Co. developers of the new community on the south side of W. Orangewood Ave., just east of Brookhurst Rd., Fullerton.

Designed by Architect Max Maltzman, the new dwellings are offered buyers in a choice of 30 different exterior designs, 10 floor plans and a full selection of color schemes originated by Margaret Hargrove.

"Buyers tell us they like the opportunity for indoor-outdoor living made possible by the spacious homes with their large living rooms, sliding glass doors and paved patios," a spokesman explained.

"The large wood-burning fireplaces, built of slumpstone or Norman brick and some of which have copper hoods, are responsible for many sales as

Also of importance to many buyers, it was stated, are the no down payment terms for vets, with only nominal costs and impositions from $73.65, including principal and interest. Full price of the homes is from $14,300 to trolled forced-air heating, built-in breakfast bars with concealed storage space in some models, hardwood floors and hardwood paneling, stall showers and two-car garages with added storage or utility room.

The homes are reached via the Santa Ana Freeway to Orange-thorpe Ave., which is 'followed east to Brookhurst Rd.

MAGNOLIA ESTATES

Model homes with interiors by C. Tony Pereira are on view in Magnolia Estates, typified above, on west side of Magnolia Ave., between La Palma and Crescent Aves., south of the Santa Ana Freeway, in Anaheim.

Model Homes Attracting Magnolia Estates Crowds

Display of 4 model homes designed by Architect Daniel L. Dworsky and furnished by C. Tony Pereira, noted decorator, is drawing large crowds to Magnolia Estates, new home community of 3- and 4-bedroom, 2-bath residences on Magnolia Ave., south of the Santa Ana Freeway, Anaheim.

This was the word from Louis A. Towne, president, and Richard H. Doremus, vice president in charge of planning, for Exhibit Homes, Inc., sponsors of the attractive development. "Buyers tell us they like the fresh, crisp styling of the new homes at Magnolia Estates and they like the easy terms, too," the builders stated in comment on reported heavy sales to both vets and non-vets. Veterans are buying, it was stated, on terms featuring no down payment, except costs and impounds, while non-vets pay $995 down, plus small costs and impounds. Both groups are offered low monthly payments below the level of nominal rent for homes of this type.

Among the features finding favor, it was said, are thermostat-controlled forced air heating, all metal sliding glass doors, steel sash windows, decorator planned color schemes, lath and plaster construction, custom lighting fixtures, picture windows and stall showers with ceramic tile floors.

Other features are large kitchens, natural finish kitchen cabinets, ceramic tile counters, large dining areas, spacious service facilities, pantry closets in some models, 40 to 50-gallon automatic gas water heaters, rock-wool insulation and chrome bath fixtures.

Chapman-Magnolia Park Sales Hit All-Time High

Sale of Chapman-Magnolia Park homes in suburban Garden Grove hit an all-time high during the past 14 days, according to officials of Ajax Construction Co., builders, who say this last-minute rush points up the fact that they are the last residences in the final unit available to qualified veterans on financing arrangements that require no cash to move in.

Quality construction, luxurized features and a highly desirable location have proved important factors in the recent record sales," point out executives of the Robert McCutchin Co., sales directors. "and have brought on 86 per cent sell-out of this new development's 338 homes, especially of the 4-bedroom models that offer a choice of either 2 or 3 big bathrooms. Three-bedroom-and-a-den residences have 2 large baths, also, as have the 3 bedroom units, it was noted.

Fully priced from $11,600 to $13,900, veterans' monthly payments range from $81.41, and include principal as well as interest. Pointing out the "country life" features of these luxurious homes themed as "distinctive rustic,"

BUYING RUSH BY VETERANS

Chapman-Magnolia Park homes, such as this model, have hit a new high in sales with a rush by veterans to buy without any cash needed, the sales agency reports.

Prudential Homes, Anaheim, Planning to Open Soon

The hustle and bustle of activity centered around Anaheim-Olive Road just two and one-half miles east of Santa Ana Freeway is indicative of the fact that the substantial new Prudential Homes Development located in one of Anaheim's most select residential areas is in the final stages of completion for early opening, according to Harry L. Scholer, under whose direction the project is being co-ordinated.

Over 400 unusually individual 3 and 4-bedroom, 2 and 2½-bath dwellings have been projected for the subdivision. Six furnished models will be placed on exhibit with the anticipated formal opening. These are to be decorated by Frank Bros., well-known Long Beach firm of home furnishing experts.

Prudential Homes incorporate a multitude of modern major features, yet the complete prices are moderate ranging from $14,500 on liberal FHA 30-year terms.

Blue Bell Manor Sales Reported at Brisk Pace

Brisk sales over the recent Father's Day week end were reported at Blue Bell Manor, Garden Grove, according to Sam Wisniewski of Monogram Home Builders, developers of the Blue Bell Manor tract.

Wisniewski reported, "Many families informed the sales staff they had never seen homes comparable to those in Blue Bell Manor."

In addition to their outstanding homes, Blue Bell Manor has come up with another "first"—three types of terms for prospective home buyers. Their latest addition is straight, conventional loans for non-veterans, only $1995 as the down payment. Blue Bell's other two plans consist of liberal FHA terms in which $2,550 down is required, and the no-down payment plan for veterans except usual impounds.

HARMONY MANOR OFFERING

Representative of 3-bedroom, 2-bath homes in Harmony Manor is above exterior at Magnolia Ave. and Ball Rd., Garden Grove. Each home has "Jack and Jill" room, with play and sleeping space.

Ease in Housekeeping Big Feature

Easier housekeeping, made possible by special "Jack and Jill" rooms, is a strong appeal offered by the new 3-bedroom, 2-bath homes at Harmony Manor, it was reported by officials of Heftler Construction Co., developers of the new residential community in Garden Grove at Magnolia Ave. and Ball Rd., just off the Santa Ana Freeway.

"The Jack and Jill room has separate sleeping areas for two children and a common play area," he said. "It has a separate entrance from the outside, too, permitting youngsters to run back and forth without tracking through the rest of the house."

Also boosting sales at Harmony Manor, it was reported is the offer of immediate occupancy to veterans at special terms requiring no cash down, not even for costs and impounds, and monthly payments of only $61.35, principal and interest.

Terms apply, however, only to homes now built or building since the Veterans Administration has now ruled out any extension of "no cash down" terms, the spokesman related. Vets were urged to make their selection now in order to qualify and to get the home of their choice.

Opportunity to inspect the practical aspects of the Jack and Jill rooms is offered in a display of furnished model homes, it was noted.

Features include built-in Western-Holly Range and Oven, built-in serving bars with formica tops, aluminum louvered windows, wall of glass with sliding doors, covered breezeways, garbage disposers, large two-car garages and natural finish hardwood kitchen cabinets.

Excitement Mounts as Camping Days Draw Near

OFF ON A HOBO HINE are Cathy Cole, Barbara Burdick and Marilyn Steiner, from left, as they get in the mood of the Camp Fire summer camping program to be offered this year at Camp Suanga, 459 E. 67th St., Camp Jacaranda in Lakewood, Camp Achanyata and a new camp yet to be named by the campers, both at Bixby Grove. Eighty girls will attend each week-long session throughout the summer at these camps and 90 girls will be in attendance at each of the seven Camp Hemohme sessions. Hiking, crafts, nature study and cooking over open fire are but a few of the day camp activities.

MAKING 'SET-UPS' out of old newspapers are, from left, Carol Worthen, Barbara Lopez and Nadette Davis. Nadette is making a hobo stove on which the girls will do their outdoor cooking while attending sessions of the Camp Fire summer camping program. Although it is the Camp Fire program, girls do not have to be members to attend. Registration is still open at the Camp Fire office, 2120 Cherry Ave. Today Camp Hemohme, near Wrightwood, is open for parents to view the facilities and to meet the complete camp staff. Camp Fire is a Community Chest Agency.

En Route to Europe for Tour

Today finds Janet Cottrell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Cottrell, 26 Lindero Ave., boarding a plane in New York with 17 other students to begin the first lap of a student tour of Europe led by Dr. Rolland Rogers, associate professor of western civilization at Stanford University.

Janet left by plane for New York on Friday. The tour will include visits in 14 countries, including the British Isles and the Scandinavian Peninsula. Janet will complete her tour in Madrid, returning on Sept. 15 in time to begin her junior year at Stanford.

Silver Year Marked by Gala Affair

A surprise party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Peter D. Zarifos on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary recently with Mr. and Mrs. James A. Sullas and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Caras co-hosts at the gala affair, given in the Sullas home, 1037 Marshall Pl.

For the affair the two hostesses decorated with fresh sprays of pink and white gladioli, silver bells and ribbons. On the refreshment table a pink and white cake held center of attention with its handsome decorations of silver bells and leaves. Tables in the patio also carried out the pink and white theme.

In addition to the celebrating couple, their son, Jim Zarifos, was also an honored guest of the evening, home briefly from his second year of law school at Stanford University prior to leaving for Fort Lee, Va., where he will serve as a 2nd lieutenant in the Army.

Assisting the hostesses with party arrangements were Miss Irene Sullas, just returned from studies at Occidental College, and Miss Helen Zarifos, daughter of the honored couple, home from her junior year at Stanford where she is the newly elected president of Cap and Gown.

Mrs. James H. Bonner returned from Honolulu to her Long Beach home, 5605 Seaside Wk. on Monday following an absence of several months. Mrs. Bonner left Long Beach last fall to visit with cousins, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Kendrick in Abilene, Tex., and from there went to Alexandria, Va., to spend several weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Capt. and Mrs. F. G. Springer, USN.

She stopped briefly in Long Beach in March while en route to join Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bonner of Piedmont, Calif., in a trip to Hawaii. A FAMILIAR SCENE at both the day and mountain camps for Camp Fire Girls is the roasting of marshmallows over the open fire as posed by Nancy Cole, left, and Carolyn Clark. This is just one of the many pleasures to be experienced by the girls who attend day camp, Camp Hemohme near Wrightwood or those groups who may go camping with their leader and other adults at state parks or nearby mountain and beach areas during this summer. A day camping session means eight days of camping, Monday through Thursday for two weeks from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. and the traditional 'over night' stay.

Quaint Parasol Decor Marks Shower as Bridal Attention Focuses on Shirley Howell

A parade of tiny maids with bouffant skirts and carrying pink and aqua parasols adorned the invitations and set the decor for the buffet luncheon and miscellaneous shower given for Miss Shirley Howell.

The attractive Raymond J. Kirkpatrick home at 281 St. Joseph Ave. was the setting for the event which was co-hosted by Mmes. Kirkpatrick, G. A. Lackey, Lloyd J. Vaughan, Lewis Van Winkle and Leo H. Lyles. Assisting during the afternoon were Mrs. Eugene R. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Donald M. Hodges.

Guests gathered in the garden where they were served fruit. The buffet table in the dining room was covered with a pink and silver cloth and centered with a large figurine carrying pink roses under an aqua parasol. Quartet tables, adorned with figurines overflowing with old-fashioned pinks and forget-me-nots, were GETTING THEIR UNIT boxes ready for Camp Fire day camp are Pamela Allen, left, and Judy Cady. Each morning two girls at the day camp go to the director's shack to get the unit box, which contains craft materials for their unit. There are four day camps with sessions beginning June 20 through the week of August 8 and are open to girls not in the Camp Fire program, too. In addition there is Camp Hemohme located in the Big Pines recreation area near Wrightwood which will be open to Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls and Horizon Club members for seven sessions this summer.

Wild Waves

By IOLA MASTERTON

Summer's first balmy weather is sure harbinger of a bevy of carefree parties. One of the first of these will be the coffee hour which Anabel (Mrs. Ben) Parks and Myra (Mrs. Kirt) Parks have planned for Thursday at Myra's home, 4135 Annapolis Rd. from 10 a. m. to noon.

With the dancing, lacy patterns of sunshine sifting through the big shade trees in the garden, guests will stroll in the coolness of the yard and chat beneath cheery, bright umbrellas placed here and there in informal random, as well as enjoy the gracious hospitality being dispensed within.

Those who have been asked to assist the hostesses as they greet their well over one hundred guests are Mary Gorman, Glenna Wilson, Agnes Kuffel, Ettie Brown, Eric Miller, Dorothy Southgate, Walla Pearson, Betty Godwin and Lillian Margart.

Catch this news from Ketchikan! Word has come of the arrival of a baby boy to Mary Louise (White) and Harry Bousfield Keiser. The young "Alaskan" was born June 12 and explains why his grandparents, the James G. Whites, 2762 E. Second St., have suddenly developed a longing to travel. Mary Louise and Harry named their first-born Harry B. Keiser III. There is one thing for sure, Mary Louise, a child psychology major who has studied at Occidental, Cal and UCLA and done extensive work with the famous Dr. Grace Sernard, is going to have her first real chance to prove—or disprove!—a lot of fine theories!

There may not be a "lion in the streets" but there sure as heck is a lion-in-the-house at Virginia and Franklin Waters home and it all happened because of Father's Day—or almost. A certain store has been tantalizing more than one customer with this tremendous (actually life size) stuffed lion for quite a while and Virginia has had her eye on it all the time. With a reduction in price her will power snapped, and she bought it! What was more logical than for her and the two Waters youngsters to give it to "papa" on "His Day." And was "papa" thrilled? Well, naturally, all husbands like to see their wives happy on F. D., don't they? Besides, this one is capable of doing Franklin's growling for him, just in case he ever feels so inclined. All he'll have to do in the future is wind the handle and gggrrrrrrlll. That'll fix the donors!

Roger Browning returned from St. Mary's Hospital Tuesday after a one-round TKO over a tough contender named Appendix. Bout referee was Dr. Johnny Cottrell, and "seconds" in the Browning corner were the "Champs" parents, Verla and Dick.

"S'il vous plait"—ing their way all across Europe and "auf wiedersehen"—ing their way back again will be Dr. Lawrence and Barbara Kunds who left Monday by train for the east coast where they will embark July 2 for Le Havre and a summer-time of touring the continent. Timing themselves right down to a gnat's eyebrow, they plan to make it back to Long Beach the day before school begins next fall.

Some sudden switches in plans were made in the schemes-for-summer department, but very happily, by Lois and Odie Wright when they learned the good news that Odie had been appointed the new deputy superintendent of schools, succeeding popular Gladys Potter upon her resignation. Hammers and saws have been making busy sounds at the Wright home, where a new bedroom, bath, and a larger play room are emerging and which Odie had every intention of painting himself during a leisurely summer. That grin on his face didn't fool anybody, particularly Lois, when he said, "Looks like we'll have to hire a painter." Poly's new principal, taking over in Odie's footsteps, and his wife, Niel and Audrey Phillips, are long-time friends of the Wrights so it won't be quite as hard to say "farewell" to familiar and beloved duties at the school of the green and the gold.

If Shirley Swigert, Ann Stewart or Diane Hitchcock didn't make much sense last Monday, Tuesday or the part of Wednesday they were still here, who can blame them? The threesome, all former Tri Delts from UCLA, were walking on the proverbial air preceding their journey's start for New York and a date with the Ile de France which will take them on a two and a half month tour of Europe. They'll be back in September, via Quebec and a look-see at some of Canada.

It's going to be quite a while before Ellen or Ben Knight lose those special smiles they've been wearing. First time the smile appeared was when they witnessed son John's graduation from the College of Architecture at USC and the smile stayed right with them through their own silver anniversary celebration last weekend.

Due to come winging in from Chicago tomorrow are Bruce and Hester Gray, who flew back to Kansas City (and thence to the city on the lake) to haunt some old familiar byways and highways during a couple of weeks vacation. In K. C. they visited Hester's parents, sister and brother-in-law.

There'll be a jolly rattling of pots, pans and all things "kitcheny" Wednesday night at Mildred Shank and daughter, Margaret's home, when they cohostess a merry shower for JoAnn Hunter, who has a wedding date with Bruce Jurvine on Aug. 26. Gay pink and charcoal invitations to the affair were received some time ago by 40 friends of the honoree and have been carefully kept ever since as a reminder of the fun to come June 29.

The most energetic and joyful noises continue to emanate from Dr. Gene and Elizabeth Jones' home at 5900 Bay Shore Wk. as, with son Jim, they entertain their daughter Justine and her husband, Bill Englebright, plus their two little daughters, Anne and Susan, who have been here since June 12 on an interim visit between living in Lubbock, Texas, and a move to Canada. Actually, Bill leaves tomorrow for the provinces and Justine and the girls will follow as soon as he is settled. In the meantime, the Jones' daughter-in-law, Ann, and her two boys, Bobbie and Peter, arrived June 15 from Hudson-on-Hastings, N. Y., with Bob due here in August to complete the family picture and a perfect vacation.

Early summer and early fall, somehow, belong to the young—the young at heart. Graduation time brings to focal point all the gaiety and exuberance of our "prides and joys" as do those giddy days just preceding return to school in September. But right now let's deal with June and one of June's pretty parties. It honored JoAnn McMillan Butler (Mrs. Richard E.) who with her popular husband graduated from Wilson this year.

Jo Ann was honored by Barbara Powers at a surprise shower Monday evening with Barbara's mother, Muriel Powers, cohostess in their home, 2734 Ladoga Ave. Guests were all members of the Ming Leadership Club of Wilson, of which JoAnn is immediate past president. In addition to her Ming presidency, the honoree served as secretary of the student body, vice president of the Lambda Phi Welfare Club, councilmistress for Phi Gamma, Chi Sorority, member of the Loudspeaker staff and chairman of Girl's League publicity.

Her husband (in case you've forgotten, they slipped away last January to Yuma) hasn't exactly been sitting staring out a window during his school years, either. He was Governor of Athletics, president of Letterman's Club, vice president of Scholarship, Governor of Safety, president of the sophomore class, member of Key Club and Athos and played varsity football for two years, serving as co-captain last year. The two will enter UCLA this fall. Dick on an all-expense paid athletic scholarship.

ROTARY PRESIDENTS

If a sound tape were attached to this picture you would be hearing pleasant talk on matters concerning Rotary for pictured are, from left, Mrs. Lawrence A. Collins, Collins, editorial columnist of the Independent, Press-Telegram and incoming president of the Long Beach Rotary Club, Mrs. Hubert J. Prichard and Dr. Prichard, retiring president of the internationally renowned men's service club who met at the Collins home, 3900 Country Club Dr. this week to cement plans for the 38th annual President's Party of the club which will take place Wednesday at the Lafayette Hotel. A reception at 6:30 in the Cavalier Room will be followed by dinner at 8 in the Supper Room and a return to the Cavalier Room for dancing from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. to the music of the Frank Martz orchestra.—(Staff Photo.)

PARTY MAKERS

Another of the always debonaire Rotary President's Parties is ready to become joyous history as this foursome plots a course toward the festivities of Wednesday evening when Long Beach Rotary International will be host at the 38th annual such affair at the Lafayette Hotel. J. Donald Locke (seated) will be master of ceremonies at the gala party and William F. Jellick (standing) is serving as chairman of arrangements. Pictured assisting their husbands with party plans are Mrs. Jellick (left) and Mrs. Locke (seated right). Serving on the committee with these men are J. W. Becker, Charles S. Benner, Harry Buffum, Raymond H. Green Jr., Charles F. Jackline, Mark J. Nielsen, John Callaghan and Valle G. Young. The Cavalier Room and the Supper Room of the Hotel will be used for the reception, dinner and dancing of the evening.—(Staff Photo.)

Home From Trip Former Arizona Leader Republican Dinner Speaker

Home from a tour of the midwest are Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Embertson of 2119 Earl Ave. After a stay in Chicago, they drove to Milwaukee, Wis., where they saw their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Embertson and children, Karen, Krispi and Randy. They visited their other son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Embertson and children, Hubert Jr., Robert and Ricky, in Lamoure, N. D. They traveled through Montana en route home.

The Hon. J. Howard Pyle, former governor of Arizona, will be guest speaker at a Republican dinner Wednesday, July 6, at 7 p. m., in the Sunset Room of the Pacific Coast Club. An informal reception in the lounge of the club will precede the dinner.

Administrative assistant to President Eisenhower for the past several months, Pyle will come to the city under the auspices of the 18th Congressional District Republican Women's Federated of Long Beach. "What Is Good for America" will entitle his talk.

Tickets and reservations for the dinner and program may be made with Mmes. Harrison Moore, F. E. Hagelberg, Nadine Luebbers or Madeline Olson. The public is invited to attend.

In his early days Pyle was a radio commentator and during the war was a correspondent. Until 1950 he was a political unknown, when, through a statewide shakeup, he was elected the first Republican governor in Arizona in 25 years.

Mrs. David Branch Jr., one of Pyle's former campaign managers, is in charge of arrangements for the function and will introduce the speaker. Mrs. Richard Bixby, president of the club, will preside.

Among the notable guests expected to attend the dinner are Dr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson, Assemblymen and Mmes. Herbert Klockseim and William Grant, Chairman of the Central Committee Owen Murphy and Mrs. Murphy, and Messrs. and Mmes. C. C. Hosmer, George P. Taubman and Lon Peek.

The Rev. Murray T. McNeil Jr., minister of the Los Altos United Church, will give the invocation.

Filtered Sun Halos Lovely Bride as Pitts-Kellogg Vows Taken

Rays of the late afternoon sun on Saturday filtered through the rich stained glass windows of All Saints Episcopal Church and fell upon a profusion of white stock, Transvaal daisies and the shining greens of variegated ivy which contrasted effectively with the dark wood of the quaint Elizabethan interior to provide a charming setting for the wedding vows of Miss Carol Guion Kellogg and John H. Pitts.

The lovely, smiling young bride, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Kellogg, 5830 Bay Shore Wk., was escorted by her father to the altar where the Rev. Dr. Ainsley M. Carlton read the nuptial vows before 200 guests. The Kelloggs, Long Beach residents for many years, are prominent on both the medical and social scene here.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ryder Pitts of Spokane, Wash., who were present for the ceremony. Only a week ago both young people wore other garb, that of caps and gowns in the graduating classes at Stanford University when the bride received her bachelor of arts degree and the bridegroom his diploma from the graduate school where he was a fifth year student in engineering. He is affiliated with Phi Sigma Kappa. The bride was graduated also from Wilson High School.

Candlelight crystalettes over taffeta was selected by the former Miss Kellogg for her bridal gown. Fragile Alencom lace applique encircled the deep bateau neckline and extended to the waist in a panel, and the bouffant hoop skirt fell into a sweeping train. Her veil of filmy candlelight nylon illusion tulle, fingertip length, was gathered to a tiny four-cornered Juliet cap of matching pleated tulle outlined in pearls. Orchids and lilies of the valley comprised her bouquet.

Proceeding the bride was her entourage consisting of Mrs. Edward A. Hinz (nee Patricia Graham), matron of honor; Misses Sara Lynn, her roommate; Margaret Pitts of Spokane, sister of the bridegroom; and Doris Fallquist of Spokane.

Their gowns were styled alike and wore of crystalette in a soft cornflower blue, princess style, with bolero jackets and waltz length hooped skirts. Headresses were of matching blue net with short stiff veils, and they carried duobonnet toned roses and tinted angel feathers.

Groomsmen, all Stanford classmates, were Harry Glaze, best man; William Lloyd, Robert Vredenburg and Joseph Shaw, who served as ushers.

Felicitations were extended to the happy young newlyweds at a reception following the service in the peninsula home of the bride's parents. Assisting receive and serve were Mmes. George Badenhausen, Mark Taylor, J. Thomas Hardesty, William Durbin and Alfred B. Post. Mrs. Herbert Seiter, the former Janet Durbin whose wedding took place last week, was in charge of the guest book.

Following their honeymoon to an undisclosed destination, the new Mr. and Mrs. Pitts will be at home in Pittsburgh, Pa., where the bridegroom has a position with one of the country's major electrical companies.

Accordion Guild Honors Composer

Eugene Zador, whose symphonic works have been performed by the major symphony orchestras of the world, is the latest famous composer to be commissioned by the California Chapter of the Accordion Teachers Guild International to write an original serious composition for accordion. It is announced by the chapter's Long Beach representatives, Etta Yost and Stella Thomas, 1484 Atlantic Blvd.

Dr. Zador has just completed a three-act grand opera, "The Inspector General," and a "Divertimento for Strings," the latter commissioned by the Musical Art Society of La Jolla.

Norman Strong Marries Los Angeles Art Teacher

With only members of the immediate families in attendance, Miss Barbara Gonzenbach recently became the bride of Norman Irvine Strong, son of Mrs. Margaret Strong, 3849 Gaviota Ave., and Dr. Ralph Burton Strong of Los Angeles.

The bride and bridegroom spoke their wedding vows in Westminster Chapel of Immanuel Presbyterian Church in Los Angeles and are now at home in that city.

Only attendants of the young couple were the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Williams of San Francisco.

A native of Kentucky, the bride is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Gaines Gonzenbach of Los Angeles and the late A. F. Gonzenbach. She majored in art education at her schools and will teach in the autumn in Los Angeles. A graduate of UCLA, she also took art courses at the University of Kentucky, University of Cincinnati, Ohio State College and Los Angeles State College. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority.

Her bridegroom was graduated from Polytechnic High School, attended Long Beach City College and was graduated from UCLA. He served in the Army for two years.

Thomas Messer

July in the Municipal Art Center will be made into a traveling show.

This was revealed by Thomas Messer of New York, director of the American Federation of Arts, who recently came here to make the selection. The traveling show will include furniture, accessories, tableware, rugs and wallpaper, a cross-section of the Long Beach show.

"If we keep the show for one year, it probably will go to 10 museums; if we keep it two years, 15 or 20 museums," explained Messer.

Municipal Art Center, 2300 E. Ocean Blvd., is one of 400 museums, centers, galleries, etc., included in the American Federation of Arts membership. The Federation has 60 traveling shows.

"Climate and geography affect architecture and they all influence furniture and home designs," explained Messer. "California emphasis of course is on casual indoor-outdoor living."

Born in Prague, Messer was in Czechoslovakia when the Germans invaded the country in the spring of 1939. As an exchange student, he was en route to this country on the SS Athenia when it was bombed in mid-ocean seven hours after war was declared. The Athenia was the war's first ship casualty. Messer was rescued, enrolled in Boston University and later in Harvard. He was director of the Roosevelt, N. M. museum in 1949-1952 and has been with the American Federation of Arts since then.

This was his first visit to Southern California. He was "enchanted," he said.

Newswomen Share Gay Letter From Capital Visitor

Well known for her political and civic work in Long Beach, Mrs. J. R. (Marlys) Grizzle and her husband are currently in Washington, D. C., where they expect to remain for most of the summer. Mrs. Grizzle has penned an amusing account of some Washingtonian observations to the Independent Press-Telegram women's staff who have, in turn, decided to share her letter, received this week, reads in part: "This is a ghost writing! I have just read the Washington papers reporting what is happening here a day after the President and 15 thousand 'key personnel' left the city for Operation Alert in response to a theoretical bomb warning. Now we learn that most of us still here, tourists and all, are technical ghosts. This doesn't even make me slightly uneasy though I had to turn the air conditioning on for the first real summer weather. "I put wet leaves in my Davy Crockett hat and started for a summer on the Potomac a little while ago, taking the long way around through Seattle where it was raining and New York, where it was raining, too, and cold as well. I threw the wet leaves away and now we are again most comfortably settled in an apartment (at the Jefferson Hotel) in Washington, D. C. and I am taking up my political bird watching with renewed interest. "Visited Room P-63 this week to hear Mrs. Hobby report to committee. This is a large air conditioned room in the Capitol and about two hundred persons were present at one time and another. Mrs. Hobby made an excellent impression I thought, showing a thorough knowledge of her subject and never at a loss for a courteous reply in spite of what seemed to me to be extraneous, time consuming hypothetical questions from Senators Douglas of Illinois and Lehman of New York. Mrs. Hobby makes quite clear that she does not feel the Federal government, through the Health and Welfare Service, should infringe on state's rights; neither does she want to see socialized medicine enter through a back door. "Senator Goldwater of Arizona took occasion to compliment Mrs. Hobby on her conduct and attitude. Fashion-wise, she was wearing a dress of dull black silk, a tiny hat of fine black straw set so far back on her well groomed gray hair that the hat did not show in the pictures. There was a black leather belt on the dress and she carried a large black leather handbag. The committee, to a man, were conservatively suited and freshly pressed. Senator Paul Douglas wearing the only bow tie. "The buildings on the Hill were literally humming with a good healthy buzz as hundreds of school children were going through on guided tours. I thought the guards were especially patient and helpful though I must admit it was still pretty early in the morning. Wish every school child in our country could visit here at least twice before he graduates and becomes of voting age. "There is a sprinkling of brides and grooms among the visitors in the capital buildings. They are always grave and quiet, but with that unmistakable air of happiness that makes older strangers

Party Notations Crowd Miss Shank's Bridal Book

The stately melody of Lohengrin's "Wedding March" tops musical selections these days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shank. Their daughter, Margaret, and her fiancé, Allen Scherer, have set a late July wedding date and the popular pair is embroiled in a breath-taking round of pre-nuptial showers and wedding arrangements. A complete set of cooking ware for Margaret's striking future pink and charcoal kitchen will be presented to her Monday at a luncheon shower to be given by Mrs. N. H. Nielsen. Assisting the hostess will be her mother Mrs. F. U. Nofziger and her daughter, Mrs. Robert D. Smith. The springtime flowers abloom, sweet peas, carnations, gladioli, delphiniums, pansies, and Canterbury bells, will provide an especially pretty background for the event to be in the garden of the Nielsen home, 1823 Pine Ave. Luncheon guests will be seated at small tables centered with bouquets of sweet peas and topped by umbrellas. The bride's table will feature an arrangement of white gladioli and delphiniums. Bidden will be Misses F. U. Nofziger, Robert D. Smith, Joe Riddick, Claude May, Ben Knight, Ansel Olson, Joseph Fellows, Cloyce Bogle, Frank Stephens, H. W. Waldbillig, Guy de Bronac, John F. Nielsen, Burton Chace, V. Ray Townsend, John Davis, Don Locke, Estella Cushman, Edward C. Nofziger, Misses Marie-Louise de Bronac, Rosamond Hill, Carolyn Moore, Charmaine Carrey, Susan Merritt, Diane Owens, Ardith Vail and Muriel Mills. The spacious Ross Hall home on Roswell Ave. will be the setting the next day for a tea complimenting Margaret. Approximately 150 friends have received invitations to the affair.

Miss Knight will show a sound color film revealing the development of creativity within a few weeks in a group of pre-schoolers. She will then lead those attending to experience the same reactions by showing them the steps she used with the children. A limited number of tickets are available from each of the 14 cooperative nursery school teachers in the city. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Calvin Pearsoll, 7115 Roseby St. or Mrs. Don Turner, 1236 Poinsettia St.

With Beauty, Episcopal Rite Ties New Bonds of Marriage

Banks of white peonies, cysanthemums and stock turned spacious St. Luke's Episcopal Church into a sanctuary of ethereal beauty Saturday evening for one of June's most beautiful wedding ceremonies — the marriage of Miss Barbara Yunker and William Leslie Bettison Jr.

The lyrical, gently poignant voices of the St. Luke's Boys Chorus filled the church as the young boys in their white choir vestments proceeded the bride party down the center aisle. Their clear voices raised in the stirring words of the opening hymn, "Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven." As the young couple approached the altar the choir gave added meaning to the solemn moment with, "Oh, Perfect Love."

"Amen" was the choir's benediction in song to close the marriage ceremonies. Escorted to the altar by her father, Miss Yunker was an exquisite "picture bride" in her Cahill original floor length wedding gown, with its empire styling, fashioned of fragile white French lace fitted bodice, the portrait neckline softly aglow with beadwork trim and the bouffant skirt of the dress intricately tiered and edged in pleated nylon tulle. A Juliet cap of matching lace edged in tiny seed pearls, sequins and rhinestones caught her fingertip length veil of bridal illusion.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Frederick Yunker, 100 E. San Antonio Dr., the bride carried a crossarm bouquet of lilies of the valley and phaeonopsis. As her maid of honor Miss Judith Ann Bettison who, with her mother and father, Dr. and Mrs. William Leslie Bettison Sr., parents of the bridegroom, journeyed to Long Beach for the wedding from their home in Grand Rapids, Mich.

Miss Bettison was gowned in a floor length dress of white Swiss organza with portrait neckline trimmed in bands of flowers and wore a head band of white tulle with matching bows. Her long arm bouquet was a handsome arrangement of pastel blue hybrid delphiniums with stephanotis. The other bridal attendants preceding Miss Yunker down the aisle were Miss Lynda Taves, and Misses Stanley W. Curtis, Merrill G. Jessup of Whittier, Allan Stockstill of Pasadena and Edward G. Heath of Fillmore, Calif. They wore gowns and head bands identical to that which was worn by the maid of honor and carried bouquets of hybrid pastel blue delphiniums.

Theodore Dunn of Grand Rapids, Mich., was best man to the bridegroom and ushering the 500 guests were Donald R. Yunker, the bride's brother, William T. Kuykendall, Daniel B. Wallace, the latter two of Grand Rapids, Mich., Michael V. Stoen of New York City and William C. Edwards.

Following the single ring ceremony performed by the Rev. F. C. Benson Belliss, there was a gala champagne reception at Virginia Country Club. Greeting the wedding guests with the newlyweds were the bride's mother, gowned in a Mary Black original of Elizabeth blue Chantilly lace, floor length, with portrait neckline, self lace forming a soft Bertha collar. Mrs. Yunker carried a lacy corsage on her purse of stephanotis and phaeonopsis. Mrs. Bettison Sr., mother of the bridegroom, was in a floor length Ciel blue re-embroidered Alencon lace and peau de sole gown with scallops outlining the portrait neckline. The short sleeved dress was completed with a striking crushed sash of peau de sole which fell from the waist to the full length of her skirt. Her corsage was the same as that carried by the bride's mother.

Assisting at the reception were the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe S. Yunker, Mr. and Mrs. M. Jack Long, Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Heusel, Mrs. William C. Edwards, Mrs. Melvin Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Hoagland of Rolling Hills, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Wailes Jr. of Sierra Madre, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Brooks of Anaheim and Mrs. Malcolm H. Baker of Downey.

Among guests at the wedding were the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bettison, who traveled from Grand Rapids for the ceremony. Also in town from the Michigan city to witness the nuptials were Mr. and Mrs. R. Dale Law and family and Mrs. William T. Kuykendall.

The new Mrs. Bettison is a third generation Californian, granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carl Frederick Yunker of San Francisco and Mrs. John Maikson of Downey. Following graduation from Long Beach Polytechnic she attended Scripps College, graduating with the 1954 June class. She then continued her education at the American Institute for Foreign Trade in Phoenix, Ariz., graduating with honors in May of this year. She is a member of Searchlight chapter of Eastern Star.

The bridegroom received his bachelor's degree in 1951 from the University of Michigan. He, too, graduated last month from the American Institute for Foreign Trade in Phoenix. During school years he was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega and Delta Phi Epsilon (national foreign trade fraternity). He is a member of the board of directors of Grand Rapids Council of World Affairs. The newlyweds left following the reception on a motor-ing honeymoon trip through Northern California and thus across country to Missouri where the bridegroom has a position with a chemical company in St. Louis. They will be at home in St. Louis after July 15.

Top Buyer Picks U.S. Women as Best Dressed

By PATRICIA WIGGINS
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The retiring "dean" of U. S. fashion buyers says there is no doubt that American women are the best dressed in the world—better even than the French.

"Everyone has to admit the French woman is chic," Miss Elizabeth Fairall said in an interview. "But you don't see well-dressed French women on the street as you do here. You have to find them at a show, reception or party."

The top buyer and vice president of one of this country's most fashionable women's stores was quick to add that Paris is and, she thinks always will be, the world's fashion center. She is a chevalier in the Legion of Honor because of her promotion of French fashions.

Furthermore, her two favorite designers are French—Dior of the startling new line every year, and Balmain, who produces "exquisitely beautiful things—the kind any woman would like to buy if she had the money."

Nevertheless, Miss Fairall—retiring this year after 50 years with Julius Garfinkel & Co.—sticks to her guns on American women being the best dressed. Getting specific, she picks New York, Washington and San Francisco as the cities with the cream of the crop.

She attended her first French showing in Paris in 1911. Since World War II she has been to the Paris fashion shows twice each year.

That's one thing she will keep doing after she retires—"as long as I can climb the gangplank."

Each season's designs "are the most beautiful of all," she said, admitting she is unable to pick a "best" fashion of the past 50 years. Each "is as exciting as opening night at the opera."

She picks the "flapper" fashion as the ugliest—"nothing could have been uglier."

Asked for advice for women who seek the well-turned-out look, Miss Fairall said, "It's not always money that makes a well-dressed woman. It's good taste . . . quality . . . not always fashion. Style may be the important thing."

PHOTOGRAPHY'S THEIR HOBBY

It's a sunny day in Anaheim, time to be outside enjoying it agree the family of Lt. Walter C. Hay. The executive officer of the Marine Barracks aboard the Long Beach Naval Station holds Jerry as Butch

We Welcome

Marine Officer Lands Family in Anaheim

By JEAN MOORE

Judging from the more than 130 families featured in the "We Welcome" series since it began several years ago, the photography business should be a successful venture for anyone wondering what to do with excess capital.

Representing a good cross section of families from everywhere who have settled in the Long Beach area, the features bring out time after time that picture taking is a main family preoccupation.

Falling into the familiar pattern is the handsome family of Lt. and Mrs. Walter C. Hay of Anaheim.

Lt. Hay, now executive officer of the Marine Barracks at the Naval Base, became a slide collector and photo bug when in the Orient. If his family feels they have been to the Philippines, China and Japan, little wonder, for they have seen the slides many times and have heard him amplify on the countries.

The three little Hays, Walter Jr., Alice and Jerry, are his current favorite subjects. Along with Sparky the wire hair terrier, and the new kitten, unnamed, the three youngsters prove lively subjects for a new piece of photography equipment, a motion picture camera.

Mrs. Hay has learned to operate the camera, too. Now their own home movies interest the family more than television or the movies.

Except for a year as a civilian when he was a payroll accountant for a railroad in Seattle, Lt. Hay has served more than 13 years in the Marine Corps. During World War II he saw service in Iceland and action on Guadalcanal, Tarawa and Iwo Jima.

He was awarded the Purple Heart for his action on Iwo Jima and was awarded the Silver Star for the Tarawa encounter.

Born in Seattle, he came to the Long Beach area from 14 months service in Korea. The family lived in San Pedro for several months before taking residence in Anaheim.

While he was in Korea, his wife and children stayed in Milford, Mass., near Mrs. Hay's native Upton. She attended a nurse's school in the east until the war took her to Washington, D. C. where she became a secretary for the Veterans' Administrations and met her future husband.

Sewing for the family home at 726 Elder St. and for her lively youngsters interests her. Should she tire of the sewing machine, there's always that motion picture camera handy!

She might train it on Walter Jr., known to his family and neighborhood as Butch. He's in the second grade at St. Boniface School. Or along might come five year old Alice, who will be a first grader at the school in the fall. And it would be just like year old Gerald Paul—let's call him Jerry—to crawl out in front of the lens and steal the whole scene.

Among Career Women

Exec Secretaries Frolic at Gay Firm Night; Other Clubs Keep Busy Pace

By ANNE GILCHRIST

A bright Lilliputian train, fashioned from cardboard, chugged its way gaily across the head table, clinging in typical Toonerville Trolley pose to the tablecloth when Executives' Secretaries were guests at another of their topnotch "Firm Night" parties—this one hosted by the Southern Pacific Railway Co. in the Supper Room of the Lafayette last Monday evening.

A neon sign flanked the head table announcing that it was the "Friendly Line" in charge and there to greet members, their executives and wives was "Uncle George" Hanson, S. P.'s Los Angeles Passenger Traffic Manager, who long ago was officially adopted as Exec. Secretaries favorite "Uncle."

At tables, festive with big bouquets of bright red carnations, white stock and lilies, the 153 guests of the evening were seated. Among the honored guests welcomed and introduced were Mayor George Vermillion and Mrs. Vermillion, Councilwoman Ruth Bach, Chief of Police William Dovey, whose wife, "Vi," is a past president of E/S; Sue Mucher, president of Los Angeles chapter; Ruby Sorber and Corliss Guy, both past national presidents of Los Angeles chapter, as well as members from Pomona Valley and Orange County chapters. Sybil McFwen of the Long Beach club and national vice president, was specially introduced.

Long Beach chapter president Dorothy Kane was a charming presiding officer, evoking pleased murmurs of approval as she introduced her new "executive," Michael Olson, with whom she announced she would repeat wedding vows Saturday (yesterday).

Adding handsomely to the evening was the appearance of the Southern Pacific's Transporters' group, all employees of the railroad from Los Angeles. The more than 20 members of the group were excellent in several stirring selections.

Margaret Stinson, ways and means chairman, presided over the exciting portion of the evening during which door awards were distributed. Doris Mitchell, E/S program chairman, introduced Faye Stinn, local chapter "Sunshine Lady" and representative for S. P. in the Long Beach chapter, who, in turn, introduced the company's hosts of the evening, including J. H. Pruett of Los Angeles, T. L. Shaffer, Long Beach freight agent, and Mrs. Shaffer, J. R. Leeman of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Baldwin of Long Beach, N. L. Smith of Long Beach, Peter Noise, and, of course, "Uncle George" Hanson.

Erud Atwood, present with Mrs. Atwood, assistant manager of S. P. Public Relations, was program master of ceremonies introducing Dick Mallette at the piano and "Nibs" White, vocalist, as well as the premiere of the colored motion picture, "Men of Vision," showing the development of railroading from 1855 to the present. Of particular interest to this reporter was appearance of Frank Goss, top-flight radio network newscaster, as narrator of the film. Frank is well remembered in Long Beach where he made his home for many years.

Nursery Education Assn.

A charming affair—a dessert installation—will occupy members of the Association for Nursery Education of the Long Beach area when they greet new officers at the Long Beach Art Center June 29. Taking office as chairman for her second term will be Kathryn Mitchell.

Phyllis Hewittson, supervisor of the Los Angeles Child Care program, will be installing officer and taking office with the chairman will be Elizabeth Lieberman, first vice chairman; Lillian Wachman, second vice chairman; Patricia Prichard, corresponding secretary; Ruth Albers, corresponding secretary, and Astrid Archer, treasurer.

Most honored guest of the day will be Josephine O. Burgess, director of the Long Beach Child Care program, who was just recently installed president of the Association for Nursery Education, Southern Section. She is also the advisor of the ANE of Long Beach.

Another honored guest will be Barbara Shirley, who was installed as corresponding secretary of ANE Southern Section with Mrs. Burgess. Mrs. Shirley is also a past chairman of Long Beach ANE.

Helen Hayden is in charge of decorations for the festive installation party and will use a "Vacation Days" theme with interesting scenes of various vacation spots centering the coffee tables.

Margaret Ives BPW

Last formal meeting until September of Margaret Ives Business and Professional Women's Club took place Monday at the Lafayette Hotel with president Hazel Hamilton conducting the meeting and Miss Joan Allen, chairman of girls' activities, in charge of the program.

Gene Bishop, principal of John Dewey High School, was guest speaker, outlining policies and practices of the school, which vary from the other schools of the city because most of the students are employed part of the day. Club members were deeply interested, particularly in Bishop's remarks concerning how best Margaret Ives, sponsors of the Business Girls' Club at Dewey, can plan an effective program for the coming year. Miss Jennie Mae Whitfield, talented young pianist from the Abraham Lincoln School, was warmly applauded for her numbers.

Members were reminded of the important program for officers and chairmen conducted yesterday in the Lafayette Hotel by the Los Angeles Sierra Mar District.

Desk and Derrick

Dr. Manuel Mayuga, principal geologist of the Long Beach Harbor Dept., chose as his topic, "Petroleum Geology in the Long Beach Harbor Area" for his appearance recently before members of Desk and Derrick Club of Long Beach in the Supper Room of the Lafayette. A 1938 graduate from the Institute of Technology in Manila, the speaker received his master's degree in geology from the University of Arizona in 1940 and his Ph. D. in 1942, also from Arizona. Dr. Mayuga planned and supervised the geophysical seismic survey which was conducted in the offshore area last year, serving as operations advisor and the city's representative. In addition to his technical, but nonetheless absorbing remarks, he showed illustrative slides taken during the survey. Mrs. Beryl Hagens, also with the Harbor Dept., was evening's program chairman and Jean Kasper, president, conducted the meeting.

Legal Secretaries

A new year began for Long Beach Legal Secretaries when they met under the able leadership of their new president, Ruth Stuart, Friday for dinner and business discussion at Currie's Santa Fe Restaurant. Marvin E. C. Kogler, public relations representative of the Metropolitan News, was speaker of the evening and in addition to his remarks, members were entertained by the "Four Saints" barbershop quartet.

Hostesses for the evening were Eunice Snyder, Jean McGinty and Evelyn Firkey. At the executive board meeting preceding dinner, Miss McGinty was hostess to the directors in her home.

Heirloom Lace Used in Bride's Ensemble

The nostalgic loveliness of heirloom lace complemented the bridal attire of Alice Elizabeth Jackson of 3516 E. Third St. when she became the bride of Richard Lansing Geer, son of Dr. and Mrs. Willard Geer, 4519 Pepperwood Ave., in a recent afternoon ceremony at Belmont Heights Methodist Church. Dr. Grover C. Bagby officiated.

The bride's original gown of dawn pink organdy was topped with a bolero trimmed in princess point lace made by the bridegroom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Edward L. Wells, for her sister's wedding 50 years ago. Her veil of pale pink nylon tulle cascaded from a tiara of rose point lace bought in Switzerland for the bridegroom's mother. The bride carried a cascade of pink roses and a stephanotis centered with a white orchid. Mrs. Marvin C. Prichard as matron of honor was gown in mint green organdy over tulle and wore a braided organdy bandeau in her hair. Bridesmaids, Gretchen Grondahl of Portland, Ore.; Laurie Jo Wells of Seattle, Wash., and Violet Choi of Seoul, Korea, were gowned alike in pink organdy and tulle, with pink braided bandeaus in their hair. Each of the bridal attendants carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Charles Willard Geer III attended his brother as best man, and guests were seated by Loren Krueger, John Skoog and Gerald Rusk.

A reception followed in Wesley Hall at the church with the bride's mother, Mrs. Edith Roberts Jackson of Chicago, Ill., as hostess, assisted by Mrs. Edna L. Myers and Misses Evelyn Myers, Marilyn Arrey and Margie Naylor.

The newlyweds will make their home in Seattle, Wash., on July 1 following a honeymoon tour of California and Oregon coastal resorts.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Jackson of Chicago and Oscar L. Jackson of Dundee, Ore., attended Willamette University in Salem, Ore., and is a graduate of Long Beach State

Hanni Madsen Is Bride of Gary Minnis

First Methodist Church, site of their original meeting, was the romantic setting for the recent marriage of Hanni D. Madsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Madsen of Copenhagen, Denmark, and Gary R. Minnis, son of Mrs. Estel Minnis, 1217 Cedar Ave. and the late Charles B. Minnis. Rev. George Grose officiated at the double ring service.

The bride, whose birthplace was New York, returned with her parents to their native Denmark at the age of 2. She was educated there in Copenhagen High School and returned to the United States two and a half years ago to visit with her uncle, Art Schultz, in Boron, Calif. She met her future husband through the Sunday School class at First Methodist Church, and plans were made for their marriage on his return from a 16-month tour of duty in Korea with the Army.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, was charmingly gowned in ballerina length white Chantilly lace and nylon net over satin. Her shoulder length veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a pair of white orchids with white roses and satin streamers.

Joyce Derr, maid of honor, was gowned in blue net over tulle and carried pink carnations. Richard Anderson Jr. was best man and Ed Farrell ushered.

A reception followed in the church living room. The newlyweds honeymooned at Santa Barbara and now are making their home at 1217 Cedar Ave., Apt. 12.

The bridegroom, a grandson of Mrs. Winifred Minnis of Long Beach, was graduated from Polytechnic High School.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kerr, 3956 John Ave., wore a dress of pink nylon tulle with overskirt of imported Chantilly lace and brief train. Sequin trim accented the scoop-neckline bodice. A blush-pink cap caught her sequin-trimmed veil.

A shell-pink gown with bouffant chiffon skirt and ribbon lace bodice was worn by the matron of honor, Mrs. Virginia Barker, sister of the bride. Similarly gowned in shopping sense

by Lisa Towne

The Anglo-Saxons used to call June the "mild midsummer month." Obviously, they hadn't heard about Long Beach. Summer has really arrived, and we're glad of it. We've picked out just a few of the many summer items for you that are designed to appeal to the tempo of Southern California living.

Make this Sunday a memorable one. Relax and enjoy a gourmet's delight of French cuisine at ERNIE GLASER'S CHANDLER, 4205 Atlantic Avenue. The Continental Dinner, with some selections served on flaming swords, is served from noon to midnight, with prices from $2.25.

The installing team from Santa Ana included Miss Margaret Young, institute deputy, as installing officer; Miss Irene Sanders as installing marshal; Miss Ethel Ocipa as guardian of the cross; and Mrs. C. R. Giubino as guardian of the flag.

Immaculate Institute No. 129 of Long Beach elected new officers in a recent meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Harold J. Hainley. Elected were Mrs. Theresa Hatcher, president; Miss Sheila Ryan, first vice president; Mrs. Earl Cather, second vice president; Miss Alice Jacobs, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert McConnell, financial secretary; Miss Joan Schuman, treasurer; Miss Barbara Rogers, marshal; Mrs. Pat Miller, inside sentinel; Mrs. Delbert Thompson, outside sentinel; Mrs. Mary Rose Kawarata, organist; and Mrs. Frank Vaughn, Miss Bernice Wehrley, Miss Lee Kaver, Mrs. Virginia Smith and Mrs. Joe Hammer, trustees.

Installation of the officers will take place July 14 with Mrs. Frank Vaughn as chairman, assisted by Maxine McCleer, co-chairman.

Small bridal treasures will find a handsome home on three-tiered hanging wall shelves, in Provincial, Salem maple or Bristol mahogany, available at ROGERS FURNITURE CO., 4342 Atlantic Avenue. From Dootch & Bower of Grand Rapids, the shelves are $14.95 to $41.50, according to size.

Lightweight, comfortable and trim is this Magic Shank shoe at JACOB'S QUALITY FOOTWEAR, 5018 East Second St. in Belmont Shore. Most flexible shoe in simple white, red, tan, black or blue calf, or black suede, priced at $14.95.

To retain their beauty furs must be properly cleaned, glazed and stored. LOCKWOOD FURS, 711 Pine, will protect and insure your furs this summer in humidity-controlled cold storage vaults on their premises. Call for an estimate.

One of the world's finest watches, Mathey-Tissot, winner of the Grand Prix and 500 observatory honors, is now available exclusively at MAX-FAIR JEWELS, 3806 Atlantic Avenue. Both men's and women's lines begin as low as $125.

One of the most important purchases the June bride makes in her home planning is the selection of a mattress that will offer comfort and quality construction. ACME MATTRESS, 3415 East Anaheim, leading manufacturer of custom styling since 1932, suggests that brides come in and inspect the new dream of a Queen Size mattress that measures 60"x80". Headboards are also available for this rest-well, sleep-well Queen Size mattress by ACME.

Whether you're starting a home or revamping the old, TIB-BETT'S WALLPAPER CO., 957 Pine, has 14,800 leading wallpaper patterns and 3,000 custom colors. Bring a fabric, paper or paint chip to test at the color bar in any lighting.

Mrs. David Weisbly

Vivian Spitz Attractive Bride of David Weisbly

Lakewood Country Club was the setting for the marriage of Vivian Spitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Spitz, 261 Nieto Ave., and David Weisbly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Weisbly, 4441 Lakewood Blvd. The double ring ceremony was led by Rabbi I. Shalom Havetch and witnessed by 400 guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charmingly gowned in a Cahill original of white satin, fashioned with an off-the-shoulder neckline, satin tunic, and overskirt of pleated nylon tulle. The nine-foot train was edged in Italian lace with the lace duplicated on the satin cap which held in place a veil of fingertip length illusion. She wore a string of pearls at her throat, a gift of her bridegroom, and carried a white pearl Bible on which rested a large white orchid surrounded by smaller orchids.

Mrs. Robert Kronick, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore a gown of pink crystalline trimmed with matching French lace and carried a bouquet of white and turquoise carnations. Bridesmaids, Mrs. Lanny Cohen and Misses Johanna Boam, Abby Gratz, and Rhoda Moss, were gowned in turquoise crystalline and carried bouquets of pink and white carnations. Cynthia and Janice Kronick served their aunt as flowergirls.

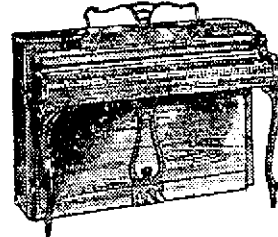

Attending the bridegroom as best man was Robert Rosenberg, and guests were seated by Robert Kronick, Lanny Cohen, Sidney Bloom and Sheldon Geller.

A reception followed at the club with Miss Jackie Grand in charge of the guestbook. Following a honeymoon trip to Northern California, Lake Tahoe and Las Vegas, the newlyweds will make their home at 1934 Cedar Ave.

The new Mrs. Weisbly was graduated from Wilson High School where she was an affiliate of Phi Beta Gamma sorority. Her bridegroom, recently was discharged from the Army Paratroopers.

The Towne Club will be the attractive setting on Tuesday, June 28 for a summer luncheon party for wives of officers attached to the Destroyer Squadron Three group. Hostess for the event will be Mrs. J. H. Rayburn assisted by wives of officers attached to the USS L. S. Mason.

Comdr. and Mrs. J. M. Ireland were delightful hosts at a cocktail gathering at their home for Capt. Dale E. Collins, commanding officer of the USS Manchester and Mrs. Collins, Capt. and Mrs. Ferris W. Thompson, and Comdr. and Mrs. John E. Wicks, Jr. The Irelands entertained later at dinner and dancing at the Officers Club for their guests.

Comdr. and Mrs. Robert Slach had as their recent house guests from Dallas, Texas retired folks, Comdr. and Mrs. Clark Dunn, who were en route to San Francisco to visit their daughter.

Down from Los Gatos to see their many former service friends in this area were Comdr. and Mrs. John Page, now retired.

Friday was the day for a tea at the Officers Club at the Long Beach Air Force Base given by the retiring leaders of the Officers Wives Club of the Long Beach Air Force Base for their successors. The retiring president, Mrs. Robert Hutto welcomed Mrs. William Palmer as the new presiding officer.

Pam, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Leo May has as her house guest from Mare Island Jane Ann Mason, daughter of Comdr. and Mrs. H. C. Mason.

The Stork has been busy flying among the Air Force folks and made a stop at the home of Major and Mrs. George Turpin leaving a nine pound baby girl, who was welcomed by two little brothers.

Then he made a two point landing at the home of Lt. and Mrs. Charles Hall with twin future aviators, who weighed in at seven pounds and 13 ounces and seven pounds 12 ounces.

And speaking of babies, it was a great day for the Irish when Ensign and Mrs. James D. Reilly welcomed a red headed blue eyed young man, Timothy Patrick Reilly, who proudly tipped the beginning scales at seven pounds and 15 ounces. The father, Ensign Reilly has really loaded "all hands" on the USS Reaper with cigars, announcing, "It's a Boy."

A Matter Demanding Truth

DEAR MRS. MAYFIELD:

Please don't turn me down since you're the only one I can turn to. I am 23 years old and have met a nice fellow who wants to marry me.

Now this is the problem. In our conversation he always mentions that he is mad about children and wants a family when we marry. Well, I love children, too, but I have a physical defect which makes it impossible for me to have children. I hint of adoption, but he says he wants his own. He thinks it's just fear of childbirth that is holding me back, because I haven't dared tell him I can't have children.

I want so badly to marry him. I hate the thought of going on year after year alone. Yet, if I tell him he might not want to marry me, I'm so terribly torn. I even wonder if I would be a good wife.

I hope you understand the seriousness of this problem because I must make up my mind soon what I'm to do. I could marry him and tell him later of course, but would that be fair?

I do need help.—F.N.B.

DEAR F.N.B.:

I'm sure you know as well as I do that it would be terribly wrong to marry this man, or any man for that matter, without telling him you can't have children.

Suppose for instance the case was reversed and you looked forward more than anything to settling down and raising a family, and after you married, your husband confessed that he was sterile. Wouldn't you resent his not having told you before? Wouldn't you resent his not having given you the chance to marry him in the face of this, or not marry him?

I'm sure your boy friend would feel this way, too. Actually the only honest thing you can do is tell him. I'm sure that deep down you really know this.—M.M.

Is Separation the Answer to Dying Love?

DEAR MRS. MAYFIELD:

I have been married for five years and have three children. The years have been fairly happy ones except that hanging over me was always the knowledge that my husband married me because he had to.

He loves the children very much, brings home a pay check every week, and has only hit me once when I threw a tantrum (not that he hasn't wanted to other times). However, he has slowly killed all my love for him by the many mean things he says to me, and by his frequent streaks of indifference.

He accuses me of being frigid, and I know I am really not; it's just that it's impossible to be responsive to someone who never really acts as though he loves me. I've tried to get him to talk to my doctor but he refuses, and I've tried to get him to talk to a marriage counselor. As a matter of fact, he won't even discuss our problem with me, although I have tried repeatedly to get him to.

I have been so upset lately that I told my mother and father about the trouble between us. They were no help at all, though, and seemed to resent my "complaining."

The children love him very much and I would hate to see our home broken on their account. But how can I go on this way, hating for him to touch me because I know that he does not really love me.

I've often thought of taking the children and leaving. I have a profession whereby I could support us. What point is there in going on with both of us growing farther apart every day? There's no chance our marriage can last as things are going now — but WHAT CAN I DO?—LAST RESORT.

DEAR LAST RESORT:

I always hesitate to suggest separation as an answer—but sometimes there is really no other way to turn. Sometimes separation can be a solution—though it is a dangerous means to an end.

Right now, though, you can see your marriage falling to pieces bit by bit, day by day. Maybe it would be worth a try if you and your husband did try living apart for awhile. Maybe this would give you both a clearer perspective of just who is most in the wrong —and whaters.

Maybe you would come to appreciate things about your husband that you're too close to appreciate now, and maybe he would also see you in another focus. At least, with things fast going from bad to worse, a trial separation might be worth a try.—M.M.

Universal Military Training Is Major Issue Today

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case O-360: Harlan D., 35, is a high school principal.

"Dr. Crane, what do you psychologists think about U.M.T.?" Harlan began. "Many of my high school boys are worried and uncertain about their future because of the continuing draft."

"It demoralizes them in many ways. In fact, I think much of our current juvenile delinquency is due to the threat of military conscription that hangs over the heads of all American boys."

"So what would Universal Military Training do to our youth?"

There are obviously two sides to such a major issue as the proper way to protect the United States from outside military aggression.

Many people, especially those who have made the Army or Navy their lifetime career, are ardent advocates of Universal Military Training for all American boys.

Others feel that the coercive or forced induction of all boys is not the American way of doing things.

Instead, they suggest that a military career be "sold" to boys on its merits, just as law or medicine or business.

They say the military "brass" just want big armies and navies in order to maintain their own officer status and higher pay.

This topic should make an ideal debate subject for our high school and college debating teams this coming year. The military minded folks argue that we need vast armies of recruits to defend America.

"Against what?" retort those opposed to U.M.T. "If America, with the strongest fleet and air arm in the world, finds it impractical to ship vast armies abroad, how can Russia or any other possible future foe, place vast armies on American soil?"

"Besides," they add, "if this is to be an atomic war, why waste our money training millions of boys to trudge on drill fields and carry puny little rifles?"

The militarists, however, argue that it requires previously trained armies to defend a nation.

"How about Germany and Japan?" reply those who oppose U.M.T. "They insisted on forced conscription of men. They trained their boys to goose-step, yet our self-reliant Americans beat German soldiers in two world wars."

Psychologists are pretty well in agreement that America needs to be strong, but whether conscription of teen-agers on a universal and forced service basis, is the proper answer, is subject to doubt.

Recently the Council of Bishops of the Methodist Church voted strongly to oppose U. M. T.

Labor union leaders and college heads and most of the clergy are likewise heavily opposed, for they feel the idea of compulsion is repugnant to America's entire tradition, at least in peace times.

"But it does boys a lot of good to get away from home and to be thrown on their own resources," many folks maintain.

That is quite true, but college will do the same thing with much less emphasis on vulgarity, sexual immorality and the coarser all-male environment.

It's not good psychology to segregate men away from the cultural and moral influences of their parents, sisters and other refining influences.

Jet pilots and scientists are the best defense of the future. Adequate pay incentive should attract plenty of topnotch men for such officer training.

Meanwhile, the National Guard of each state, plus the Boy Scouts, can handle the usual need for foot-soldiering, which is largely an obsolete concept in this atomic age if we mind our own business and wage only defensive wars in the future.

Community Should Share in Planning New Schools

By ANGELO PATRI

We are going to have a lot of new school buildings. That is fine, for we need them acutely. What sort of buildings will we get? Who is going to decide that and who is to build them?

These are important questions for the community in which the new building will rise. If the whole matter is left to the usual authorities without reference and without conference between them and the leading members of the school community, strange things will happen — as they have in the past. The new building may be placed in the wrong spot. Somebody who knows somebody may have just the right lot for it, and that lot may be just the wrong one for the convenience of the school community.

What kind of building and what sort of equipment? Again, the community needs should decide, but unless residents bestir themselves and make themselves heard before the first spade ceremonies are held, they may be surprised by what they get.

What will be the building cost? Will it cost so much that there will be no money to staff it effectively? This must be studied before the contracts are let. The quality of the teachers is what decides the effectiveness of the school. The teacher is the school. If the building is first-rate and the teachers third-rate, there will be no school in the meaning of the word. The building can be first-rate within the budget, only if it allows for first-rate teachers. The simple functional building with a good play space is what is needed.

In my experience, a committee of citizens of the community—each having children who will attend the school—should be appointed as watchdogs of the project. They should serve from the start of the proceedings to the opening day. This committee should be composed of businessmen, parents, and at least two mothers.

There is a notion that building the school, staffing and running it is the sole right of a few men, usually the Board of Education. Because the parents of the school children are busy people, the boards become autocratic, take on an aloof authoritative air, and frighten away the parents whose interest in the school is keen.

What is needed is an alert parents' group which would appoint a school committee to co-operate with the local board, to listen, to discuss, to present their ideas, to watch from the time the contract is let until the flag rises on opening day. Schools are parents' business and parents should attend to them.

Donnell V. Davis

Chef of the Week

Donnell Davis a Master of the Crepes Suzette

By MILDRED K. FLANARY
Independent Press-Telegram Home Economics Editor

This picture was taken "after." He now balances the scales at 200. The "before" shot of Chef of the Week Donnell V. Davis would have evidenced another 60 pounds, evenly distributed.

A native of our fair city, Don chose not to follow in the footsteps of his banker Dad and second "chef" to grace this column, Julian Davis, but chose the department store classification instead. He serves as credit manager and assistant secretary at Buffums. Fact is, he returned to the environment which had provided his first paycheck. His summers and vacations while in school were spent wrapping packages and working in the marking room at Buffums.

After graduating from Wilson High and Notre Dame with a degree in accounting and business law, Davis found himself sailing the blue Pacific as a lieutenant in the U. S. Navy. World War II was in progress.

Completing a three-year tour of the far east, Don was returned to Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass. for further study. It was there that he also took his degree in matrimony; and he and Barbara returned to Long Beach to make their home.

A downtown Kiwanian, a golfer of parts, Don is jovial, genial, a fine host... and he REALLY loves to cook. Today he's involved in Crepes Suzette.

Durham, program; Clayton Barrie, printing; Margaret Woodruff, parliamentarian; Dala Dougherty, meet certificate; Romaine Preuss, California Plan; and Helen T. Wilkerson, recitals.

Excitement Is Upsetting

By MILTON I. LEVINE, M.D. and JEAN H. SELIGMAN

(Q) "For the past few years my four-year-old daughter has been tossing, turning and screaming out in her sleep each night. She throws herself around so violently that there are black-and-blue marks on her body from the sides of her crib. The least stimulation, such as playing with other children or a visit from her grandmother, makes it worse. Will this wear off without treatment? What do you suggest?"—Mrs. E. B.

A. This kind of behavior which you describe is more than just restless sleeping. Your little girl evidently has what we call night terrors. These are usually caused by some emotional upset or fears of some sort.

Night terrors often occur between the ages of about two and six, and it is often hard to find out the precise cause of them. Sometimes they are due to fear of being alone in the dark, sometimes they are due to anxiety or tension.

Try to make her bedtime especially soothing and calming. Quiet reading or singing often help relax an over-stimulated youngster. A warm drink just before going to sleep is quieting to the nerves. See that she doesn't have any excitement for several hours before retiring. Leave the door open a little and keep a small light on in the room or just outside it. Sometimes children feel reassured if they are given a flashlight to take to bed with them.

If these suggestions do not help, speak to your physician about giving her a sedative for just a short time. This sometimes helps break a pattern. If you find no improvement at all after several months, we would suggest that you seek help from a person trained in psychological matters. You stated in your letter that there was no children's clinic in your community, so that you may have to investigate the possibilities in a large community near you.

All questions possible will be answered through this column. Send them to Child Care in care of Long Beach Press-Telegram.

Marie Geers, past president, will be installing officer. Others to serve with Mrs. Daniels are Vera Tripp, vice president; Theresa Davis, secretary-treasurer; Thelma Verant, chairman; Harriet Miller, inside secretary; Betty Garrels, Mildred McEwen, Marion Meinert and Evelyn Guslinian, board of trustees.

Bob Bigelow, president of the Plumbers Local, will be guest speaker. Arrangements for the evening are being made by Lois Burdett, Leona McCray and Marion Meinert.

Bay Yacht Club Schedules Fourth of July Regatta

With the Honolulu yacht races start set for July 4, Alamos Bay Yacht Club's annual Fourth of July Regatta-July 2-3-4 will use the Hawaiian motif for the decor of the clubhouse at next Saturday night's barbecue dinner.

Stuart Graham, entertainment chairman, has appointed Leeway Sailing Club, Mike Garrison, commodore, to serve for the event, with Miss Sue Exley as chairman. Assisting her will be the Misses Jody Biby, Marilyn Akin and Jo Garverick and Tom Ramsey. Plans include gay island shirts for the sailors and dresses for the sailorettes.

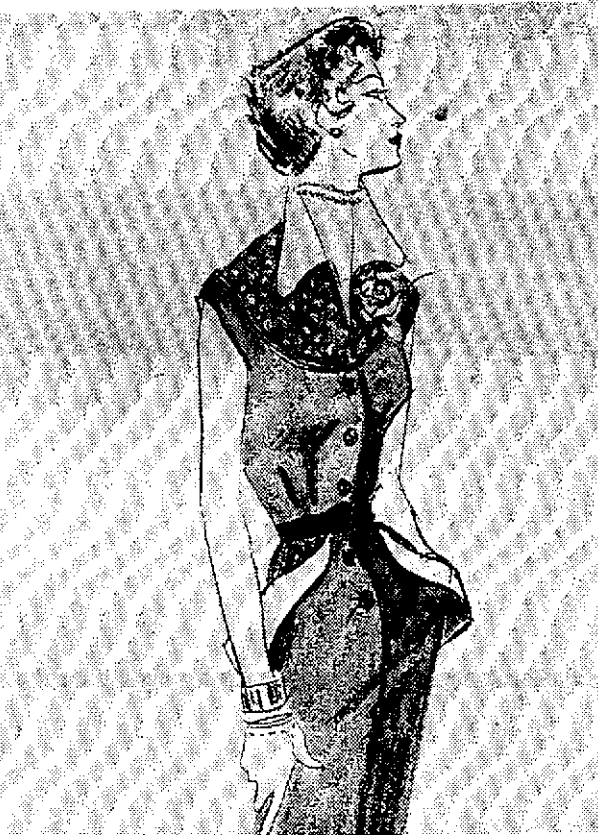

Following the "Bring Your Own Food" dinner which will be cooked to a turn by amateur chefs on a battery of blazing barbecues, records of dance music will be played by the junior group.

Stimulating interest in this year's Honolulu races is the club's first entry, Frank Wade's Diable, which will fly the club's burgee. Former Commodore Llewellyn Bixby Jr. will sail on Bill Zinsmeyer's Bagatelle and Frank Person on Gabe Gianini's Marie Emelie. Their wives will fly to Honolulu to greet them at the docks.

Commodore John A. Graye and Mrs. Graye and Vice Commodore Jack T. Reid and Mrs. Reid will be on deck during the three-day regatta to greet the members.

Insomnia Troubles? Try This Advice

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Everyone needs a certain amount of sleep but many folks have a difficult time getting it. Either they have trouble going to sleep or sleep restlessly. Then, of course, there are those lucky souls who drop asleep almost before their mouths close after saying the last word, and sleep as though dead until the alarm goes off the next morning.

When we sleep our breathing slows down and becomes deeper, our pulse slows also, and our blood pressure drops. This is the body's time for rest and repair.

If we have good health and only a reasonable share of the world's worries we should have no trouble sleeping. However, if you are one of the thousands of insomniacs, as evidenced by the tremendous sale of sleeping pills, here are a few suggestions for you:

Physical surroundings can make a great difference in the quality of sleep you get. Too much noise, too hard or too soft a mattress, too much light, too little or too much fresh air, too light or too heavy covering, all of these can ruin your sleep.

Too little exercise is another main cause of sleeplessness. Many people fail to realize this. A brisk walk or gardening or golf or swimming, are splendid sleep inducers.

A light, easily digested snack just before retiring helps many folks get to sleep. A few crackers and a glass of warm milk, a cup of soup or some other such item can be most effective. This draws blood from the brain to the stomach.

Then, too, be sure that you slow way down before you retire. Don't brake suddenly to a halt and expect to sleep right away. Take time to drop the cares and tensions of the day before going to bed.

Another rule—do not worry if you don't get to sleep right away. This expectancy and fear of not sleeping can be most damaging. Often people have a little period of restlessness and would have returned to their good sleeping habits except that they expected to have trouble luring shuteye.

If you cannot go to sleep get up and read a book or look out the window or play the radio softly. Yawn. Stretch. Relax. Do not remain in bed to toss and fret.

Probably the very best way in the world to get to sleep is to read an unexciting book which is supposed to be good for one.

If you would like to have my leaflet "Shuteye" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 34 to Josephine Lowman in care of the Press-Telegram.

This feature runs daily in the Press-Telegram.

Lanolin Plus Liquid Make-Up

You will be startled when you see yourself—your friends will be startled when they see YOU—and how envious they will be!

And now comes a truly new liquid make-up that virtually wipes from your face the things you don't want to see. LANOLIN PLUS Liquid Make-Up really covers. Those tiny lines and imperfections you so thoroughly hate, vanish from sight. So amazing is the covering power of this heavenly liquid, you could, if you wished, use a shade lighter than your own skin and still have a perfect new-skin look. But it does two more beauty wonders for you:

1. It instantly imparts a kind of youth-giving radiance that is completely new. That is because all its shades are the living colors of young skin. They look alive. The living shade most flattering to you is easy to find, too, as you will discover when you see them all.

2. LANOLIN PLUS Liquid Make-Up containing pure LANOLIN PLUS Liquid helps to soften and smooth your skin every minute you wear it.

Imagine a make-up that not only gives you the appearance of having instantly grown a new, flawless and younger-looking skin, but that also makes skin softer feeling and smoother looking. $1 plus tax wherever cosmetics are sold. Indeed, there is nothing in all the world like LANOLIN PLUS Liquid Make-Up. It is a complete make-up in itself, or the identically matching shade of LANOLIN PLUS "POWDER-PLUS" may be used over it for a completely matte finish.

Lanolin Plus "Powder-Plus"

Instantly your skin seems touched with flattering candlelight Even in Brightest Daylight

If you crave a new kind of softer, more romantic look—no matter what the hour, this sensational new pressed face powder is for you. New LANOLIN PLUS "POWDER-PLUS" is exactly what its name implies... beauty plus. By absorbing instead of reflecting light, new LANOLIN PLUS "POWDER-PLUS" acts as candlelight acts—it flatters your skin, instead of accentuating little lines and "crow's feet." Instantly your skin seems bathed in candlelight!

But more... all the while you are wearing LANOLIN PLUS "POWDER-PLUS" your skin, underneath, is basking in the rich, continuing benefits of the LANOLIN PLUS Liquid this new pressed powder contains. If your skin is such that you don't need a foundation, you'll find LANOLIN PLUS "POWDER-PLUS" a really beautiful complete make-up. If however, your skin needs more coverage, use the identically matching shade of LANOLIN PLUS Liquid Make-Up as a base. LANOLIN PLUS "POWDER-PLUS" comes in a lovely-to-see compact with puff and mirror to complete the picture. $1.25 plus tax, wherever cosmetics are sold.

Both these make-ups contain skin softening Lanolin Plus Liquid

LANOLIN PLUS Liquid is probably the most quickly effective skin softener ever created. Its presence in both LANOLIN PLUS Liquid Make-Up and LANOLIN PLUS "POWDER-PLUS" makes either of these two make-ups perfect for either dry or normal skin. If you do have dry skin, do THIS:

Apply a tiny bit of penetrating LANOLIN PLUS Liquid to your skin before retiring and tissue away the excess. When you awaken tomorrow morning and see and feel your skin, you will believe that an angel had touched your face with a magic wand while you slept. All skin dryness will be gone and you'll find your dry skin worries will be over as long as you continue using LANOLIN PLUS Liquid regularly. $1 plus tax, wherever cosmetics are sold.

Remember, there is only one genuine LANOLIN PLUS!

Second Line of Offense
Rewarding

Imagine that you're playing today's hand at the very normal contract of six spades. How do you choose the best line of play for the contract? The defenders take the ace of diamonds and then return a diamond, leaving it up to you to win the rest of the tricks. You have two possible losers in hearts. You might try a heart finesse, or you might play the top hearts in the hope of dropping the queen. You might lead a low club from your hand to finesse the queen, planning to discard a heart on the ace of clubs. Or you might take the ace of clubs and lead the queen of clubs through East as a ruffing finesse. Instead of taking any finesse, you might discard hearts from the dummy on the queen and jack of diamonds and then ruff out your losing hearts.

Here are five different lines of play, all fairly reasonable. How do you pick the best line of play?

It usually pays to work out a combination of two plays, so that you can switch to some other attempt if the first one doesn't work.

You can't adopt a finesse as your first try, for the finesse may lose and defeat you at once. Hence you must try to ruff out the hearts, with a club finesse in reserve as your second line of attack.

When East returns a diamond at the second trick, you win with the jack and discard a heart from dummy. You then draw three rounds of trumps.

Now you cash the queen of diamonds, discarding a second heart from the dummy, after which you take the ace and king of hearts. If the defenders follow to both rounds of hearts, only one heart will be out. You get to your hand by ruffing a club (after taking dummy's ace), ruff one heart in dummy, and your hand is good.

If the hearts break badly, however, you are still in position to take a club finesse as a second try for the slam. You thus have two bites out of the apple instead of only one.

Social Life in Lakewood Shows Infinite Variety in Summer Plans, Projects, Parties

By BERNICE ARRENDEN

School vacations are now with us, and just like the students they teach, the teachers make plans to enjoy the summer months as well as make good use of them by attending extra classes at nearby colleges. Many teachers even think painting their homes is a good way to spend the summer.

At the Roosevelt school in Lakewood, three teachers became brides as soon as school was over and after short honeymoon trips, they plan to use the summer vacations keeping up their new homes. Wanda Northcutt was married on June 18, Benita Bracewell and Jan Schweser are now brides. Miss Schweser, who teaches music, is spending the summer learning to write Jan Schwartz. Elizabeth Minnick is visiting our California Redwoods and then will go on to Pittsburgh, Pa., to see her family. Mary Louise Kirk is seeing Colorado and San Francisco. Nancy LeCorre has gone home to Texas to be with her folks. Gene Sutton is attending Mills College. Lyn Davis will be teaching in our summer school, then will go to Washington to see a new namesake niece. John Marsh just wasn't sure what he would do because his wife hadn't advised him as yet. Bob Ford, the very likeable new assistant principal, will work at the summer school, then paint his home. Bob Bremer plans to build a barn. Ronald W. Brown, shop teacher, will attend Long Beach State College to work on a master's degree in the field of industrial arts. Then he is planning on a vacation. William Krueger, P. E. teacher, will attend Long Beach State first session, then Whittier College for the second session. After school he will be working for the Little Lake Recreation Department. In August he will leave for Fresno as he has a contract to teach at Clovis High.

Norman East is attending Long Beach State and plans to visit in Utah for two or three weeks. Joe Allen left last Friday for Salt Lake City, Utah, and registered at the University of Utah on Monday. John Dawson is vacationing at Yosemite. Joseph Ferrera is vacationing at Yosemite and Sequoia National Park. John Bartrug just plans to travel. Martha Seibel will take short trips to spots of interest besides giving her home a new look inside and out. And Clara L. Bateman thinks she will do the same.

Over across Clark Ave. at the Wilson Elementary School, Mrs. Elizabeth Cahn will be the principal of summer school to be held there. In addition she is entertaining her mother, Mrs. W. G. Porter and a nephew, William Lawrence, who will be with her all summer from Roanoke, Va. Shirley Johnson will visit many points of interest in California this year. Jean Fonner plans to relax at the beach and attend State College. Bernard Ravin takes his teaching so seriously that he is teaching at a private reading clinic in Long Beach this summer. Margaret Grimm will teach summer school, then vacation at Grand Junction, Colo. Jack Voigt will attend USC.

On Saturday, a bon voyage party was held for Dr. Margaret Louise Orear at her home, 5832 Blackthorne Ave. She soon will be leaving for Europe. It was a double celebration as the sixth birthday of Miss Barbara Scott was also noted.

Guests for the day were Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Scott of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Orear and son Steven of Rosemead, Margaret Louise's mother, Mrs. Leatha C. Orear of Glendale, Charlotte Stephenson, Marsha Lynn and Robert Sutherland.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack F. Dennis, 5640 Snowden Ave., is Mrs. Dennis' mother, Mrs. Cleve Ferguson of Porterville. While she is here on an extended trip she will also enjoy visiting at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. C. R. March of Wilmington. The biggest attraction, though, will be with the March children, her great-grandchildren Barry and Carla.

A farewell party for the Rev. and Mrs. Henry Coray and a birthday party for 17-year-old Gary Aldcroft was celebrated at the Richard B. Aldcroft home Saturday evening. A specially prepared dinner was served to the honorees and to Marilyn Crowford, Bonnie Omohundra of Bellflower and Dick Aldcroft.

The Rev. Coray has been a minister in Long Beach at the Orthodox Presbyterian Church for the past 14 years. He is leaving to take a church in the San Francisco area. Previous to his Long Beach assignment, he was a missionary in northern China and was forced to leave for safety reasons.

Shrine Meeting

Nazareth Shrine No. 8, White Shrine of Jerusalem, will convene Monday at 7:30 p. m. in Town Hall. Betty Martin will be chairman for the evening. New officers will preside.

Playtime for Thousands

By Harry Trego

THOUSANDS of eager youngsters, their happy faces beaming anticipation, will launch the long-awaited summer recreation program tomorrow morning at 67 playgrounds in Long Beach, Lakewood, Signal Hill and Avalon.

Promptly at 9 o'clock Old Glory will be hoisted to the peak of each playground flagpole. Young voices will pledge allegiance to the Flag.

And then a mighty shout will arise as children scramble for the baseball diamonds, game rooms and to sign up for the myriad special events which will be featured during the nine-week program.

Sponsoring the summer fun are the Recreation Department and the Long Beach public school district.

Veteran playground directors will be on duty daily at 48 public school and 19 municipal playgrounds. All summer recreation activities will have adult, professional supervision.

Presiding over the elaborate program which will provide thrills to thousands of children is Walter J. Scott, co-ordinator of school and municipal recreation.

WHILE ACTION will be heavy on the playground front, the land areas by no means constitute the entire summer program.

There will be free swimming and boating lessons at Alamitos Bay, free swimming lessons at Colorado Lagoon, thrilling visits to two day camps — boys at Camp Sea Hawk on Marine Stadium, and girls at Camp Woodland, close to the north shore of Colorado Lagoon.

Supervised social recreation also is planned for the Poly Hutch Canteen and the Jordan Hi-Teen Canteen.

The three beautiful swimming pools at Jordan, Wilson and Polytechnic High Schools also will be open for summer use by youngsters and adults.

Looming on the activity horizon are exciting all-city contests — basketball, flag football, playground "Olympic Games," girls' playdays, beach outings, hikes in the mountains, bicycle races, paddle tennis and ping pong, volleyball and special attention to playground softball and regulation hardball.

HUNDREDS OF BOYS and girls will compete in playground softball leagues. Games will be played at scheduled times. The entire city-wide playground softball program climaxes with the playground "World Series" in August at Recreation Park.

All playground league games and contests are designed to accommodate boys in four different age groupings, the youngest lads competing in the Class D leagues, the oldest in Class A.

Girls compete in junior and senior leagues.

Veteran play directors will be on duty at all participating areas. Emphasis will be placed on wholesome playground activities with sportsmanship and team co-operation being stressed.

Lessons of democratic, self-government will be learned through the agency of the time-tested Playground Leaders Council.

EACH LOCAL PLAYGROUND will elect its own playground council. Two delegates from the various local councils will meet in Bixby Park to form an all-city playground council. The all-city group assists in the scheduling and direction of the city-wide playground program.

Playground citizenship is rewarded on the basis of attendance and co-operation. At the conclusion of the summer recreation program Certificate Awards are made to youngsters whose attendance and playground citizenship has been exemplary.

Realizing that all children are not disposed to competitive forms of recreation, the summer play leaders have scheduled various forms of passive recreation which have proved immensely popular over the past quarter-century.

These include classes in the making and costuming of puppets with the inevitable staging of puppet shows to the fascination and delight of young audiences.

Playground thespians come in for their share of opportunity, with dramatic skits and comedy sketches scheduled for various participating areas.

YOUNGEST PLAYGROUNDERS have special events which cater to their limited interests and enhance their sense of importance. These include handicraft (older youngsters delight in handicraft, too), sand modeling and rhythms.

This summer there also will be a special "Tackle Busters" program for young fishing enthusiasts. Conservation is the cornerstone of the fishing program, with instruction in fishing lore, rod wrapping, care of equipment and proper use of various types of rods preceding "field trips" which will embrace visits to nearby fishing grounds.

The summer recreation program has been described by Mrs. Charles F. Reed, president of the Recreation Commission, as a "reaffirmation of this city's faith in its children — the citizens of tomorrow."

Two other recreation leaders who have watched the summer play program grow to present proportions are Dr. Frank Harnett, assistant director of municipal recreation, and Oak Smith, director of school playgrounds.

SAID THESE TWO MEN: "We think we have the finest group of playground directors ever assembled at one time, anywhere, to work on the recreation areas this summer. We have a bang-up activity schedule. We know the youngsters are going to have a wonderful summer."

The summer recreation activities are an important part of the year-around public recreation program in Long Beach, a city known the world around for its co-ordinated plan of school and municipal recreation.

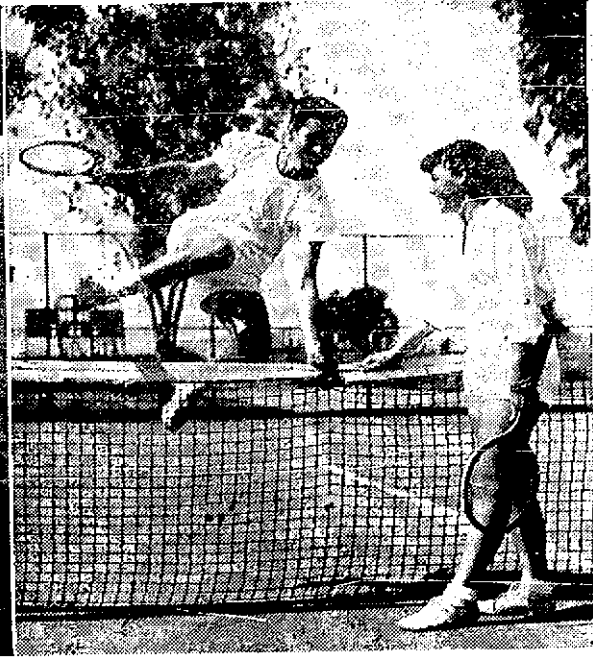

The co-ordinated plan makes available to all citizens the recreation facilities of the city government and the public school system in the belief that the "maximum recreation per taxpayer dollar" thereby is assured.

To see the summer program in action, stop by your neighborhood playground for a minute. It will make you proud of the youngsters, proud of your city and happy in the knowledge that you are an important citizen link in a happy, wholesome civic enterprise.

Jasper Nutter Photos

"It's all in the game" applies to city playgrounds. Above, Bob Benson, Recreation Dept. "umps," and Tam Smith, 8, at Cherry Ave. Playground.

Hunchback Genius of Revolution

By Lee Craig

ONE OF THE STRANGEST military geniuses in American history, who predicted the Japanese sneak attack at Pearl Harbor 33 years before it happened, was a Long Beach resident for several years.

He was Homer Lea, a five-foot hunchback who became the military adviser and confidante of Sun Yat-Sen, formulator of a defense plan for the British General Staff and an honored guest of Kaiser Wilhelm at German army maneuvers.

His close friend during his stay here in 1910-11 was a Long Beach attorney, Fred A. Knight, who still has vivid memories of the many long talks the pair used to have at Lea's cottage in an isolated section of the city south of Los Cerritos.

Lea began his life-long hobby of military lore and geo-politics as a high school boy in Los Angeles.

PREVENTED by his crooked back from following the active military career he coveted, he became leagued with Chinese residents of Los Angeles in the plot to overthrow the tottering Chinese Empire.

He attended Occidental College and Stanford University, where his fellow students said he talked endlessly of military campaigns and the conflicting relations of nations and peoples.

At the time of his graduation from Stanford, doctors gave him only three years to live, so — he later told Knight — he went to China to have a final fling at life.

When he returned several years later, he was resplendent in mandarin robes, bore the title of lieutenant-general in the Chinese army, and was on good terms with leaders of the new China.

His friendship with Sun Yat-Sen, which began during his school days in Los Angeles, had paid off.

AFTER HIS RETURN, Lea toured extensively the length of the west coast, from Canada to Mexico, examining the terrain and taking notes.

Then, he wrote "The Valor of Ignorance," in which he gave his predictions of inevitable war with the Japanese; how they would attack without warning and overrun the Philippines and even invade the United States.

After clearing the Pacific, Lea wrote, the Japanese could invade the west coast, and hold it with the help of nature against the Americans, who, in the valor of their ignorance, would counter-attack across desert and mountains to their ruin.

Lea was invited to England by Lord Roberts to study the English defenses against invasion. He did so, and incorporated his results in another gloomy book, "The Day of the Saxon," in which he prophesied doom for the British Empire.

IT WAS WHILE writing this book that he moved to Long Beach, away from his Los Angeles friends, where he could concentrate.

Knight had met him a short time before through friends at a restaurant in Los Angeles' Chinatown, and the two took to each other immediately.

When Lea moved to Long Beach, he invited the young attorney to visit, which was repeated again and again.

"Lea was one of the most brilliant and convincing speakers I've ever met," Knight recalls. "He was obsessed with one subject — military strategy and the causes of war. He had one of the strangest and most unforgettable personalities I have ever known."

Despite his hunch back, Knight says, Lea was a huge success with women; an attraction which was mutual. His only novel, "The Vermillion Pencil," concerned the tragic romance of a beautiful Chinese woman.

LEA PRESENTED a copy of the book to Knight and in it wrote this inscription: "My Dear Knight — The writing of these lines are not only reminiscent of some of the pleasantest hours of the past but are also prophetic of ten times as many more in the future. Homer Lea."

The little hunchback also changed the book's final lines to conform with the original manuscript, at Knight's request. (A photostatic copy of the change is found elsewhere on this page.)

The last time the Long Beach attorney saw Lea was just before the latter's final trip to China.

He told Knight, "The next time you hear from me will be in the public prints. I'm going back to my army."

A few months later, the newspapers were full of the successful Chinese rebellion led by Sun Yat-Sen.

But in the strain of his work in China, Lea was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage and returned to the United States, settling in Santa Monica for his last few months.

HE DIED Nov. 2, 1912, in his 36th year. Several days before his death, he had made arrangements for Knight to visit him — an appointment never to be kept.

Lea wrote before the days of oil-burning ships and before the airplane. He didn't think of war in terms of global conflict, involving millions of men and weapons.

However, his picture of American indifference, lack of foresight and misjudgment of the motives of other nations has many startling analogies today.

Military genius of Far East rebellion, Homer Lea wears uniform of Chinese Revolutionary Army lieutenant general. Lea once made his home in Long Beach.

Fred A. Knight remembers Lea as a brilliant speaker, author, a military genius.

Lea also changed the final lines of his book to conform to the original manuscript. This was done (see above) at the request of his friend, Knight.

Powder Puff Pretties Poised for Takeoff

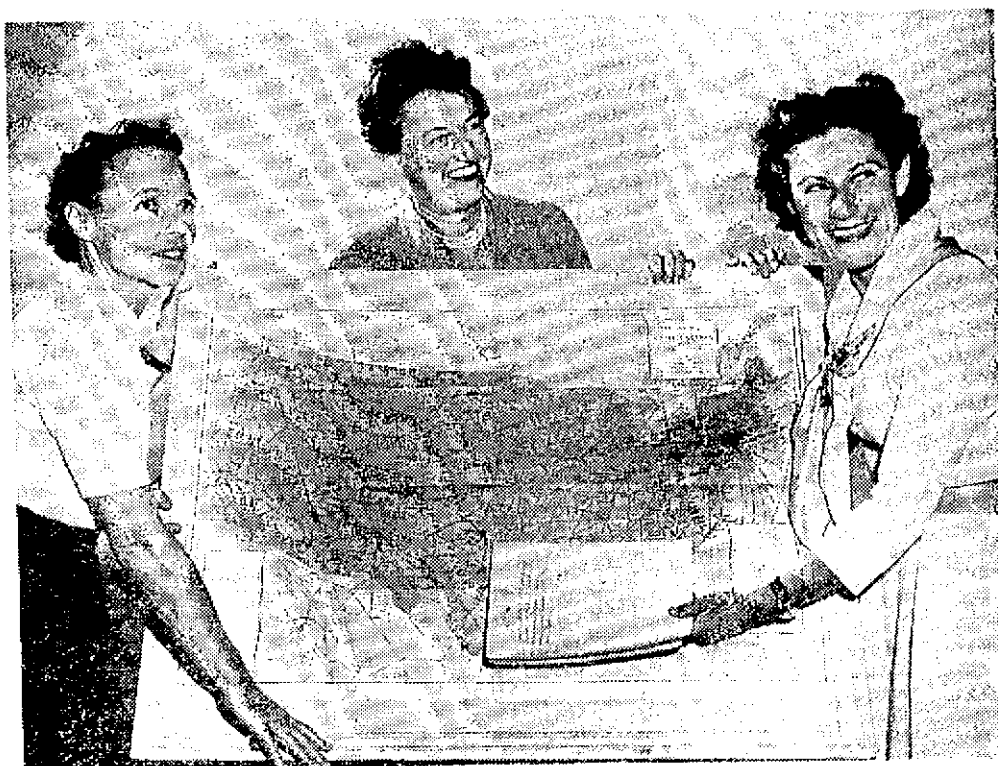

THE STAGE is set for the ninth annual All-Woman Trans-continental Air Race—better known as the Powder Puff Derby—which starts next Saturday in Long Beach and ends July 6 in Springfield, Mass.

Southland women pilots, all members of the famous The Ninety-Nines, Inc., international organization of licensed women pilots, are poised for the take-off.

They have consulted with Long Beach Airport Manager Glenn Arbogast and his staff, with CAA inspectors at the Long Beach office, with CAA tower personnel, with radio, engine and airframe mechanics on the field. For everything must be in readiness for the invasion Thursday of more than 50 light planes of 300 horsepower or less, carrying nearly 100 women pilots from all over the United States.

The 2800-mile flight of the Powder Puffers will be over Blythe, Calif.; Phoenix and Tucson, Ariz.; El Paso, Midland and Wichita Falls, Texas; Tulsa, Okla.; Springfield and St. Louis, Mo.; Terre Haute, Ind.; Dayton, Ohio; Wheeling, W. Va.; and Reading, Pa.

She Likes Being a Working Girl

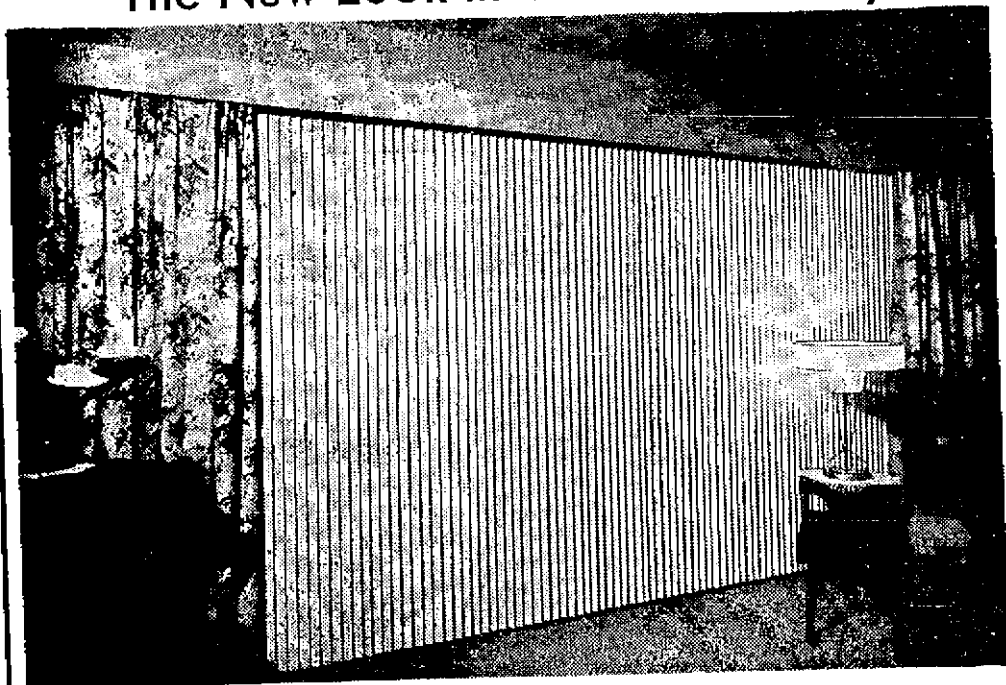

TWENTY-EIGHT YEARS ago a beautiful young woman thrilled the world with her attempt to become the first aviatrix to span the Atlantic. She missed reaching Paris by 300 miles as she and her co-pilot made a crash landing in the ocean. But Ruth Elder became the "Miss America of Aviation" and made an estimated $250,000 from personal appearances and movies. (She has visited Long Beach often.)

Then came setbacks and six ill-fated marriages. Although she was one of the flashing figures of the golden '20s, Miss Elder withdrew from the limelight in later years. At one point she chose to sever all connections with her glamorous past, even to dropping her given name and adopting that of a favorite aunt, "Susan."

TODAY AT 50 she has emerged somewhat from that retirement in Los Angeles, although stating emphatically she has no desire to live a goldfish bowl existence. Last year she became secretary to an aviation company executive and says, "I just love being a working girl."

At the same time she admits that being at a desk at the same time each morning is something new for her. But her job gives her the opportunity to talk flying with those in the business and she still loves to take a flight.

"A couple of years ago I thought going up in a jet would be a wonderful idea," she recalls. "Then I cooled off on the idea. But if the opportunity came up, I'd probably say 'Certainly,' and then be scared to death."

She had little fear on Oct. 11, 1927, when she attempted to fly the ocean, but her most vivid memory of that flight was the crash landing she and George Haldeman made 36 hours later in the Azores, 300 miles from Le Bourget Field, Paris.

THEY BROUGHT their plane, "The American Girl," down on the crest of a wave near an oil tanker. It was an hour before the tanker could pick them up.

After her whirl in the movies, Miss Elder tried writing and later entered the advertising business. When her agency failed, she went through a series of marriages with the latest, to cameraman Ralph King, ending in 1953 on her charge he called her a "gray-haired old bag."

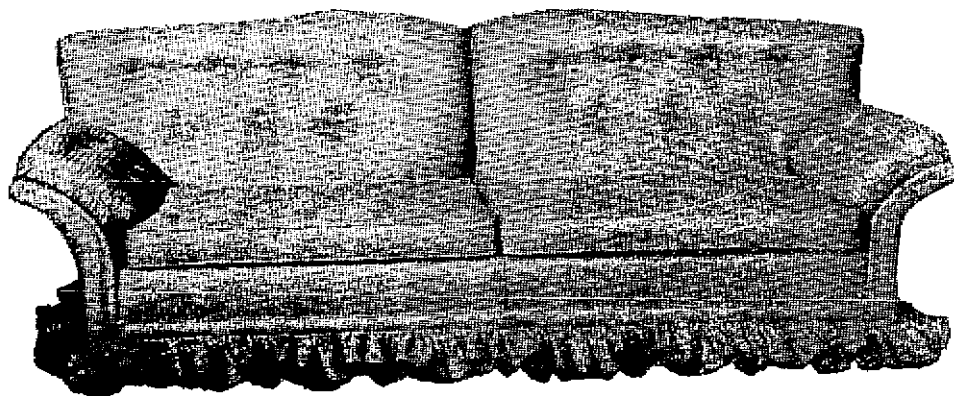

In addition to her job as secretary, the former flier has been working on her autobiography. She terms it a "long, drawn-out process," but adds that she finds her work of the present "very gratifying."

Disneyland Dream Comes True

The magic kingdom of Disneyland, multimillion-dollar entertainment and recreation center, is fast becoming a dream come true on 160 sun-drenched acres just west of Anaheim. This is a late photo of Main Street, U. S. A.

Frontierland, one of four main realms of Disneyland (the others are Tomorrowland, Fantasyland and Adventureland) reminds of the West's moving past.

All over the fabulous playground there is a great surge of feverish activity, as 1200 workers rush to have all in readiness for the July 18 opening.

Older Folks Aren't Wanted Here

Adults mingle with the kids, and sun laze on beach, at the bay in Seal Beach. It's handy, despite perils (note post office just across street in background).

SUNSET BEACH.

ADULTS are welcome to swim in the bay across from the post office, but the kids have given notice that they do so at their own risk.

One 11-year-old summed it up when he said: "Let them have the beach. But if they want to swim in the bay they'd better not complain about the mud fights or the games of tag we play."

An uprising? No, they explain,

SUNSET BEACH KIDS CLAIM THE BAY

it's just that the bay should be for the younger set. None of this "stop throwing the sand" routine which starts wherever adults mix with the younger generation.

In polite words, "older folks" aren't wanted.

"Well, it's not exactly that," said Drew Petzold, 12. "We don't mind older people around, but they shouldn't get in our way. After all, we want to have fun during the summer vacation and we can't have it when our elders are screaming about how we play."

The bay, located three blocks from the ocean, has become a

Balboa for the "much younger" set. Every day during school vacation it's filled with children and a few brave adults.

Twice a day the tide drops and only a little water is left for swimming.

"That's the best time for mud fights," grins 9-year-old Jerry Morgan. "The mud's real slimy and it splatters over everyone. But get some on one of the adults on the beach and you'd think an a-bomb exploded. Well, I agree with Drew. They can go up to the beach."

PRETTY, petite Carolyn Moss, 8, had this to say: "I came from the midwest and we had a swimming hole back there, and you never did see any older people around. They knew better. After all, they were young once and did the same things then that we do now."

What about the visiting inlander who's youngsters can't swim?

"They'll learn a heck of a lot faster when mothers aren't yelling at them to stay out of the water, or screeching at us when we run by their youngsters."

What about the mud, Carolyn?

"I don't like it any more than the parents do, but at least I can throw it back at the boys. After a few throws, I forget that it's slimy and enjoy it!"

Lengthening Our Life

Producing lumber is our business in Humboldt County. Growing trees is the medicine that gives us perpetual life.

We were happy indeed to add to our holdings 300,000,000 feet of Redwood timber, from a company retiring from business. This extends greatly the time when we will have to cut trees in our reforested areas, now planned to cover 100,000 acres. It will permit those young trees to grow much larger, and thus increase further our timber supply.

You've Seen the Face

By Jane Vernon

IF YOU'VE EVER tuned in the television set early in the morning, and found time to keep one eye on the screen while fixing the breakfast coffee or hustling the youngsters off to school, then you've probably seen green-eyed brunette Helen Parrish.

Helen is woman's editor of "Panorama Pacific," KNXT's 7 to 9 a. m. early-bird telecast. Her role on the program consists of interviewing sleepy-eyed guests who have news of interest to female viewers, modeling the latest fashions for milady and chatting with some of movie-dom's top stars.

And if you think Helen's face is familiar, you're probably right. At least if you've seen many movies during the last 30 years.

For Helen is a 30-year veteran of show business—including silent films — yet she just turned 32 last March 12!

THE PARRISH FAMILY moved from Georgia to California when Helen was still a baby. One day her mother took her to the casting office about a role for Helen's blonde and dimpled sister. There was no part for a "pretty" girl that day, but Central Casting said they could use two-year-old Helen.

The next day she stepped in front of the cameras for the first time—as Babe Ruth's daughter in "When Babe Comes Home," a silent picture.

Following in quick succession were parts in "Our Gang" comedies, roles in westerns with Bill Boyd and Roy Rogers, and a part in "The Big Trail," the first starring picture for Duke (John Wayne) Morrison. At 10, Helen was Jackie Cooper's girl friend in "When a Feller Needs a Friend."

At 14, while a student at Fairfax High School in Los Angeles, Helen was cast as one of the "Three Smart Girls" with Deanna Durbin. Two more films with Miss Durbin followed, and then she found herself playing second leads with Ann Sheridan in "Winter Carnival" (a favorite with TV "late shows" at present) and Joan Crawford in "They All Kissed the Bride."

IN NEW YORK, after doing summer stock and radio work, Helen was chosen to be the "First Lady of Television" as emcee of "The Hour Glass," first hour-long variety show to be aired in New York.

Back in Hollywood in 1947, she did "The Bill Welsh Show" on KFI-TV, the west coast commercials for Westinghouse during the '52 election coverage and pro-football games with Tom Harmon.

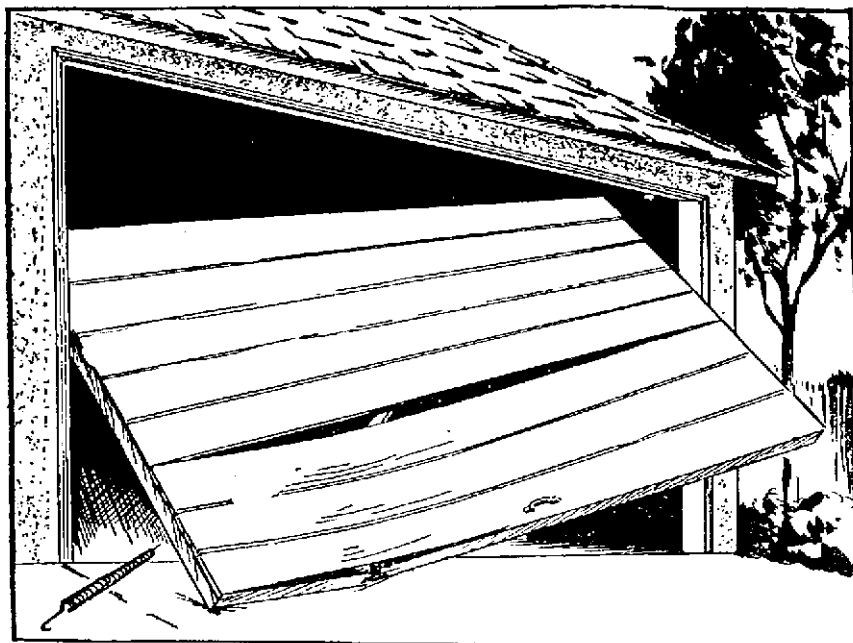

Moving to KNBH, she served as hostess for "It's a Good Idea" and "This Is Your Music," before moving to KNXT and "Panorama Pacific."

Between jobs she's filmed starring roles in teleplays for "Stars Over Hollywood," "Cavalcade of America," "Fireside Theater," "Ozzie and Harriet" and "I Married Joan."

MRS. S. W. ASH, 3169 Orange Ave., hooks rugs that are right at home on the wall. They are too pretty to walk on!

Her copy of a Currier & Ives print, "Winter Morning," 3x4 feet, shows a snowy farm scene that brings the crisp freshness of an eastern winter into her bright California home. Gray, blue and mauve shadows give the

"It was fun finding or dyeing just the right colors for the prancing team, spotted cows, sleek ducks and geese," says Mrs. Ash. "The speckled rooster was the problem! He was so small in proportion to the others, yet boasted so many gay colors. HOOKED RUGS found a piece of varicolored plaid which hooked up perfectly to resemble the cock's color-blended feathers."

YES, THERE HE IS, a bright bit of animation busily scratching in the yellow straw before the red barn door.

"The hardest part of making the picture life-like was to get realistic perspective," explains Mrs. Ash. "That cow in the background had to be ripped out dozens of times. I could not seem to get her OUTSIDE the barn. Finally, I built up the color of the cow and played down the colors of the barn so the animal assumed her proper place in the barnyard scene."

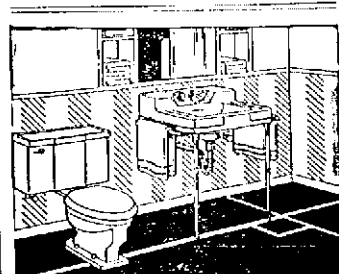

"The picture of kittens which I first made for a welcome mat was much easier. All they had to do was sit on a pillow and look natural."

"There's no wear-out to a well made hand-hooked or braided rug, so they are ideal welcome mats for a doorway, where they get lots of wear."

Mrs. Ash started hooking and braiding rugs in Kathleen Costello's Adult Education rug class and became so enthusiastic that she not only carpeted her entire home but reupholstered her furniture to harmonize with the rugs.

The same careful color selection and meticulous workmanship of her large rugs also is found in her small, dainty, framed hooked pictures.

Prize-winner at a recent fair was her combination braided and hooked floral rug. Harmonious blending of these two styles is difficult for most people but Mrs. Ash has so closely shaded her colors that the center leads naturally into the color-repeating braids.

Touring the Pyramids

Anyone with a yen for the unusual can lie himself down Mexico-way for a look at the ancient Pyramids of Teotihuacan, located an easy hour's drive from Mexico City.

They are relics of a long-forgotten civilization which flourished from the Second to Eighth Centuries of our era, and whose original builders are unknown as they antedate the existence of any known tribes in Mexico. However, archeologists believe the finishing touches were supplied by a tribe called Teotihuacanos, from whence the Pyramids derive their name.

Tourists can relax during a tour of the area at adjacent picnic grounds and gardens, while excellent hotel accommodations can be had at near-by Mexico City. American Airlines planes en route to Mexico City fly directly over the region.

AROUND THE WORLD WITH

DELA PLANE

HONOLULU

PROBABLY the best tourist buy at this time and for at least a couple of years. The Waikiki area is slightly overbuilt with hotels at the moment and it's a buyer's market at competitive prices.

Best of the reasonably priced hotels is the beautiful new Princess Kaiulani. Every room is open to the breeze and rates start at $6 single, $7.50 double. A really elegant suite with a balcony overlooking Waikiki will run about $12-$15 for two. Beautiful swimming pool and dancing area, elegant bars and restaurant rooms.

The hotel was designed by Gardner Dailey with Polynesian motifs predominant but ideas are used from the whole Pacific. Gives all the effect of tropical hotels with all the best of more modern buildings.

YOU GET HERE by United Air Lines, Pan American or Northwest from Seattle. Also running on a nonscheduled and cheaper basis is Transocean from San Francisco.

My personal choice for the best buy is United's tourist DC-6. Exactly like the first-class United DC-6 in the States, seats two and two instead of three and two. The price round trip from San Francisco is $275, including tax. The time is 9½ hours.

All airlines now can book you a fine hotel room at the time you buy your ticket.

If you want to go first class, United flies fastest with an eight-hour run on the champagne flight DC-7 for $350 round trip. Pan American first-class is not as fast but gives you access to the downstairs bar.

For a budget trip, ask your travel agent for the $271 air fare and hotel inclusive, seven-day package trip.

The weather is moderate. Buy your bathing suits and aloha shirts after you get here. The shops in the Waikiki district are excellent and have the greatest selection.

For a couple of books to read first: Eugene Burns' "Last King of Paradise," "Calabashes and Kings," by Stanley D. Porteus.

There are no more formalities to Hawaii than there are to a trip to New York. No shots needed. No passports, clearances, visas.

Tomatoes Fill a Kitchen Bill the tomato. When Sir Walter Raleigh presented Queen Elizabeth with a tomato plant as a token of his esteem, he started a fad that soon made tomato plants the equivalent of a dozen or so red roses. And, better still, popularized the new-fangled fruit from the New World.

Time has proved him to be a good press-agent, too, though the romantic appeal has long since turned into appetite appeal. There's probably no one food today more popular or versatile than the tomato. They're tops when sliced, broiled, stewed or puffed, and can even bear to be stuffed.

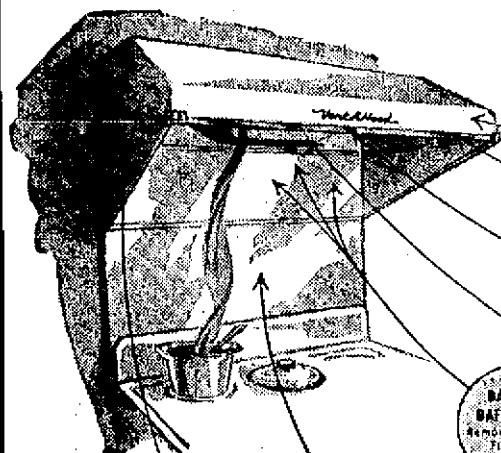

Mrs. Leonard Budnick, 715 Marshall Pl., our lady-of-the-day, evidences by her happy enthusiasm that the tomato is popular with her family. Fact is, one of their favorite dishes is Sauerkraut and Tomatoes, the featured recipe today. They're equally fond of Southern Fried Tomatoes, Western Tomato-Cheese Bake and Stuffed Tomato salad,

Adventure in Modern

The McCalls' lanai is planned for family comfort. Overlooking the patio, this room provides for televising and is an integral area with kitchen.

Black iron fireplace is backed against Ojai field stone and hood rests upon a large slab of white sandstone.

By Eileen Ball

PRODUCT of unhurried planning, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McCall, 4338 Blackthorne Ave., represents an interesting departure from traditional architecture. Its design was influenced by the Cliff May style, using post and beam type construction.

Exterior landing and entry to the home intrigue the interest right from the start. The landing is of blue-green slate and fans out from the door. It is bordered by a picturesque reflection pool. Lofty panels of glass flank the door on the left. The pool sweeps into the entry under the glass. The transition from the outside to the inside is of no concern to gold fish that swim in and out of the house under the wall. The pool curves into the entry and extends under the dining room floor which is cantilevered over the water like a low, extended balcony. Dinner guests, pausing at the metal grill railing, find the view of fish and lily pads from above interesting and exotic.

The ceiling takes lofty flight over the entry hall. At its highest point it is 20 feet above the floor.

Three steps up from the entry is the landing that leads to the living room to the right and to the dining room on the left, straight ahead, through sliding doors of glass, is the patio around which the house was built.

THE LIVING ROOM is dominated by a fireplace of black iron which stands against the partition wall of field stone. A cylindrical flue thrusts itself up through the ceiling. Its huge metal hood rests on a slab of white sandstone which extends, fin-like, on either side to function as display or serving counters.

The walls are palest blue-green. The wood ceiling and rafters are painted stark white. A three-angled sofa upholstered in deep turquoise faces an octa-area. Soft buff walls and pumpkin colored drop ceiling provide the furniture with a contemporary background that borrowed its colors from the coral-to-lan tone of the marble topped buffet. A very modern hanging fixture of brass adds the necessary drama to complete the transition from old to new.

Champagne wool shag carpet was used in both the living and dining areas.

The lanai overlooks the patio through floor-to-ceiling panels of glass. An integral part of the kitchen, this area is devoted to casual family living. Cantilevered rattan furniture, upholstered in aqua and coral establish an informal atmosphere.

A wedge-shaped bar defines the lanai from the kitchen. A further feeling of division is created at the place where the wood rafters of the lanai meet the pumpkin colored ceiling of the kitchen-dinette.

Adjoining the lanai and the kitchen is a large built-in cabinet which provides storage for a hi-fi, phonograph, bar supplies and china.

Kitchen counter tops are pumpkin colored plastic. Still length draperies are of cotton satin with a pumpkin, yellow, charcoal, brown and white harlequin pattern. From the sink Mrs. McCall may overlook the exterior "entry". It is interesting to note how the sun's reflection on the lily pool sends flickering lights across the ceiling of kitchen.

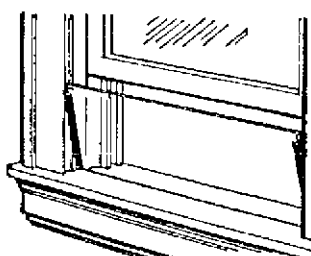

FROM THE LANAI three steps lead down to the bedroom wing. The McCalls' two sons share a room 14x20 feet, easily divisible by a folding leatherette partition. Each half of the room is identical with built-in desks, wardrobe and bed. This solves the problem of a large activity area as opposed to nighttime privacy.

So that the boys' room may enjoy the light that floods the glassed passageway leading past the bedroom this wall is unconventionally constructed of translucent plastic screening. Mounted on a fragile dark brown slatted framework this wall emulates the Japanese screen method.

Sliding doors open from the master bedroom to the patio.

The patio, surrounded on all sides by the house, is a room in its own right completely surfaced with redwood-scaled concrete (save for artistically placed planting areas). Its complete integration with the house makes it an interesting and useful year around living area.

Make Do

Draft deflectors can be made from glass or hardboard. Slit two pieces of rubber hose for ends to keep the deflector firmly wedged between the window panes.

Showdown at Angel Pass

By Fred Taylor Kraft

Independent-Press-Telegram Book Editor

EXCEPTIONAL western stories are not easy to come by, but when one does turn up, Hollywood grabs it, puts a well-known male star in the top role and has it made, box office-wise.

Such a story is "Man of the West" (Simon and Schuster, $2.50), by Philip Yordan who wrote the hit play "Anna Lucasta" and the 1954 Academy Award-winning motion picture story "Broken Lance." Because Mr. Yordan, switching to a new medium—the western novel, but continues to write with a driving force, his "Man of the West" undoubtedly will be given the works by a big studio—color, wide screen and much ballyhoo.

Mr. Early is the hero, and he's as fast as oiled lightning on the draw, with a record of corpses of evil-doers in his wake as a professional gambler. That's why his pious neighbors don't want him when he brings his 18-year-old son to settle on his ranch at Angel Pass. Hatred and suspicion deepen when a young girl, in love with the handsome Mr. Early at first sight, deserts a home in the village to keep house for him. There's strife over the girl between the gunslinger and his jealous son.

And then Mr. Grimsell, of Mr. Early's old school of the west, arrives from the desert at the mouth of the pass with thousands of thirsty, hungry cattle. The great herd smells the water and lush grass in the valley below and is ready to stampede. The pious folk, exhausting every other resource to keep the herd from trampling them under, discover they need Mr. Early, after all. And how Mr. Early handles the situation makes the climax of this fast-moving tale one long to be remembered.

SURVIVAL during the terrorism of the Nazis in Vienna and Prague and then the Fascists in Rome meant living a lie for the young and beautiful Jewess, Debbie. She lived with shibboleths and shadows—and even sold her body—to keep her husband and small son alive. She wore a crucifix in pretense of being a Catholic in Rome.

Finally, the family managed to reach the new and troubled state of Israel. There it might live at least honestly, despite the interference from the British and the open warfare with the Arabs. But the greatest tragedy of all to beset family came there, and Debbie faced it with all her remaining strength.

"The Last Temptation" by Joseph Viertel (Simon and Schuster, $3.95) is a fine, thoughtful novel. It is a book with action, authentic settings. But above all it is the rich meaning, the substance—a modern novel to be remembered.—P. F.

MOGOLLON ROUNDUP: Billy, who belongs to a tough city gang, is sent against his wishes to spend a summer at the Bar-Bar-A ranch in the Mogollon mountains of Arizona. There he meets real cowboys, gets acquainted with ranch and wild animals, and in triumph he is permitted to go along with the boys, Billy, Rusty and Bud, on a cattle roundup. It's "Billy and the Bar-Bar-A" by Estelle Webb Thomas (The Caxton Printers, Ltd., $3), illustrated convincingly by James Burroughs.

MUSIC THAT LIVES: Edward N. Waters' "Victor Herbert" (Macmillan, $8.50) reveals in a highly readable manner the enlivening scope of a great, popular composer's often repeated compositions. The scintillating good taste, the colorful ascendancy, the spontaneous yet polished perfection of Victor Herbert—of these the author writes with devotion and accuracy.

tom of buttered oblong baking dish (12x7x2 inches). Cover with slices of cheese and sliced tomatoes, then cover with remaining bread. Beat eggs slightly, stir in milk and seasonings. Pour over bread-tomato-cheese combination. Bake 1 hour in slow oven (325 deg. F.). Makes 6 servings.

Stuffed Tomato Salad

- 3 hard-cooked eggs
- 1/2 cup diced celery
- 1/2 (4 1/2-ounce) can chopped ripe olives
- 1/4 cup mayonnaise
- 1/2 teaspoon mustard
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 4 to 6 tomatoes

Dice eggs and combine with celery and olives. Blend mayonnaise, mustard and salt and mix with egg mixture. Cut tomatoes part way through into 6 wedges and spread open. Heap egg mixture in center. Serves 4 to 6.

Tomato 'n' Egg Quickie

1 can solid pack tomatoes-eggs-bacon-toast. Method: Drain tomatoes and place each tomato in well oiled muffin tin, or place all the tomatoes on shallow baking pan. Remove part of center, as necessary. Drop 1 egg into each tomato cup. Place a strip of bacon cut in half over the top. Place in a moderate oven, 350 deg. F. and bake until eggs are set and bacon is cooked. Serve each tomato cup on toast or toasted English muffin, without or with cheese cream sauce.

Kitchen Tip:

A small amount of sugar added to the batter for French toast will insure quick and even browning.

Smooth as Silk

a completely captivating, affectionate and intelligent dog compressed into six to 12 pounds of spirited energy and covered with a fine, straight, silky coat at least six inches long of a blue and golden tan or grey-blue and tan. This glossy coat does not shed, requires no care except brushing, and the oil glands give off no doggy odors.

Only recently has the Sydney Silky Terrier Club of America been organized to gain recognition and eventual admittance to the American Kennel Club. There are on record the names of more than 50 owners with upwards of 75 dogs in seven states, including California.

All Silkies continue to be registered with the Royal Agricultural Society Kennel Club of Sydney, Australia. At present the Silkies in the United States can appear only in the miscellaneous class at AKC shows.

The function of this dog is that of any terrier — hunting and digging out small furred animals. His happy, playful nature also makes him an ideal companion, and he is well suited as a watchdog for home or apartment.

The Silky was produced in the Sydney area of New South Wales, Australia, and he is mainly a cross between the Australian terrier, the Cairn terrier, and the Yorkshire terrier. It may be that the Norwich terrier played some part in his foundation.

The demand for the Silky is beginning to exceed the supply here in America. He is priced from $150 for the average pup to $200 for the pick of the litter or show stock. The price being reasonable because of this dog's scarcity and fine qualities, it is expected that the position of the Sydney Silky terrier is assured for many years to come.

One of the best authorities on this breed is Howard A. Jensen, 430 Lake St., San Francisco. The picture of the two Silkies illustrating this article was supplied by Jensen.

ORANGE EMPIRE Dog Club will hold its 24th dog show and obedience trial in John Galvin Park, Ontario, on Sunday, July 17. Entries for this unbenchd show must be in the office of the superintendent by midnight, Monday, July 4.

VIKING WAGAWAY, black cocker spaniel bred and owned by Dr. and Mrs. Henry Erdahl of Garden Grove, took winners dog and best in stake awards at the recent West Coast Cocker Spaniel Club Maturity Stakes in the Miramar Hotel, Santa Monica. Dr. Erdahl, a Long Beach dentist, long has been a breeder and shower of cockers. Viking Wagaway was handled by Norman Austin. Third place award in bitches went to Viking Tullabang, bred by the Erdahls and a litter sister of the Stake winner but now owned by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Devlin of Compton.

HOW TO

Join Corners and Make Strong Crisscross Joints

1. MITERED CORNERS, for all but the roughest work, are stronger, neater than butt joints—and not much more difficult to make if you have a simple miter box. Patented fasteners, such as those shown, simplify your construction, and are stronger with glue. Some of them can be set below surface and covered with putty or wood plastic.

3. HAUNCH MORTISE (1) is common in screens, windows. Open mortise (2) is easier than mortise and tenon and has good strength when glued. Single dovetail (3) is self-locking, decorative. Half-lap (4) gives joint lots of gluing area.

5. OPPOSING BUTTS are false cross-lap, useful if you need many joints—as in egg-crate designs. Corrugated fasteners front and back secure joint, and can be set, puttied and painted. Beware of splitting if you use hardwood.

2. HALF-MITERING permits surface fastening technique on back (1), with miter's neatness on front (2). Cuts you make (3) are simple, and with glue on all surfaces, a snug-fitting half-miter is among strongest of all cabinet joints.

4. CROSS-LAP is an easy way to make a cross joint on a flat plane. Lay members at right angles, scribe widths, and then saw half-way through each. Clean out between cuts with a chisel, then use glue or mechanized fasteners.

Give Your Snaps Contest Quality

"Dancer No. 33" is one of five prize-winning photos taken by Lawrence Schiller. It was shot with yellow filter, at 1/100th at f11 with an electronic flash fill-in.

By the Shutterbug

A BOOM SEASON in photo contest activities is under way for camera fans. Under the bright summer sun, picture horizons seem to expand and the snap-snap tempo of shooting sharply increases.

This is the time, too, to set about getting pictures you may want to enter in one of the many contests open to all comers—perhaps your own camera club, your school annual or one of the many national contests sponsored by manufacturers, various publications, fairs and other organizations. Many of these offer cash prizes highly worthwhile to win. Even if you don't win a prize, you'll find your picture-taking fun increased and the quality of your snaps will improve from striving for contest quality.

Perhaps we can learn a lesson or two from some of the prize winning pictures that have just been announced in the 1955 Graflex Photo Contest. They show, once again, that when a photographer stops to think and adds ingenuity to camera technique, the results are worth the extra effort.

Take the case of Roy Pinney, of New York City, who took a first prize with a beautiful shot of a group of parakeets. How was he able to get them in a cluster without their flying off? Simple enough. He built a plio-film tent and draped it over the birds. This confined them to a specific area in which they moved with restricted freedom. He exercised a little care so that the lights didn't reflect off the transparent film surface. This same trick can be applied to other small pets thereby eliminating the need for extreme patience or great agility in chasing and focusing.

LAWRENCE SCHILLER, 18, of San Diego, is a diligent cam-

Space for Improvement

Roses have their own assigned area in the carefully planned and beautiful garden of the Woods' home. Above is a general view, looking across yard.

THE FLOYD WOODS, 2011 Lave Ave., have as many as 70 shrubs plus numerous flowers and young trees on a city lot, all because they are using space wherever they can make it. And they have by no means exhausted their space-finding resources even yet.

The property is somewhat wedge-shaped, with the wide side across the back, so this gave

By Karen Smith

Mr. and Mrs. Woods a little advantage at the start. Then, with the use of a serpentine curbing topped with brick outlining planting areas bordering the lawn, they have formed giant scallops of space suitable for plants which the average person would give over to grass. One giant thumb-thrust into the lawn creates a rose garden.

To the Woodses, there simply seems to be no end to good gardening spots. They go on the theory that there is no need for barren spots—low plants can be used to face down taller plants; bulbs can be naturalized wherever desired; vegetables can mingle with or form borders for ornamentals; plants can grow flat against walls thus giving room in front for other subjects; shade loving plants such as cineraria, cyclamen, violets and fuchsia, can circle trees; vines that cling to mortar (Virginia creeper, creeping fig, Baltic English ivy, honeysuckle, trumpet creeper, etc.) can decorate chimneys and other places.

Soil throughout the Woodses' garden has been enriched with rotted manure or commercial fertilizer to encourage healthy growth of plants wherever they find themselves. In one place, the soil was improved with perch that seemed better off in the ground than on the platter. The roots of four tomato vines and three string bean plants are feeding eagerly on the fish.

THE LANDSCAPING of the garden has not overlooked the fact that there are grandchildren who will be playing frequently in the yard. There is a playhouse on a concrete slab set against the back wall and bordered with plants. The children have their own low drinking fountain that drains into a square of small colored rocks.

Birds, too, are welcome in the garden. The birdbath is wisely set in a corner well out of the line of traffic.

Children have their place in the Woods' yard, this play area being concreted and reserved for their use.

Olallie berries are new on the berry scene, and will help Stefan (Butch) Cummings, above, go to college.

'Olallie' Is the Name

By Madge Brissenden

NEW ARRIVAL on the South-land agriculture scene is the olallie berry.

It's a cross between the boysenberry and the loganberry. It looks like a mammoth blackberry and when dead ripe has the flavor of the dewberry.

The berry is firm when ripe, thus is suited for deep freezing. It is very sweet, requires little sugar.

Olallie berries make delicious pies, cobblers and berry dumpings, as well as good jams and jellies.

There are some 45 acres of olallie berries in Orange County. The weather has been especially good for ripening them. Under the cool cloudiness they have not ripened too fast. The season is only a few weeks.

Among the thriving dealers in olallie berries is Stefan (Butch) Cummings, 16-year-old Garden Grove High School Junior, established at the Brissenden, Hagle ranch, 7382 Garden Grove Blvd., on the road between Long Beach and Garden Grove.

WITH COLLEGE in view after graduation next year, Butch was casting about for some lucrative business to help finance his career when he and his grandfather, Claude Hagle of the Marvin Apts. in Long Beach met Paul Pletz, who lives on a ranch on Ball Rd.

Pletz has 15 acres of olallie berries. He sold Butch enough young plants for a half-acre. Grandfather and grandson planted, cultivated, pruned and trained the berries for 18 months. They have them trained on wires as high as a man's head.

Few persons are familiar with olallie berries—but all find them good.

Tips on Gardening

GARDENING TIPS for the week. . . Azaleas, camellias and rhododendrons should be kept moist all through the summer months. Just because they have finished their flowering period does not mean they can get along without moisture.

This is a good time to set out avocados and citrus fruits. In fact, all subtropical plants, whether fruiting varieties or ornamentals, can be started now.

For summer color plant geraniums, petunias and marguerites, all of which can be obtained in flower for immediate transplanting. Zinnias, petunias and marigolds can also be started now.

era fan who came through with five prize winning pictures. Most of them were of schoolmates pressed into service as models. One of the subjects, a bearded man, was not a schoolmate, of course. He was a character whom Larry had often seen on the beach and wished to photograph. It took him almost a year to build up his courage to the point of asking the subject to pose for him. He was flattered and consented immediately.

Larry's action here illustrates another important point in taking contest pictures. He was able to produce a signed release from the subject when he was requested to do so. Such a release is necessary for all recognizable persons in the major prize winning pictures of photo contests. With this in mind, get a release at the time of shooting pictures or at least know whom you're shooting and where to reach them.

LONG BEACH CAMERA GUILD brought home two cups from the annual meeting of the Southern California Council of Camera Clubs — one the award for winning third place in the Council's contests for color slides in the year, the other for third place in black and white print competitions, both in Class A.

Elva Hayward and Don Hayward of the local Guild became

New in Stamps

To celebrate the signing of the Austrian State Treaty, a special two-schilling blue-gray stamp with an overprint was issued by Austria. The stamp, bearing a coat of arms, was originally issued in 1945 (Scott No. 452). The latest printing received a dark blue overprint, "Staatsvertrag 1955."

associates of the Southern California Council of Camera Clubs, having accumulated the required 50 points, the reward for their work for the good of photography in Southern California.

Elva Hayward won third award in Triple A Class in the Photographic Society of America, a showing held in Santa Barbara recently.

Although the Long Beach Guild has discontinued its regular contest meetings for July and August, field trips are being planned for those months. Members will be notified through this column.

CHARLIE DODD

Royalty Is Welcome

ALTHOUGH lovely Queen Elizabeth II and her handsome husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, haven't been in lately for dinner at the Apple Valley Steak House (a slight oversight, no doubt), it is a well known fact that this restaurant serves food prepared to a monarch's taste.

For example, should the Queen drop in some evening at the steak house, 733 E. Broadway, she certainly would enjoy the tenderloin tip dinner, one of the house specialties. These delectable small tips of filet mignon are sauteed in wine with mushrooms and served with fancy wild rice. They are absolutely delicious, especially with a glass or two of Paul Massignon's Pinot Noir wine. For $2.95, the steak house serves the tenderloin tips on a scrumptious complete dinner which includes soup du jour, a gigantic tossed green salad with choice of dressing, vegetable, assorted breads and beverage.

After a hard day on the polo field, the Duke undoubtedly would enjoy one of the Apple Valley's famed steaks. Maitre d'hotel Charlie Dodd could recommend a host of varieties — all the finest beef obtainable from the Illinois Packing Co., Chicago. Available are super-tender New York cuts, filets, top sirloins and porterhouses. If the Duke were particularly hungry, he could spend the whole evening enjoying a mammoth TRIPLE New York cut — which weighs 48 ounces!

ANOTHER Apple Valley entrée suited to a Queen's palate is abalone steak sauteed in butter with slices of almonds. It's listed on the menu as Abalone Amandine and is $2.50 on the restaurant's generous complete dinner.

Equally delicious are Louisiana Frog Legs Meuniere, also sauteed in butter, $2.75 on the complete dinner. Maitre d' Dodd recommends the serving of a bottle of Paul Massignon's Pinot Chardonnay with either the abalone or the frog legs. A rare white burgundy, Pinot Chardonnay's bouquet complements sea food perfectly.

MOST SENSATIONAL DISCOVERY IN 40 YEARS FOR BETTER BAKING AND FRYING!

FIRST ALL-NEW SHORTENING!

It's RICH! It's YELLOW!

Procter & Gamble's Golden Fluffo

THIS BAKING CHAMPION OF ALL ALABAMA FAIR, Mrs. J. T. Portera, says:—
“You should see the white cake I made with this rich yellow shortening! Used my same old recipe—but changed from white shortening to Fluffo. My cake was absolutely wonderful—had such fine texture—tasted so rich! And still it was nice and white.
“And I used Fluffo in my icing. Talk about rich! This was the richest, easiest-spreading frosting I ever made!”

“No white shortening ever gave me a cake like this!” says this expert Southern cook who won first prize blue ribbon for her baking.

What a cake it makes!

BETTER-TASTING...
MORE APPETIZING!

Yes, Fluffo cakes are the highest, lightest, most delicious golden-rich cakes you can possibly bake!

Why? Because fabulous, new, easy-to-mix Fluffo blends into smooth, rich batter never possible before with any other shortening! Glorifies yellow and chocolate cakes—gives delicate moist richness to your white cakes... yet leaves them white!

Like cooking champions, you'll be truly excited about golden Fluffo! It gives you high, light, delicate cakes such as you've never been able to bake before... richer-looking and better-tasting, by far, than any you can get from white shortening!

That's because Fluffo is different! Even its color is different—yellow from pure carotene.

And Fluffo is such fun to work with!

Use it in all your recipes that call for shortening—and see what happens! Without changing a single measurement, you'll get the flakiest, tenderest golden-brown piecrust possible... wonderfully tender-crisp golden-brown fries that are so digestible!

Yet Fluffo costs no more than leading white shortenings! It's available in most areas. Get a can and use it for richer-looking, better-tasting cooking!
